

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, JANUARY 26, 1893.

NO. 79

CITY IN BRIEF.

Col. John W. Cotten, of Tarboro, is in the city.

The Senate set to day with closed galleries during the consideration of the bill to promote sheep husbandry.

There will be a special convocation of Raleigh Commandry, No. 4 K. T., in its hall at 7:30 o'clock this evening.

The tax collector of Cherokee county paid into the state treasury $4,256.26 yesterday afternoon.

We deeply regret to hear of the illness of Mrs. W. J. Young, at the institution for the deaf and dumb and the blind.

The present Legislature will elect about 1400 new justices of the Peace and the lists from the various counties are coming in freely.

Blow, blow, blow! That disagreeable catarrh can be cured by taking Hood's Sarsaparilla, the constitutional remedy.

Our friend Dughi is still catering to the public tastes in the epicurian line. At a late hour last night he got up a handsome spread to a select party.

Our friends, Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell, have a beautiful and nicely arranged delivery wagon for their customers. There is none prettier in the city.

Don't fail to see Miss Adelaide Westcott at Metropolitan hall to night. Aside from the enjoyment of the occasion it should be remembered that the proceeds are for the benefit of that noble charity St. John's Hospital.

The trustees of the Agricultural and Mechanical College have agreed to ask for ten thousand dollars a year. It is stated that the College needs about $4,000 a year for equipments. The attendance of students is now 114.

The nineteenth century ship builders did not make as good a job in duplicating the caravels of Columbus as did the builders of those hardy little vessels, as it is announced that the Nina's foremast must be taken out and put into a new position before she will sail.

It was really unkind of those who concoct the swell society news for the country to marry Mrs. Senator Hearst to a gentleman with whom she has no personal acquaintance. Even the most romantically inclined woman wants to meet her future husband before the marriage ceremony is performed.

Attention, Odd Fellows

Seaton Gales Lodge, No. 64, I. O. O. F., will hold its regular meeting tonight at 7 o'clock sharp. Every member of the lodge specially requested to be on hand. Work in the degrees and other important matters will have to be attended to. To all visiting brethren a cordial invitation. "Music by band."

How is it.

Although there is a yard provided for wood carts, to day Hargett street was almost completely blockaded with them. This should not be so, and it ought to be looked after.

Appointment.

Col. Cameron has been tendered the position of Adjutant General of North Carolina, but he has not yet indicated his acceptance being out of the city. In the meantime Gen. J. W. Octon, of Tarboro, acting under orders of Jan. 21st, is attending to the duties of the office.

New Military School.

A meeting of leading citizens of Fayetteville was held last Tuesday to receive propositions from the Davis Military School for opening a high grade military school in that city on the 1st of September. Five buildings will be erected near the railroad station, and it is thought that about two hundred students can be enrolled at an early day. The trustees have been elected consisting of some of the most prominent citizens in Fayetteville.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair colder. Local forecast made at station for this vicinity:

On Friday: Fair, stationary temperature, cold wave probably Saturday.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 60; minimum temperature 26; rainfall, 0.00.

The Public Printing.

The joint caucus of the members of the General Assembly last night passed a resolution instructing the committee on Printing to ascertain and report what reductions are expedient in the public Printing expenses.

Temperature.

The following data of temperature for the past six years for the month of February will prove of interest:

The warmest February was that of 1890, with an average of 52.7; the coldest was that of 1889, with an average of 38.3. The highest temperature was 77 on the 18th, 1891, the lowest was 13 on the 24th, 1889.

A New Weekly.

The athletic association at Chapel Hill University has decided to publish a weekly newspaper to take the place of the Chapel Hillian, two years since. The paper will be published three months in the spring and three months in the fall. The name of the paper is to be "The Tarheel," and the following staff has been selected: Editor in chief, Chas. Baskerville, managing editor, Walter Murphy.

Married.

Yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock Mr. Augustus M. Smith, of Abbeville, South Carolina, was united in marriage to Miss Mabel Upchurch, formerly of this city. The ceremony took place at the residence of the bride's aunt, Mrs. F. O. Mooring, on north Blount street, and was performed by Rev. Alexander Raven, of Kernersville, N. C., an uncle of the bride. The happy couple left on a bridal tour to Florida, after which they will take up their residence in Abbeville.

We extend to the happy couple our heartiest congratulations and wish them the greatest prospects through life.

Tax Exemptions.

The Raleigh correspondent of the Wilmington Messenger, says:

When Governor Carr read his inaugural address he dwelt with marked force upon the matter of non exemption from taxation and suggested that all the railways in which the state has an interest should surrender any tax exemptions. This was directed particularly at the North Carolina railway. The directors of that road met some days ago and discussed this matter of surrender. The decision was adverse. Today the same conclusion was again reached. The amount effected is something like $350,000 it is learned by your correspondent. The legislature will perhaps take up the matter. It is quite sure that Governor Carr's statement that only actual church and school property must be exempt from taxation will soon prove literally true. All the drift of things is in that direction.

Just Arrived.

A new line of checked muslins and nainsooks, Hamburg edgings, torchons and other laces.

200 dozen napkins and a complete line of towels, table linen and white quilts at Woolcott & Sons, 14 East Martin street.

The admission to Metropolitan hall tonight on the occasion of Miss Westcott's entertainment will be 5c and 25 cents. No extra charge for reserved seats.
