

CITY IN BRIEF.

It certainly rained last night. And now we have "Scotland" county.

Who will be the public printer, is the question today.

The matter of railroad taxation is in a fair way of settlement.

Several members of the legislature are confined to their rooms with sickness.

Seats on sale for the "Gladiator" at MacRae's drugstore. Secure them at once.

"The Gladiator" was the foremost piece of the late Edwin Forest. It is a great play.

Several ex-Senators are in the city, looking over the scenes of their former glory.

Mr. J. C. L. Harris is now connected with the night editorial staff of the Daily Chronicle.

The spring term of Rockingham county court will be held by Judge Graves. Judge Boykin is sick.

Miss Janet Andrews continues very ill at the residence of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson.

A gentleman drew the money for a check of $500 from bank this morning and lost it on the streets shortly afterwards.

Stewart Ellison has been removed as janitor of the postoffice building and Haynes Clark appointed in his place.

There was a lengthy discussion of the Wilmington and Weldon Railroad tax matter in the capitol this morning.

Another grand skating carnival will be held at Strouach's warehouse, Wednesday February 15. Prizes will be given away.

The joints and muscle are so lubricated by Hood's Sarsaparilla that all rheumatism and stiffness soon disappear. Try it.

The legislature has received an invitation to attend the anniversary exercises of the two societies at Wake Forest on the 17th.

A caucus of the democratic members of the general assembly was held in the House of Representatives this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

The Young Men's Christian Association of Greensboro is in danger of losing their property for want of a few hundred dollars. This is not as it should be.

The sacred musical concert at the Church of the Good Shepherd last night was highly successful. The program was excellent and admirably rendered.

The committee on public printing recommend that the printing be given at the present rate, but that the party appointed printer shall turn into the state treasury 15 per cent of the amount.

Robert Downing, the favorite American tragedian, is the joint author of a romance founded on the story of Damon and Pythias, which is entitled "A True Knight." Mr. Downing became interested in this work from the fact that he is a member of the order of Knights of Pythias, whose ritual is derived from the story, as well as from the study of John Banim's play dealing with the same subject. The book follows closely the historical authorities regarding the customs, the institutions and the history of Syracuse, the coup d'etat of Dionysius the tyrant, and the part taken by Damon in the opposition to the ambitions general. In the development of the interest, however the authors took the liberty of exercising their imaginations. The result is a very interesting volume, and one that is very popular with the Knights of Pythias, the principles of whose order it enucleates. Mr. Downing will play the Gladiator at Metropolitan hall Tuesday night. Seats on sale at MacRae's drugstore.

Prompt Payment.

Yesterday, Mr. Wm. M. Russ the popular and efficient state agent of the Mutual Life Insurance Company of Kentucky paid the loss on Capt. R. J. Powell who recently died. This is quick work and speaks well for "Will" and the company he represents.

Married.

Last night at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. G. W. Bishop, in this city, Mr. James Atkins was united in marriage to Miss Ella Bishop, Rev. W. E. Hocutt, of Wake Forest performing the ceremony. After the ceremony a delightful reception was held. We wish them much happiness.

A Card of Thanks

Please permit me through the VISITOR, in behalf of myself and the other officers of the fire department, to sincerely thank those of our citizens who rendered us such valuable aid at the fire yesterday morning at Latta and Myatt's warehouse.

I fully appreciate the unselfish aid rendered us and the city, and wish to bear testimony that it was conquered only after a most persistent fight.

Respectfully,
E. B. ENGLEHARD,
Chief Fire Dept.

A Noble Cause.

They were bright and interesting little children. Four of them were from Raleigh and the other one came from Wilmington, but the King's Daughters had been instrumental in getting them all in at the Home.
