LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION

RALEIGH, JAN. 21, 1893.

SHORT, SHARP AND SNAPPY.

If a congressional committee is to be appointed to investigate the whisky trust pray let it be impressed upon the minds of its members that it is the trust and not the whisky that is to be investigated.

The French ministry must be more deeply involved in the Panama scandal than was supposed, as its members have begun to advise newspaper correspondents for making exposures.

It begins to look as though it would be necessary to have two World's fairs: one open on Sunday and one closed on Sunday, in order to prevent a boycott.

Somebody must have been giving Baron the French American society, as he has written a play entitled "Mrs Free and Easy."

People who give presents to newly elected officials may do so from pure good will, but there are always people who believe that they do it either for advertising or for office.

The young carpenter who while at work in the house of a Wall street broker persuaded the broker's daughter to run away with and marry him is evidently a joiner as well as a carpenter.

The proposal to have a congressional committee investigate the "social evil" in our large cities seems unnecessary to many people. A very large committee could easily be selected from congress, each member of which would be prepared to make an extensive report on the subject without any new investigation.

No wonder congress looks a little suspiciously upon the proposed freight pooling amendment to the Inter-State commerce law; the big men are entirely too unanimous in its favor.

ODD FELLOW'S COLUMN.

On Friday evening last Bro. W. D. Gaster, Deputy Grand Master instituted Cedar Creek lodge No. 153, located at Cedar Creek in Cumberland county. He was ably assisted by the brethren of Cross Creek lodge in this work. The following elective officers were installed: W. J. Harrison, N. G.; D. B. Culbreth, V. G.; A. J. Hollingsworth, Rec. Secretary; M. J. Jones, Financial Secretary; Furman Jackson, Treasurer.

On Tuesday evening last, District Deputy, W. H. Collins instituted Mt Olive lodge, No. 104, at Mount Olive, and was assisted in that work by the Grand Secretary and brethren of Neuse lodge, No. 6, at Goldsboro. The following are the elective officers of this lodge: Prof. J. E. Smith, N. G.; J. O. Loftin, V. G.; George C. Koruegay, Recording Secretary; J. M. McGee, Financial Secretary; J. B. Hatch, Treasurer.

While in Goldsboro this week we had the pleasure of meeting Dr W. C. Whitfield, the Superintendent of our Orphan home. He informed us that he now has in charge twenty two orphan children, and that they are healthy and hearty. He says the Grand Lodge at its next session will have to provide other buildings.

THE ESSENCE OF ODD FELLOWSHIP.—In writing of what he is pleased to term the "over soul," Emerson says: "The philosophy of six hundred years had not searched the chambers and magazines of the soul. In its experiments there has always remained in the last analysis a residuum it could not dissolve." Like the "over soul" of Emerson is the essence of Odd Fellowship, an unanalyzed excellence; an all pervading spirit hovering about our glorious institution; manifesting itself here in a kindly deed, there in generous self sacrifice, everywhere involving fellowship. Today, in the fair form of charity, it seeks the haunt of poverty and want; tomorrow, with patient care, it sits by the bedside of wasting sickness; next we see it standing, with tearful eyes of sympathy, by the open grave; next, with strong arms, it is supporting the widow's tottering steps; next, with kindest care, it takes the form of teacher and trains the tender orphan. Thus this essence of Odd Fellowship, this "over soul" of our order, disappears at one point but to reappear in other deeds of love. Oh! thou inward spirit of Odd Fellowship, who can define thee? Thy outward manifestations are constantly before us; thy daily ministrations bless all about us; we feel their presence and are softened by sympathy; we hear thy voice and our hearts throb with love; in thy presence our greed, our selfishness, our littleness, grow detestable to us and we are borne out of former selves into a broader, better life. What is this incomprehensible essence of our order which is ever with us, yet ever beyond and above us? It is the loving spirit of the Infinite Father teaching us that we are brothers.—Northwestern Odd Fellow.

We think it advisable that the Noble Grand of our three lodges instruct their visiting committee to investigate any members, condition, who they have any reason to suppose, is suffering or liable to suffer, during this terrible state of the weather. Many of our worthy brothers will suffer in silence rather than make their needs known, and we should have to search diligently before we can find out where suffering is. The unworthy, if such there be, will call loudly enough for help, we will have no trouble to find them, but the one we want, and he of all others will most appreciate our help. Never let it be said that public charity was extended to an Odd Fellow, as long as we are in the condition to take care of our own, and here, we are well able to do so.

What a fake some of these "directories of information" are, that you see in some of the Odd Fellow papers. In one of our leading weekly exchanges that has a "directory of information," we notice that Bro C. M. Busbee is still Grand Sir, and another of our exchanges is still advertising that the Sovereign Grand Lodge will be held in Portland, Oregon, in May, 1892.—Bundle of Sticks.

BANANA PUDDING.

Dissolve three fourths of a box of gelatine in half a pint of cold water for one hour, then add half a pint of boiling water, the juice of two oranges and two lemons and two eggs of sugar; strain into a mold and let it stand until it begins to harden, then stir in six thinly sliced bananas. When sufficiently hard, turn out of the mold and serve with whipped cream.

William A. Lehr of Kendallville, Ind., says Hood's Sarsaparilla is

King of Medicines And His Cure Was

Almost a Miracle

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass. "Gentlemen: When I was 14 years of age I was confined to my bed for several months by an attack of rheumatism, and when I had partially recovered I did not have the use of my legs, so that I had to go on crutches. About a year later, Scrofula, in the form of

White Swellings,

appeared on various parts of my body, and for eleven years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed six years. In that time ten or eleven of these sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. Several times pieces of bone worked out of the sores. Physicians did not help me and

I Became Discouraged

"I went to Chicago to visit a sister, as it was thought a change of air and scene might do me good. But I was confined to my bed most of the time. I was so impressed with the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in cases similar to mine that I decided to try it. So a bottle was bought, and to my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better. This strengthened my faith in the medicine, and in a short time I was

Up and Out of Doors

To make a long story short, I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a year, when I had become so fully released from the chains of disease that I took a position with the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since that time have not lost a single day on account of sickness. I always feel well, am in good spirits, and have a good appetite. I endorse for it has been a great blessing to me, and to my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the King of all medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR, No. 9 North Railroad St., Kendallville, Ind. Hood's Pills cure Biliousness.
