

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, FEBRUARY 13, 1893.

NO. 94

CITY IN BRIEF.

The receipts of cotton are now quite light.

F. D. Winston, Esq., of Bertie, is in the city.

Cotton was steady today at from 8 1/2 to 9 cents.

We are glad to hear that Mr. Julius Lewis is improving.

The Hickory Press has been sold to Mr. M. E. Thornton, formerly of Kentucky.

Remember there is a great rush for tickets to the "Gladiator" tomorrow night.

Yesterday was a genuine old-fashioned disagreeable Sunday—cold and rainy.

Mr. John Waters, corner of Polk and East streets is quite sick at his residence.

The Alliance store at Mocksville has failed and can only pay 75 cents on a dollar.

There are about seventy scholarships at the university endowed by liberal gentlemen.

A fast through train from New York to Atlanta, Georgia, via Raleigh, is expected soon.

The Herald is the title of a new paper published semi-weekly at Henderson. It is a neat sheet.

We are delighted to see our friend Mr. A. B. Stronach out again, after quite a protracted spell of sickness.

Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge, No. 218, tonight at 7:30 o'clock. Visiting brethren invited.

Mrs. D. M. Laws and Miss Arlena Cates, of Hillsboro, N. C., are visiting Mrs. S. T. Smith, No. 333 West Jones street.

There will be a reception by Governor and Mrs. Carr at the executive mansion tonight at from 8:30 to 10:30 o'clock.

There is need of a rock crossing at the corner of Harrington and Jones streets. It is almost impassable at that point.

Dyspepsia victims find prompt and permanent relief in Hood's Sarsaparilla, which tones the stomach and creates an appetite.

Let us have a reputation of the "Masco" There is a general demand for it. It was too fine a production for only one rendition.

The committee on public printing are hard at work, and a definite report may soon be expected. It is time the matter was being settled.

The Eastern Carolina fish, oyster game, and Industrial fair will be one of unusual interest this year. All the railroads will give round trip rates.

The Wilmington and Weldon railroad has declined to accept the proposition made by the legislative committee for a settlement of their taxes.

The gospel service at the rooms of the Y. M. C. A. yesterday afternoon was very interesting. Mr. J. W. McLaury, of Georgia gave a blackboard talk.

In 1892 the 12 leading locomotive works in this country built 1703 locomotives. In 1891, 1963 locomotives were turned out by the same works.

Rev. Dr. J. F. Crowell preached two very fine sermons yesterday morning and night at the Ednton Street M. E. church. There was a large attendance in the morning.

The Rosenthal Clothing Company, which is always alive to the interest of the public, advertises, that for two weeks more, unusual inducements will be offered in the way of suits, shirts &c., together with all other articles in their line. The genial and energetic manager "Dave" Rosenthal, is determined not to be outdone in the matter of bargains, and citizens, strangers, and members of the legislature cannot do better than to call and make selections. Remember this grand clothing emporium is on Fayetteville street, No. 305, opposite the postoffice.

Meeting.

There will be a meeting of the joint committee on education in the hall of the House of Representatives tonight at 8 o'clock to consider the University bill. Several addresses may be expected.

Death of Dr. P. T. Henry.

It is with deep regret that we announce the death of this well known gentleman which took place at his residence at Kirtrell this morning at 8 o'clock. Dr. Henry was widely known throughout the State and was a gentleman of the highest character. He married a daughter of the late R. F. Moore, Esq., of this city. The remains will arrive here tomorrow morning at 9:45 on the Raleigh and Gaston train and the funeral will take place from Christ church at 11:15 o'clock. Dr. Henry was 74 years of age.

Died.

Bessie Lee, the infant daughter of Mr. F. and Hattie Ruth, died at the residence of her parents in Lincoln-ton, N. C., February 11th, aged about 18 months.

State Chronicle copy. Near Chapel Hill, Feb. 4, 1893, after a lingering illness, Mr. Richard Hogan aged 23 years. He was the brother of Captain Joseph and Robert Hogan of this city. He leaves a father and mother, two brothers and two sisters to mourn his sad demise. He was highly esteemed by all who knew him.

The Great Attraction.

Tomorrow night will prove one of unusual interest to the lovers of the legitimate drama. The celebrated tragedian, Robt. Downing, will appear at Metropolitan Hall in the grand character of the "Gladiator." In this role Mr. Downing stands unrivalled, and those who have witnessed the performance say that he fully equals the late Edwin Forest, who made the "Gladiator" one of his specialties. The press throughout the country teem with praise of Mr. Downing and it can be well expected that there will be a crowded house. Let all desiring to attend secure seats at once. They are now on sale at MacRae's drug store and the rush for them is great.

A Suggestion

Correspondence of the Visitor. Now, that the scheme to extend the corporate limits of the city of Raleigh seems to have been consigned to the "tomb of the capulets" so far as the action of the committee on counties, cities, and towns of the House of Representatives can bury it, would it not be well for our City Fathers, to pursue the better part of wisdom by ceasing to expand, and address themselves to the task of bestowing proper care upon the territory now embraced in the city. A good commencement would be to appoint a special committee to visit the locality on East Hargett street, between Wilmington and Blount streets, on the south side. If there is a city town or even country village in the state that contains a more dangerous sidewalk than this, it would be interesting to locate it. It is simply a disgrace, but all the appeals for a remedy seem to go unheeded. What say the voters of the eastern section of the city to making this a test question at the coming election? The present spell of wet weather would be a good time for the committee to visit the locality and "go into a committee of the whole" and report progress. If nothing more can be done in the premises, surely the huge protruding rocks on the sidewalk might be removed, unless the city is seeking a suit for damages for a broken leg.

TRAVELER.

You Won't Be Urged.

Come in our store and see what we are doing. You will not be urged to buy. We are selling all goods at cost and you can see the values at D. T. Swindell's.

Just, a Word.

The enterprising furniture establishment of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell come to the front today in an announcement of an extraordinary character. They are undoubtedly offering to the public some of the greatest bargains that has ever been presented to our people in the furniture line. Their stock is most complete and new arrivals are continually being received. It would be hard indeed to enumerate the thousands of articles on their list. Their line of desks, office furniture &c., cannot be surpassed, while their arrival of spring styles of baby carriages attracts universal attention. They are indeed beauties in all respects, and loving parents would do well to call and make selections. There never has been a better chance for house-keepers than is now presented. Don't forget the place. Read the advertisement.
