RALEIGH CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, FEB. 7, 1893.

The bill to amend the charter of the city of Raleigh is now before a committee of the House of Representatives. We presume it will undergo thorough investigation.

PRESENTATION.

Tomorrow a fine oil portrait of the late Associate Justice J. J. Davis, will be presented to the Supreme Court by the family of the deceased jurist. The presentation will be made by R. H. Bittle, Esq., of this city. The portrait is the work of Mr. Randall, late of Raleigh.

TESTIMONIAL.

We take pleasure in printing the following testimonial:

Soldiers Home Raleigh, N. C., Feb. 2.—It is with feelings of peculiar sadness and deep regret that we learn that our much beloved and highly esteemed matron, Miss Mary L. Williams, will soon sever her connection with the "Home" with which she has long been connected, and over which she as matron has fitly presided. By her great kindness for us in our trouble and afflictions, she has endeared herself to us all and we can truly say that her kindness, sympathy and consideration, like that of her two sisters who have been with her all alternately as companions here, have only been exceeded by her many other good qualities, of which we poor old soldiers here have been the recipients. Our best wishes and sincerest prayers will ever follow her.

G. D. GOODWIN, JOHN M. POOLE, WM. POE, C. E. LANDIS, and others of the Soldiers' Home.

SATISFACTION is guaranteed to every consumer of HOOD'S Sarsaparilla. One hundred doses in every bottle. No other does this.

SALT WATER GARGLE.

In these days when diseases of the throat are so universally prevalent and in so many cases fatal we feel it our duty to say a word in behalf of a most effectual, if not positive, cure for sore throat. For many years past, indeed we may say for the whole of a life of more than 40 years, we have been subject to a dry, hacking cough, which is not only distressing to ourselves but to our friends and those with whom we are brought into business contact.

Last fall we were induced to try what virtue there was in common salt. We commenced using it three times a day, morning, noon and night. We dissolved a large tablespoonful of pure table salt in half a small tumbler of water. With this we gargled the throat most thoroughly just before meal time. The result was that during the entire winter we were not only free from coughs and colds, but the dry, hacking cough had entirely disappeared. We attribute these satisfactory results solely to the use of salt water gargle, and most cordially recommend a trial of it to those who are subject to diseases of the throat. Many persons who have never tried this gargle have the impression that it is unpleasant; but after a few days' use no one who loves a nice clean mouth and first rate sharpener of the appetite will abandon it.—The Household.

Remember the "Mascott" next Friday night.

THE LOVE TOKENS.

BALTIMORE, February 6.—A novel suit will shortly be taken up for trial in the Superior Court. Through the potency of the law a rejected suitor will attempt to recover the many presents he gave his sweetheart during their engagement, which did not last quite a year. The suit was entered through Martin Lehman, counsel for the plaintiff, who is Nathan Feldman, who formerly lived in Washington, North Carolina, but is now making his home in this city. The young lady is Miss Theresa Malkau, daughter of Mr. A. Malkau, who conducts a meat store at No. 822 east Baltimore street. Miss Malkau is a beautiful young woman about twenty years old, with large black eyes and rosy cheeks. Feldman is about twenty-four years old, and for some years conducted a clothing store in Washington, N. C. Business often brought him to Baltimore, and during one of these visits he met Miss Malkau. In October, 1891, it is claimed that they became engaged. Feldman states that from that time until July, 1892, when the engagement was broken, he presented Miss Malkau with a gold watch and chain and several sums of money, amounting in all to $195. He also claims $50 of this amount was sent to Miss Malkau about a month before the engagement ended. A portion of this sum was to be used to hire a hall for the wedding. Feldman values all his gifts at about $600. He alleges the engagement was broken off by the girl's father, who wrote him a letter to that effect at the time.

Miss Malkau said: "I met Mr. Feldman in October, 1891, and was engaged to him for several months. I acknowledge receiving presents and money from him, but not one cent of it was intended for the purpose he has stated. This certainly is a queer condition of affairs, for, in my opinion, if a young man makes presents to his fiancée, they are hers absolutely and I don't see under what pretext he could or would attempt to regain such property. With Mr. Feldman I made a mistake, but did not discover that fact for several months. I found out that he was not to my fancy, and accordingly broke off the engagement. At present I am receiving the attentions of another young man. Since the case has been instituted, however, I will employ counsel."

"I Can't Eat."

Is often heard. People who have taken Hood's Sarsaparilla highly recommend it for loss of appetite, indigestion, sick headache, and similar troubles. This medicine gently tones the stomach, assists digestion, and makes you "real hungry."

Constipation, and all troubles with the digestive organs and the liver are cured by Hood's Pills. Price 25c. per box.

ZANTE ISLANDERS.

A Zante cablegram says: Never in living memory has this lovely island endured so terrible a trial as that caused by the earthquake of yesterday morning. The whole island rocked and swayed. The inhabitants were shrieking. Many, half-naked, fled to open spaces. With daybreak desolation and woe were depicted on every face.

Hardly a single house escaped injury. The lower part of the town is a mass of ruins. People are camping out in olive groves.

TWO MORE VILLAGES WRECKED.

Another very violent shock occurred at 2 this morning. Two villages were levelled. Two such severe shocks in succession are without a parallel in the annals of the island. Business is entirely suspended. Seismographic readers prove that the earthquake originated five miles due east of the island.

PRAYING FOR HELP.

Tomorrow there will be a general prayer and a procession of the patron saint, Denis. The Government relief is utterly inadequate to allay the sufferings of the people.

INDIANS ON THE WAR PATH.

OMAHA, Neb., Feb. 4.—An Indian disturbance threatens the Northwest. Last night the band of old chief Two Strikes ambushed cowboys at Humphrey's ranch twenty miles northwest of Pine Ridge Agency, S. D., and fifteen miles west of the Wounded Knee battleground of two years ago, and killed five of them. Two Strike's band, numbering two hundred of the worst Indians, had committed some depredations, and when pursued by the cowboys lay in wait for them. The murderous red men are still at large, defying arrest.

Tells of His Fearful Sufferings After Gastric Fever and His Cure by

Hood's Sarsaparilla

All who know Mr. W. D. Wentz give him the best of recommendations for honesty and integrity. For many years he has worked for Mr. D. P. Wilson, the harness maker and member of the Geneva Board of Health. He says:

"I was taken sick last October with gastric fever and my chance for recovery was considered almost hopeless. After 7 weeks the fever slowly left me, but I could not eat the simplest food without terrible distress. It seemed that I had recovered from the fever to

Die of Starvation

I took pepsin compounds, bismuth, charcoal, cod liver oil and malt until my physician confessed that his skill was about exhausted and he did not know what else to try. Everything I took seemed like pouring melted lead into my stomach. I happened to think I had part of a bottle of Hood's Sarsaparilla that had been in the house for two or three years, that I found had benefited me previously for dyspepsia. I began taking it and soon began to feel better. I have not taken a little over two bottles and can truthfully say I feel well again and can eat anything without distressing me, even to which I have been unable to touch for years. The English language does not contain words enough to permit me to express the praise I would like to give to Hood's Sarsaparilla." W. D. WENTZ, 18 1/2 Castle St., Geneva, N. Y.

A Good Voucher

"I have known Mr. Warren D. Wentz for many years and can vouch for him as a man of veracity and one well known about here. I have sold him several bottles of during the past few months." M. H. PARKER, Druggist, Geneva, N. Y.
