SHORT, SHARP AND SNAPPY.

If congress is trying to do nothing it is making a howling success at it. Senator Smith, of New Jersey, ought to shine at Washington. He is a patent leather man.

A Rhode Island man who died the other day left seven widows. No discount on his nerve.

The consciences of some men will never let them forget the senatorial elections of 1893.

An esteemed exchange prints a half column editorial asking "What is heart failure anyway?" It is death, me boy.

Does the falling off in the number of gentlemen "mentioned for the cabinet" mean that the raw material is exhausted?

The time may come when no young man who has not taken part in a prize fight, as principal or second, can hope to gain a footing in New York or Chicago society.

The San Antonio grand jury was evidently composed of newspaper readers; it decided that the alleged Mexican revolution was greatly exaggerated.

If that confounded old comet continues to grow brighter the people will have the discussion pro and con all to go over again. Shoot the comet!

The manager of a Naples Bank was arrested the other day for taking 2,000,000 lires. He might have taken double that number liars from the United States and been in no danger of arrest.

Why our churches spend millions of dollars every year trying to civilize and christianize heathen savages and neglect the various state legislatures is a question worth considering.

The men have one reason for liking to see women wear the big hoop skirts, with which fashion is now threatening them, but it is just as well not to print it in a family newspaper.

Uncle Jerry will have one satisfaction. The next secretary of agriculture will have to hump himself to produce a more wintry article than the country has had this season.

Mr. Cleveland's influence in this congress may be overrated. He doesn't seem to be making much headway towards stopping the present monthly purchases of silver by the government.

A great to do is being made in some quarters because the politicians are fighting. It has always been and probably always will be when there is patronage to distribute.

There is food for serious thought in the fact that the poverty of a Senator or Representative in Congress is constantly brought forward as a proof of his honesty. While this does not necessarily imply that the rich ones are dishonest it comes near enough to it to make a guilty man mad.

Gail Hamilton continues to throw dynamite at Fort Gladstone, but some how the "grand old man" continues to hold office and Mrs. Maybrick remains in prison. Gail might get a pointer from the fable of the storm and the sunshine.

NO OTHER Sarsaparilla can produce from actual cures such wonderful statements of relief to human suffering as HOOD'S Sarsaparilla.

THIS IS THE TIME OF YEAR WHEN Men and Women BECOME

chilled by cold, weakened by the weather and run down generally. Few people understand why this is so, or what part of the body the inclement weather and winds attack first.

Let us tell you. It is the kidneys, liver or urinary organs. These are the first parts that the weather affects; that disease attacks. The kidneys take cold, the urea is not thrown off, but is forced back upon the lungs, and pneumonia results.

But it was caused By Weakness of the Kidneys There is only one way known to medicine or men for promptly checking kidney troubles and restoring great organs to health and strength, and that is by the use of Warner's Safe Cure

IT HAS STOOD THE TEST OF TIME; IT HAS SAVED THOUSANDS OF LIVES; IT HAS RESTORED MILLIONS OF SUFFERERS TO HEALTH; IT HAS DONE WHAT WAS NEVER DONE, NEVER ATTEMPTED BEFORE; IT HAS MADE MEN STRONGER AND HEALTHIER; IT HAS MADE WOMEN BRIGHTER AND HAPPIER;

IT STANDS ALONE IN ALL THESE QUALITIES. Do you not think it would be wise for you to use it and thus avoid the dangers of the season? Insist upon having it.

MOSES AND THE MULE.

WELDON, N. C., Jan. 25.—A gentleman living in the "Red Oak" neighborhood of Brunswick county, Va., is the owner of a very thin mule. One night last week, when the thermometer lagged the zero mark, this humane old gentleman blanketed his mule with a very white blanket. Near by lived Moses a colored preacher, who has recently adopted the "holiness" doctrine. Moses, since his new profession, often says he is willing to step right off from "dis ole wicked worrul right into de glory lan."

