ALL HONOR

To Our Glorious Representatives—The Confederate Monument Bill Passed the House With Great Unanimity.

This has been a grand day in the history of the "Old North State." The House of Representatives today passed a bill appropriating $10,000 for the erection of a monument to the memory of our illustrious dead, in this city. The enthusiasm was intense, and the hall was literally packed with people a large majority of whom were our noble ladies. There is no doubt that the senate will pass the bill and that it will become a law.

CITY IN BRIEF.

No shows in sight just now. Considerable ice this morning. B S Royster, of Granville, is in the city. Dr. J. F. Mills, of Goldsboro, is in the city. R P Gray, Esq., of Greensboro, is in the city. The Supreme Court are now on the third district. And still the matter of public printing seems to hang fire. Patriotism ran high in the House of Representatives today. Mr. Julius Lewis is expected home tomorrow. His health is much improved. Snow at Buffalo N Y. and St Paul Minn., this morning. We are glad we are not in it. The shrubbery in many of the yards of the city is being trimmed up for spring. The galleries of the House of Representatives were crowded with school girls today. The ladies have nobly worked for the Confederate monument. They desire the highest success. The bill for the support of the institution for the Deaf and Dumb Asylum is the special order in the Senate tonight. Col. F. A. Olds, who has been quite sick, is much improved, and will no doubt be on his accustomed rounds again soon. There will be serious trouble if you don't overcome those dyspeptic symptoms. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine you need. The Governor's Guard will leave for Washington City on Monday night March 2d about 9 o'clock. They expect to reach their destination in nine hours. The rush of bills through the house and senate last night was tremendous. In the senate Mr King of Guilford occupied the chair. In the house Speaker Overman rushed matters for all they were worth up to the hour of the special order. The pupils of the Deaf and Dumb Institution had holiday yesterday on account of Washington's birthday. They enjoyed themselves nicely and the occasion was greatly cheered by the receipt of many delicacies sent them by members of the General Assembly. Typewriter supplies. Raleigh Stationery Co. Commercial note paper, 15c per lb. Raleigh Stationery Co. Sanford library paste. Raleigh Stationery Co. ## Died.

Carey Dixon Hackney, the infant son of Mr. J. N. and Martha Hellon Hackney, of Chatham county, was born on the 9th of January, 1892, and died on the 4th of February, 1893.

Dear little Carey, you have just died. To live your life on earth was short and painful, but now you have a life of bliss eternally in the Heavens of immortal glory, where there is no pain or sorrow, but everlasting happiness forever, world without end. Then parents weep not for little Carey. The cares of life with him are done. Yea, give him up and meekly pray To meet him in eternal day.

"The Lord giveth and the Lord taketh away, blessed be the name of the Lord." R. M. B.

An Exciting Event.

The most intense interest was manifested in the proceedings of the legislature last night. Both the Senate and House galleries were crowded to their utmost capacity, a very large number of ladies being present. In the House, so great was the crowd that they made inroads upon the aisles, and it was with the utmost difficulty the doorkeepers could keep them back. Amid all the excitement Speaker Overman preserved his equanimity and presided with the utmost dignity.

In the Senate two most important bills passed their third reading—a bill to extend the charter of the Petersburg Railroad Company for sixty years and to provide for its proper taxation, and the bill for the creation of the county of Elkin.

In the House the bill for the formation of the county of Scotland came up on its second reading, and no such stubborn fight has been witnessed in the legislative halls of this state for many years. Its progress was watched with the most intense interest by the packed galleries and lobbies. Every inch of ground was hotly contested by contending parties. At last a motion to indefinitely postpone caused tremendous excitement. The vote was taken and came within one of a tie. When the result was announced the vast crowd on the floor and in the galleries gave vent to their feelings in vociferous cheers, clapping of hands and stamping of feet. Even the ladies in the galleries could not restrain their manifestations and joined heartily in the general upheaval of demonstration and applause.

An amendment submitting to the people of Richmond the right of voting upon the question, was adopted by a vote of 58 to 43. At last a vote on the passage of the bill on its 2d reading was reached. A subdued silence prevailed as the roll call proceeded. The result was announced—ayes 51, nays 46. The bill had passed its 2d reading and was placed upon the calendar. Again manifestations of applause rent the building. What the fate of the measure will be on the 3d reading is hard to tell. Both sides are sanguine. It was indeed an exciting legislative event.
