VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 7, 1893.

NO. 89

CITY IN BRIEF.

Col. Paul B. Means is in the city. Mr. John T. Patrick is in the city. The public printing fight is "on." Col. H. S. Burgwynn of Henderson is here.

Col. Harry Skinner of Pitt, is in the city.

Some splendid theatrical performances are expected in the near future.

The last half of the session of the Legislature is now upon us. From now on we can rely on business.

Several gentlemen from the New England states are in the city looking around.

The reception which was to have been held at the Executive Mansion this evening has been postponed.

The opera of "Ma-cott" will be presented for the benefit of the King's Daughters of this city.

It is said that the cold weather is to continue for some weeks longer by order of the ground hog.

Now for night sessions and crowded galleries in the two houses of the General Assembly.

"I was deaf for a year, caused by catarrh in the head, but was perfectly cured by Hood's Sarsaparilla."

H. HICKS, Rochester, N. Y.

The L'Allegro german has been changed from Monday night till tomorrow night. It is requested that gentlemen present cards at the door.

Looking at the Columbian postage stamp one would imagine that the length and breadth of stamps had grown in proportion to the growth of the country.

Notwithstanding the inclement weather there was quite a good house at Metropolitan hall last night to witness the performance of "Jim The Westerner."

This morning, bright and early, there appeared at the home of one of our enterprising merchants and vineyarder, a bouncing little boy stranger, that pulled the beam down to twelve pounds.

As there are a majority and minority report on the contested election case of Newsom against Stack, there will, no doubt be a most interesting discussion in the Senate tonight when the matter comes up.

The making married women responsible for debts contracted so far as their separate estate is concerned, caused a very long discussion in the Senate to day. It was finally defeated.

One of the biggest events of the present year will be the departure of about 500 teachers and their friends in August next for a twenty days visit to the World's Fair at Chicago. They will of course, be chaperoned by our friend Col. E. G. Harrell who knows just how to entertain on such a trip. The teaches will only incur a cost of thirty five dollars.

The ladies of North Carolina in the strenuous efforts they are making to perpetuate the deeds of our Confederate dead but recall to the men of our State the words of Judge Gaston. "So graceful, so constant, yet to gentlest hearts trembling." The very name of Confederate Monument seems to have aroused every daughter of the "Old North State" and from all sections of the State come words of encouragement. Mrs. R. W. Bidgood, of Fayetteville, has just sent $86.30 raised through her efforts.

While the letter of Judge Schenck may have been considered by him as necessary under the circumstances, we think it entirely unnecessary for his vindication. The State of North Carolina contains no gentleman of a higher sense of honor, and no citizen who knows him, would believe for a moment that in every movement of his life, he is not actuated by the purest motives. He is WITHOUT REPROACH.

Death of James McKimmon.

It is with the deepest regret that we announce the death of the above named gentleman which occurred last night about 9 o'clock, at his residence, on north Blount street.

Although the health of Mr McKimmon has been for some time past in a precarious condition, his death was somewhat sudden. He was in the 53rd year of his age and justly considered one of our best citizens. He graduated at Chapel Hill and served throughout the war in Manley's battery. At the close of the war he engaged in the business of a commercial trader for a large drug establishment, but afterwards became proprietor of a drug establishment in this city, which he was engaged in conducting at the time he was taken sick.

In all relations of life Mr. McKimmon was a true hearted, noble gentleman. He had in all respects the courage of his convictions, which he boldly asserted, but in a manner not to offend those who differed with him. It can be said that he was generous almost to his detriment, and no object of charity met his view without a kind response.

He leaves a wife, three children, brother, two sisters and other relatives to mourn their loss, with whom, in common with our community at large, we most deeply sympathize.

An exchange says a new fractional currency of the denominations of 10, 15, 25 and 50 cents will be issued in a few weeks and will resemble the old fractional currency issued during the war.

A guard keeps day and night watch over the grave of the late ex-Secretary Blaine.