Now, whatever possessed this old mule to play a practical joke on Moses no one can ever know, but in all probability he was possessed with the spirit of long ago Red Oak Academy students. The night was exceedingly dark and extremely cold. The mule broke away from his moorings and pranced over to investigate Moses' straw stack. In the dead hours of night Moses opened his front door to take his customary peep at the stars. The wind howled mournfully around the corners of the house and the breeze caused the white blanket on the mule to flap up and down like the wings of a fowl. One glance at the large white object with outstretched wings and Moses was by the side of his sleeping spouse.

ANGEL GABRIEL.

"Git up, ole 'omon, git up; our time are cum! de angel Gab'l dun 'peared out dar on the straw stack. I seed him spread out his wings. Lucy Lucy Ann! git up an' dress, we is bound 'ter go! An', oh, Lordy, I's not ready!"

"Mose, you's a fool," said his dutiful spouse, "what on de yearth allis you? Haint you bina prayin' all de time for de angel to cum an' take you!"

"BORROWED A FIG."

"Yes, Lucy Ann, dat's true nuff, but did I spec him so soon? You knows I borrowed dat pig from Mr. Judge Jones fur de las' meetin' an' I doan' zackly see how I'se gwine to clear mi skirts."

"Now, Mose, did'n' yo' borry dat pig from the Judge?"

"Zactly so, in course I borried de pig, but dout de Judge's consent. I ain't certain how de angel will recon-ohle dat sereponcy in my catogory, but I was gwine to pay the Judge fur de pig tomorrow. Now you's witness to dat, Lucy Ann."

Moses and his Lucy Ann both put on their best robes, and waited the coming of the summons, singing meanwhile, "I's gwine home to the promis' lan'."

"ALL A TRICK," HE SAID.

But only the bleak night wind rattled the door of their humble abode and the sun rose about on time above the hill tops before Moses ventured to look out. The straw stack looked natural, but the white object was gone. He investigated, and instead of angelic tracks, those of a mule cut deep into the ice and snow were seen. Moses followed the mule's tracks and was led to the house of its owner. There, also, was the innocent looking animal with the white blanket.—Moses vowed he would never speak to his neighbor again. "It wur all a trick," he said, "but I'se gwine ter pay Mr Judge Jones fur dat pig next yer ef craps is good."

Hood's Sarsaparilla Rescued Their Child from Scrofula.

For Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and all other foul humors in the blood of children or adults, Hood's Sarsaparilla is an unequalled remedy. Read this:

"We are so thankful to Hood's Sarsaparilla for what it did for our little girl that we make this statement for the benefit of other anxious parents and

Suffering Children

Our girl was a beautiful baby, fair and plump and healthy. But when she was five years old, sores broke out behind her ears and spread rapidly over her head and forehead down to her eyes, and into her neck. We consulted one of the best physicians in Brooklyn, but nothing did her any good. The doctors said it was caused by a scrofula humor in the blood. Her head became offensive to the smell and dreadful to look at. Her general health waned and she would lay in a large chair all day without any life or energy. The sores caused, great itching and burning, so that at times we had to restrain her hands to prevent scratching. For 3 years with this terrible humor. Being urged to try Hood's Sarsaparilla we did so. We soon noticed that she had more life and appetite. The medicine seemed to drive out more of the humor for a short time, but it soon began to subside, the itching and burning ceased, and in a few months her head became entirely clear of the sore. She is now perfectly well, has no evidence of the humor, and her skin is clear and healthy. She seems like an entirely different child, in health and general appearance, from what she was before taking WOODWORTH CITY lies about 30 miles north of Chattanooga, within a few miles of Altamont, the county seat of Grundy county, and between Tracey City and the celebrated Beechbea Springs, the Saratoga of the South. It is in the centre of the rapidly developing coal and iron district of Tennessee, and within its borders are found coal, iron, zinc, marble and asbestos, with various hard woods, such as oak, chestnut, maple, beach, locust, hickory, ash, pine, cherry and black walnut in abundance. The village of Gruettli, with several hundred inhabitants, contains Churches, Schools, Stores, Post-office and telegraph station, and a number of manufacturing industries, all of which are located on the property and form part of Woodworth City.

She Suffered Fearfully

The proceeds of the sale of these lots will be used to develop the mineral resources of the property and build up a large and thriving city. Quick application for these lots should be made, as the right is reserved to advance the price without notice.
