VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 6, 1893.

NO. 88

CITY IN BRIEF.

A number of our citizens will attend the Mardi Gras at New Orleans.

The introduction of bills in both branches of the Legislature is falling off.

Mr. O. M. Busbee has gone to Norfolk Va., on business.

Hon. David Schenck, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Mr. Walter R. Henry, of Vance Co., is in the city.

Soon be time for fixing up for the inauguration. Who is going from Raleigh?

Eleven members were received into the Central Methodist Church yesterday by certificate.

The sheriff of Robeson county came up with the taxes from his county last Saturday afternoon, amounting to $11,594 89.

Jitchford Encampment No. 26, I. O. O. F. will meet tonight. Business of importance. A full attendance desired.

Mr. L. D. Stephenson of Swift Creek township, is a candidate for Marshall of the Eastern District of North Carolina.

Miss Janet Andrews is quite sick at the residence of her grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson on Hillsboro street.

A friend has called our attention to the fact that there are over half a dozen nationalities reported among the business men on Wilmington St.

We are much pleased to note that the tobacco trade is fast improving in our city. Messrs. Rankin & Williamson, of the "Jones warehouse" report increased sales.

We are in receipt of the Public Ledger Almanac for 1893. It is an elegantly gotten up book full of the most valuable information. The Philadelphia Ledger is one of the foremost journals of the continent.

Mr. J. W. Evans, corner of Blount and Morgan streets pays special attention to all kinds of repairs on carriages, wagons &c. There is no place in the city where better work can be had on the most moderate terms. Don't forget the place.

Members of the General Assembly or others in the city should not fail to call at Rosenthal's Clothing Emporium on Fayetteville street, opposite the post office, and get a nice outfit. Dave Rosenthal is in charge and will take pleasure in showing some of his immense bargains.

The following contagious and infectious diseases were reported to the Superintendent of Health during the month of January, 1893:

Fourth ward—1 case typhoid fever.
Fifth ward—1 case scarlet fever.

The proposition before the Board of Aldermen last Friday night for presentation to the legislature of the bill relating to the city of Raleigh, embodied several amendments aside from the mere proposal to extend the city limits. Among these were amendments to give the city jurisdiction over Pullen Park, to regulate speed of railroad trains through the city, to prohibit vagrancy &c. Upon the presentation of the bill as a whole, the Mayor gave the casting vote.

The attention of the public is invited to the advertisement of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell who are justly entitled to the name of the champion furniture dealers of Raleigh. These gentlemen carry at all times a most superb stock of everything in their line which they are offering to the public at prices which are bound to meet public approval. Strangers should not leave the city before calling, and members of the Legislature would do well to inspect the stock for the purpose of purchasing something for the loved ones at home.

Oil Stoves, Nursing Penders and Bird Cages may be found at

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Showers, warmer Tuesday a m., colder Wednesday morning.

Local forecast made at station for this vicinity:

On Tuesday: Rain warmer.
Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 35; minimum temperature 32; rainfall, 0.30.

Recital.

The organ recital to be given by Prof. Karl Schneider, at the Church of the Good Shepherd on next Thursday night will be one of the rarest and most enjoyable entertainments offered in Raleigh for a long time. Tickets will be sold at the door but they can also be had at Simpson's drug store, corner Hillsboro and Salisbury streets. The general admission will be 50 cents, no reserved. We hope there will be a very large attendance.

Jim, the Westerner to Night.

This play was presented here last year and was considered the society event of the season. It is not a blood and thunder play, but a comedy of today. The story of the drama is simple, interesting and alternately humorous and pathetic. Miss Pauline Willard who plays the leading role has been pronounced the most beautiful woman of the American stage, and the ladies of Raleigh will have an opportunity of seeing some of her latest importations from Paris. Miss Willard will be remembered as "Nisby" with Augustin Daly's Comparing a night off Mr. Gibbs who assumes the role of James Erroll is a handsome, manly and talented actor.

The opera House is being festooned with flags and other decorations, in honor of the Governor's attendance. Box "A" will be especially decorated for himself and family, and Box "B" will be occupied by the Hon. Lee S. Overman and family, Speaker of the House. The people of Raleigh should not miss this opportunity of witnessing one of the prettiest performances interpreted by one of the best companies on the road.

The Mascott.

The Raleigh Amateurs will perform the opera of "Mascott" at Metropolitan Hall next Friday night, and it will undoubtedly be one of the most interesting performances that has been rendered here this season.

The scene is laid in Italy, and the costumes of the ladies will be gotten up by an artist acquainted in that country. The following is the cast:

Retina—Miss Alice Dugger.
Princess Frametta—Miss Alice Jones.
Lorenzo xvii, Prince of Prebino—r. James Anderson.
Pippo—Mr. Hugh Miller.
Rocco—Mr. Walter Grimes.
Fredric Prince of Pisa—Mr. Herbert Barrow.

Mr. Clarence L. Dean, business manager of Robert Downing, the famous American tragedian, is in the city. Mr. Downing will appear at Metropolitan Hall on Tuesday evening, Feb. 14th, in the great tragedy of the "Gladiator" in which he has made both fame and fortune.

Another little flurry of snow surprised the weather folks yesterday.

RECOLLECTIONS.

What a blessed thing is memory! How it brings up the pleasures of the past, and hides its unpleasantness! You recall your childhood days, do you not, and wish they would return! You remember the pleasant associations, while the unpleasant ones are forgotten. Perhaps to your mind comes the face of some friend. It was once a pale, sad face. It showed marks of pain, lines of care. It seemed to be looking into the hereafter, the unknown future. And then you recalled how it brightened, how it recovered its rosy hue, how it became picture of happiness and joy. Do you remember these things? Many people do, and gladly tell how the health returned, how happiness came back, how the world seemed bright. They tell how they were once weak, nerveless, perhaps in pain, certainly unhappy. They tell of sleepless nights, restless days, untouched food, unstrung nerves. And then they tell how they became happy, healthy and strong once more. You have heard it often in the past, have you not? You have heard people describe how they were cured and kept in health? You certainly can remember what it is that has so helped people in America. If not, listen to what Mrs. Annie Jenness Miller, who is known universally as the great dress reformer, says: "Six years ago, when suffering from mental care and overwork, I received the most pronounced benefit from the use of that great medicine, Warner's Safe Cure." Ah, now you remember. Now you recall how many people you have heard say this same thing. Now you recollect how much you have heard of this great Cure. Now you are ready to admit that memory is usually pleasing, that the highest pleasure comes from perfect health, and that this great remedy has done more to produce and prolong health than any other discovery ever known in the entire history of the whole world.

Caraleigh Gingham.

The "Jimmie" staples sell rapidly because of their excellent value, home-made, smooth, regular and fine, they take the place of 10 and 12 cent gingham. Our solons imbued with a spirit of home pride and progression, are profuse in their praise. The ladies say what is the price? 8c, oh nonsense, give me 10 yards of this, 5 of this, and 12 of this, and thus they go, all day.
