VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 14, 1893.

NO. 95

CITY IN BRIEF.

Valentine day.
The Gladiator tonight.
Lent commences tomorrow.
Neuse river is on a heavy rise.
North Carolina six per cent bonds are now quoted at 133
Mr. C. L. Hopkins, traveling agent on the R. & D Railroad Co., is in the city.
Cases will be called from the third district in the Supreme Court next Tuesday.
The pressure from all over the state in favor of the Confederate monument, continues.
A large crowd attended the reception of Governor and Mrs. Carr at the executive mansion last night.
The Salisbury Watchman has been sold. The new owners are Mr. J. W. McKenzie and C. H. B. Bruner.
The great event of the season will take place at Metropolitan hall tonight. Don't fail to witness it.
The senate keeps well up with its calendar. If the house does as well, only a few night sessions will be needed.
The entertainment at the institution for the deaf and dumb will take place tomorrow night. The public are invited.
The Confederate veteran's association of Cabarrus county will soon meet to make arrangements for a Confederate reunion
The joint committee on appropriation for Confederate monument, will meet in Secretary of State's office, Thursday afternoon at 4 o'clock.
We learn that very few valentines comparatively passed through the postoffice today. The custom seems to be losing popularity.
There will be "spirits in the air" at Metropolitan hall next Friday night. Dr. Joseph Eddy the celebrated medium will produce wonders from the spirit world.
The bill which passed the Senate today allowing the governor to appoint a judge to hold court in cases of sickness, is a good one, and will remove frequent perplexing difficulties.
It is to be hoped that the members of the Chamber of Commerce, at their meeting tonight will make a determined move for a house of correction for young criminals. There is great need for such an institution.
There will be a meeting of the literary society of the Young Men's Christian Association tonight for the purpose of selecting some material for a "mock trial" to be given at the rooms soon. It will be an amusing occasion.
Now that the city will no doubt, be placed in full municipal control of Pullen Park, let us hope that an available route may be fixed up to reach it. Perhaps a little conference with Supt. McMackin may be of value in the premises.
The regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock at the mayor's office. It is expected that the matter of a reformatory for young criminals will be discussed. A full attendance is earnestly desired.
Goods roads will increase the value of a farm, shorten the distance to market, save time, wagons, harness, horses, enlarge the territory which contributes to the home market, quicken social communication, and add to the wealth of the individual and state. Who will deny this.
The toilet of Miss Eugene Blair the leading lady in the play of the "Gladiator" is splendid. Her costumes cause a perfect furore among the ladies wherever she appears. In the splendid role of "Neodamia" in the grand performance tonight the effect will be immense. It is an attraction all our ladies will most highly appreciate.

Died.

On Sunday last at the residence of Mr. John T. Ross, on East Hargett street, Mrs Elizabeth Johnson in the 70th year of her age. The funeral took place this morning at 11 o'clock.

Death of Col. John M. Robinson.

News has been received that Col. John M. Robinson, president of the Seaboard Air Line, died at his residence in Baltimore this morning at 6 o'clock.

Mr. Robinson was one of the most widely known railroad men in the country and his loss will be deeply felt.

Is It So?

The Greensboro Record says: They tell a good one in Raleigh on a representative from a county not a thousand miles from Greensboro He attended a reception at the governor's mansion. At supper he was seen to be "stuck on" chicken salad. A gentleman at his elbow remarked that he seemed to be fond of the dish. He said yes, it was fine kraut, but he never saw any with meat in it before.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair until Wednesday, light showers Wednesday. Colder fair Thursday.

Local forecast made at station for this vicinity:

On Wednesday: Increasing cloudiness tonight, with rain, warmer, southerly winds.

Local data for 24 hours ending a 8 m. today:

Maximum temperature, 44; minimum temperature 30; rainfall, 0.04.

Downing Last Night in Wilmington.

The following telegram was received from Wilmington last night: WILMINGTON, N. C., Feb. 13.

GREEK O. ANDREWS—Robert Downing played here tonight to a house packed to the doors. The audience was delighted and enthusiastic in the praise of both the star and the company. Your theatre goers have a rare treat in store. J. M. CRONLY, Manager Opera House.

The Inner Man.

Say what you please about the comforts of life, it is conceded on all sides that 'the inner man' requires the first attention Other matters may be postponed, but hunger must be attended to It is one of nature's first requirements. And then, too, comes the all important matter where the best can be obtained for the most reasonable price. In these days, when the great struggle is for bread and meat, it becomes all to look around and see where it can be had in all its perfection

A call at the grocery establishment of Mr. W. R. Newsom, No. 214 South Wilmington street, will cause the mouths of the epicures to run with water. In all this land there is no house of the kind that can present a more tempting array in everything pertaining to the grocery line than can be here found. Our friend "Walter" is never behind in the matter of making selections, and he knows just what to please all classes. We most cordially invite our people, and especially our housekeepers to call and make selections They will be cordially received and promptly waited on.
