

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, FEBRUARY 1, 1893.

NO. 84

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. P. M. Wilson, of Winston, is in the city.

Mr. E. A. Alderman, of Greensboro, is in the city.

We were pleased to see in the city yesterday afternoon our friend ex-Senator Lucas from Hyde county.

The reception at the Governor's Mansion last night, was well attended. The young folks had a most enjoyable impromptu dance.

During the month of January twenty inches of snow fell, and the normal temperature for the month was 31 degrees the lowest for any month since 1836—so says Prof. Von Hermann.

Work on the new hotel has been recommenced and we hope it will proceed uninterruptedly during the spring until completion.

There was a perfect rush at our friend Dughi's restaurant last night after the Spelling Bee, but Dughi handled them all right just the same.

Catarrh in the head is a constitutional disease, and requires a constitutional remedy like Hood's Sarsaparilla, to effect a cure.

An editor who believes in the universal fitness of things gives this advice to his readers: "Don't never strike a man when he is down. Do like the balance of the world—kick him."

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Whiting Bros who announce bargains in boys' wasters, mens fine shoes, childrens hosiery &c. These gentlemen are offering such bargains in all their lines as must attract general attention.

Messrs. C. A. Sherwood & Co., are offering unusual inducements in everything in their line. No house in this city carries a better selected stock in everything that pertains to the dry good business, and for bargains it cannot be surpassed. Let strangers, members of the Legislature, and citizens generally call and be suited.

It is proper to state that the bill introduced by Senator Day providing for a monument in Nash square, is not the bill desired by the ladies of the confederate monument association. Senator Day's bill contemplates the erection of a monument similar to that in the Capitol square in Richmond, and is designed to commemorate the deeds of our statesmen, soldiers &c., covering a period from the revolutionary war. The ladies only propose a monument to the confederate dead. We should have both.

Postponed.

The concert and reception which was to have been given at St Mary's school tonight has been postponed until tomorrow (Thursday) night on account of other entertainments.

The Inter State and Brokerage Company make an announcement of much interest today. Stocks, bonds, scrip &c., are bought and sold on the most accommodating terms. Read the advertisement.

Raleigh Savings Bank.

The following gentlemen compose the officers and directors of the Raleigh Savings Bank for the present year:

OFFICERS.—W. C. Stronach, Pres.; G. Rosenthal, V. Pres.; John T. Pullen, Cashier; J. O. Litchford, Teller; Geo H. Snow, Attorney.

DIRECTORS.—G. H. Snow, L. R. Wyatt, V. E. Turner, N. W. West, A. B. Stronach, W. C. Stronach, Joe. F. Ferrall, Julius Lewis and G. Rosenthal.

The Spelling Bee.

The entertainment at Metropolitan Hall last night under the auspices of Y. M. C. Association was a complete success. The programme was admirably carried out in all particulars. The bar acting by Messrs. C. L. Woodell, B. C. Huddle, Jimmie Bullock and Dixon Conn was fine, while the tumbling by Masters Archie Horton, Horace Dowell, Wade Williams and Jimmie Bullock was excellent. The dumb bell exercises by Messrs. O. L. Woodell and R. C. Huddle and the pitching of Mr. Woodell were well executed.

A number of our prominent citizens participated in the spelling bee exercises. Mr. A. L. Rucker was accorded the championship.

The Purport of the Bill Introduced by the Monumental Association of North Carolina.

At the request of O N Hall, the head of the Veterans Association of North Carolina, the ladies of Raleigh organized less than a year ago, for the purpose of erecting a monument to the confederate dead of our state. A vice president was appointed in every county, and it was urged that every county in the state, should be represented by a block of granite, on which would be inscribed the name of county and number of soldiers lost in the confederate army. Many of the vice presidents hold money now for the association.

A resolution was adopted rejecting propositions of individuals to furnish memorial blocks, for that the private soldiers of North Carolina, who gave up everything, and left their homes at the call of duty, with no hope of reward or glory, are entitled to the same respect, as those who were more fortunate in gaining higher positions. And we are sure that there is no cause, more capable of arousing the sympathies of the state, than that of a memorial to every North Carolinian, who donned the grey. This association of ladies is the first step ever taken in North Carolina to erect monuments to her confederate dead.

Death of Capt. R. J. Powell.

It is with the most profound regret that we announce the death of this gentleman, which took place yesterday afternoon, about 5 o'clock at the residence of Mr. J. R. Barkley, on Edenton street, after a short and painful illness. Capt. Powell was 54 years old and a native of Richmond county. He was a student at Chapel Hill in the class 1858-59. Several years since he came to Raleigh and entered business, carrying on an alliance store. He was a most amiable and popular gentleman and had a large number of friends in our midst. His remains were taken to Pittsboro this afternoon where the funeral and interment will take place tomorrow. The body was escorted by a delegation of Odd Fellows, of which order Capt. Powell was a member.

Our Annual Inventory.

We take an inventory once a year, our time for this is February 1st. We are just ending up our winter's work and about to begin new business for spring. Before we show the new Spring Goods we wish to close out much of the past season's stock. We had rather sell certain kinds of goods than to carry them through the summer. Intending purchasers should take advantage of this week, for in every department will be found certain lines of goods that will be sold for less than value.
