

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JANUARY 21, 1893.

NO. 75

CITY IN BRIEF.

Oh, for a January thaw.
Down to zero this morning.
Mr Charles Price, of Salisbury, is in the city.

The Wilmington Messenger looks just splendid in its new dress.

The engagement of Clay Clement to appear in Metropolitan hall next Tuesday night has been cancelled.

It is thought that a proposition will be introduced in the legislature looking to the establishment of courts of oyer and terminer, such as we used to have in old times.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA
HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES,
RALEIGH Jan 20th, 1893.
To the ministers of the several churches of the city of Raleigh.
We have respectfully to request that you will meet each day at the general assembly to offer prayer; and we will thank you to meet together and arrange a schedule of appointments to that end. Respectfully,
R. A. DAUGHTON,
President of the Senate.
LEE S. OVERMAN,
Speaker House Reps.

In pursuance of the above request the ministers of the city are requested to meet at the Young Men's Christian Association parlor at 4 o'clock p. m. today, (Saturday.)

Substantial Aid.

The relief committee did splendid work yesterday in the way of relieving the needy. Nearly $700 additional funds were raised making about $3,800 altogether. This speaks well for our people. Let the good work go on.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair weather, warmer Sunday morning.
Local forecast made at station for this vicinity:
On Sunday: Fair weather, becoming warmer during the middle of the day.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:
Maximum temperature, 39; minimum temperature 7; rainfall, .00.

City Extension

At a special meeting of the Board of Aldermen held last night it was decided by a vote of 7 to 5 to ask the General Assembly to extend the limits of the city of Raleigh a quarter of a mile in each direction. Those voting for extension are Aldermen Jones, Pogue, Pegram, Bowen, House, Robinson and Parker. Those against extension are Aldermen Redford, Lee, Honeycutt, Stronach and Lumsden.

A Good Report.

Yesterday afternoon, the Grand Jury for the January term of Wake county court made a report from which we make the following extract: We have examined the jail and found it in good condition, warm and comfortable. The prisoners, on being questioned, state that they are all cared for. We think that Wake county should be congratulated on having this department under the charge of such a capable officer as Sheriff Page and his assistants. We have examined the clerk's office and find it in good condition. We wish to make especial mention of the order, all the books and papers are kept, all of them being properly indexed and marked. We also found the sheriff's office in good condition; the books were all found in proper shape. We found the safe in a very bad condition and would recommend that another one be furnished. We also examined the register of deeds office and found the books as good condition as could be expected under the present system. The register informs us that he is getting up a new index, which, when completed, will add greatly to the convenience of the office and facilitate business.

Supreme Court.

Applications for license to practice law will be examined on Friday and Saturday, the 3d and 4th, of February 1893, and on Tuesday the 7th the appeals from the first judicial district will be called.

Preaching.

By appointment elder Wm R. Welborn, of Surry county, N. C., will preach in the Primitive Baptist church, corner Morgan and Dawson streets, tomorrow night and Monday night at 7:30 o'clock. Elder James A. Burch, member of the senate, will be with him. Public cordially invited.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mr. Joseph Watson took place from the residence on South Blount street, yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock Rev. Dr. Marshall officiating. The following gentlemen as pall-bearers: Messrs. Ohas Goodwin, Andrew Syme, Robert Dobbin, W. H. Martin, Joseph Barber, S. G. Ryan.

Nice Florida oranges, 25 to 50c per dozen at A. Dughi's.

For No-To-Bac,

wholesale or retail, apply to the sole agents, Nicholson & Co., Raleigh, N. C.

When application is made to some places for oysters, the reply is, "we can't get them, there is no use trying." Now, this is strange, because Dughi has them ALL THE TIME fresh and fine. Just go to his first class restaurant and you will find out. There is no mistake in it.

Our Special January Carpet Sale.

This lot of carpets we are now closing out, are not simply the short lengths, with not enough for a room, but they are mostly full rolls and some of our best qualities. They are patterns that have been dropped by mills, consequently are not so valuable to us. We are offering them in some instance as much as 15c and 20c per yard less than wholesale cost. Some pieces are offered at 50c in the dollar. House-keepers should not fail to see this lot of carpets.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

OUR ALDERMEN HAVE ACTED WISELY.

Correspondence of the Visitor.

The board of aldermen, at their meeting last night, made a most commendable, important and popular advance movement in the interest of our city by voting to extend the corporate limits four hundred yards in every direction. It is true that the proposition was opposed by some of our best people in the present limits but it will not be long before even those people will see that the extension was an exceedingly wise and timely act.

Raleigh will now set out upon a new period of growth and prosperity, and there is every indication that the capital city is destined to be the largest and most influential inland city in the entire south. The fact that the city officers have decided to include within the corporation all that really belongs to the city, indicates marked progress, and the act has the heartiest endorsement of the people of the city.

It now remains the duty of the board of aldermen to further assist the growth and prosperity of the city by giving every possible encouragement to all proper manufactures. To do this the city charter should be so amended as to exempt from city taxes all manufacturing enterprises within the corporation for a period of ten years from their establishment. This relief is reasonable and just and would overcome much of the opposition from outside residents to the extension of the corporation. The most prosperous cities in the union have this tax exemption of manufactures in their charters and the exemption should be in the charter of Raleigh. The people of Raleigh are willing that this release should be given to all factories within the city and this option should be given to the board of aldermen in amending the charter by the present legislature.
