

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, FEBRUARY 21, 1893.

NO. 101

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. J. D. Bellamy, Jr., of Wilmington, is in the city.

The weather fiends are now predicting a late spring.

Mr. J. A. Freeman has been stricken with paralysis and is very ill.

After the legislature, the next entertainment will be the municipal election.

Evangelist Fife has gone to Texas for the purpose of commencing a series of meetings in that state.

The Elkin county bill will be the special order in the senate tonight. The discussion will probably be exciting.

The plain truth is good enough for Hood's Sarsaparilla. No need of embellishment or sensationalism. Hood's Cures.

There will be a regular convocation of Raleigh Chapter, No. 10, Royal Arch Masons, this evening at 7:30 o'clock. A full attendance desired.

The funeral of Mrs. J. H. Southgate, in Durham last Sunday afternoon, is said to have been one of the largest that has ever taken place in that town.

The Good Shepherd Choir and Roman Hustlers teams will play a game of base ball on Thursday evening at 4 o'clock on the grounds of the R. M. A. Public invited.

It is stated that there are some Mormon preachers in Durham county, near the Wake line. They should be looked after. The present marriage system of North Carolina suits our people well enough.

It is the intention of the owners of the Pilot cotton mills here, Messrs. Williamson and Foster, to have everything in complete operation by July 1st, although the extremely bad weather delayed work nearly two months.

All Sunday school teachers, male and female should hear Prof. McLaury's talk at Young Men's Christian Association tonight on "Method and Bible Study" and "How to interest the children." 8 o'clock is the hour.

Tomorrow February 29d being a national holiday Sunday hours will be observed at the postoffice. The general delivery and carriers window will be open from 8 to 3:30 p. m. There will be no money order or registered letter business transacted during the day.

Don't fail to attend the meeting of the Chamber of Commerce to night. A full discussion will take place concerning the establishment and location of the Reformatory school in Raleigh. It is a matter in which all our people are interested and the attendance should be large.

Now that the streets have dried considerably, it would be a good time to fix up that sidewalk on East Hargett street between Wilmington and Blount streets, about which people have been talking for the past twelve months or more. It should no longer remain a disgrace to our city.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair except possible local showers tonight in extreme portion, warmer.

Local forecast made at station for this vicinity:

On Wednesday: Light showers tonight and Wednesday morning, slightly warmer.

Local data for 24 hours ending 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 89; minimum temperature 21; rainfall, 0.0.

Meeting.

The second annual meeting of the College Association of North Carolina will take place in Masonic Hall in this city, on Friday and Saturday next, 24th, and 25th insts.

The meeting will be called to order at 3 o'clock Friday afternoon by the president Dr. Charles E. Taylor, who will deliver the annual address. The following subjects will be for discussion:

"Who should make text books?" paper by Prof. Dred Peacock; discussion by president Chas. D. Meiver, Prof. D. H. Hill and others.

"How to use text books," papers by Dr. W. S. Currell and Prof. J. M. Steadman; discussion by Prof. E. A. Aldermen and others.

"University extension," paper by president John F. Crowell.

EVENING SESSION, 8 P. M.

Banquet at the Yarbors by the citizens of Raleigh, complimentary to the association; addresses of welcome come by His Honor, Thos. Badger, mayor, and President Alexander Q. Holladay. Response by President W. S. Laug. Toasts.

SESSION 9:30 A. M. SATURDAY.

College County Papers by President J. B. Shearer and Dr. Alexander; Discussion by President Winston, Holladay, Crowell, Taylor, Hobbs and others.

The effect on the college curriculum of the natural sciences paper by Prof. W. L. Poteat, discussion by W. A. Withers, Prof. N. C. English and others.

W. A. WITHERS, Secretary.

To the Legislature.

War times, yet sweet memories. We revert to the days of '63. How many of us still remember when that last sweet old word "good bye" was spoken, the engine whistled, the train moved off amid smiles and tears, hopes and fears, with banners waving, handkerchiefs flying, music playing, leaving thousands of sad and weeping hearts. We bade them "God speed," many of them never to return. We cannot obliterate these memories. For thirty years now the ladies of North Carolina have made it a labor of love. By our own efforts we have raised thousands and thousands of dollars, much of it having been sent to other states to perpetuate the deeds of North Carolinians, while the state has never appropriated $1 to erect a monument on her own soil. Knowing this and feeling as alas, so many of us do, that with the fall of the Confederacy our hearts were crushed and all of our hopes blighted, we have organized this association. We do not ask the state to do the work, but only lend the ladies a helping hand. Let us erect a monument that will ever serve as a reminder to our children. "That these men died leaving their death as an example of noble courage, and a memorial of endurance, not only to the young men but to all nations."

LADIES OF NORTH CAROLINA.

Our University.

A most interesting discussion of what is known as the "Apex bill" took place yesterday afternoon in the office of the Superintendent of Public Schools. The matter of an appropriation for repairs at the university was thoroughly discussed. President Winston was present and set forth at length the work of the university, its needs, &c. The meeting was harmonious and will result in much good for the object in view.

Good News.

No other medicine in the world has ever given such a test of its curative qualities, as Otto's cure. Thousands of bottles of this great German remedy are being distributed FREE OF CHARGE, by druggists in this country to those afflicted with Consumption, Asthma, Lung diseases, giving the people proof that Otto's cure will cure them, and that it is the grandest triumph of medical science. Samples free. Large bottles 50c.

The Lucky Man.

There is a great many people who are called lucky. They have the best of everything, they seem to know when and where to buy their dry goods, carpets and shoes. They seem to save money on everything they buy and have the best. This is not luck, it is brains and judgment, you who call yourself unlucky can have the same luck if you use brains and judgment. Do as your lucky neighbor buy your goods now while the closing out sale is going on at Swindell's.

We can show you one of the most complete stocks of dress goods, wash fabrics, laces, embroideries and edgings and ribbons to be found in Raleigh. It will pay you to examine them before you purchase elsewhere. Woolcott & Sons.

An Awful Wail.

When the great closing out sale is over what an awful wail will go up from those who did not take advantage of it. Those who do not buy now will then see what they have missed. Now, why will you be one of these mourners? Why not come now and take advantage of this great sale and save yourself money. Swindell.

White Goods.

If you buy white goods and check muslin now you will save about one third the price. If you paid full price asked last year. All kind of cotton goods will be much higher this spring as cotton is up. Now we have here several cases white goods and gingham left over from last season and we are selling these goods at cost price, at D. T. SWINDELL'S.
