

CITY IN BRIEF.

Capt. E. J. Parish, of Durham, is here.

Ex Judge Womack, of Pittsboro, is in the city.

Col. Thomas B. Keogh, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Mr. S. L. Adams, of the Durham Tobacco Plant, is in the city.

Let us hope that the weather will soon be propitious for farming purposes.

Miss Nellie Heartt, who has been visiting friends in Durham has returned home.

Another large crowd occupied the galleries and lobbies of the two houses of the general assembly last night.

When you feel all tired out and broken up generally, you need a tonic. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best. Try it.

A meeting of Raleigh Chapter of Kappa Alpha Fraternity will be held at the residence of Mr. E. C. Smith, tomorrow night at 8:30 o'clock sharp.

A new and first class furnace has just been placed in Central M. E. church so that the congregation will worship in this beautiful auditorium next Sunday.

The cotton belonging to Messrs. Latta & Myatt which was damaged by the recent fire was sold yesterday by the Insurance Companies to C. A. Johnson for $3,100.

The College Association of North Carolina met at Masonic Hall, in this city, this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The meetings will be open to the public, and the ladies especially, will be welcomed.

The first number of the "Tar Heel," the new Magazine published at the University appeared yesterday. It is conducted under the auspices of the University Athletic Club and is a well gotten up and interesting journal.

A correspondent of the New York Times writes from a Connecticut town under date of the 16th instant: "I found a buttercup in the meadow today; it had budded and blossomed under the snow—the 'spring is coming up this way'."

After a discussion on the bill for the support of the State Guard in the senate last night, the bill was withdrawn at the request of its friends. This was considered best as it appeared that the bill was only a codification of the various laws now on the statute books, and they would probably be soon fixed up in a new code.

Notice.

FRANK STRONACH

Lost.

A spotted cane with buckhorn handle; not very valuable to the finder, "but to the owner." It being a present from a friend. The finder will kindly leave it at Bobbitt's drugstore.

A Good Resolution.

Among the resolutions that have passed the House of Representatives, is one in reference to printing from Foote's Roster of North Carolina state troops sketches of the late war. This is a noble step in the right direction.

Wake Forest College.

All the friends of this time honored institution will be pleased to note its gradual advance. It is now on the high grade to success, and we hope it may, at no distant day, rank high among the most favored institutions of the land. The course of studies is in full keeping with the educational progress of the times, and its excellent corps of professors cannot be surpassed in the south.

Examinations.

On the 7th of March examinations will be held at the free delivery post offices in North Carolina. These are located at Raleigh, Wilmington, Winston, Asheville, Charlotte, Durham and Greensboro. These examinations are conducted by persons sent out by the civil service commission.

The Norfolk Virginian says:

The total number of postal employees affected by the executive order of January 5th, in North Carolina, are 96 and are distributed as follows: Asheville, 13; Charlotte, 14; Durham, 7; Greensboro, 10; Raleigh, 18; Wilmington, 17; Winston, 17.

Married.

CAUDLE-STELL.—In this city, last night at 9:15 o'clock, at the residence of Mr. S. P. Pennington, on West Davie street, by Rev. J. L. Foster, Mr. E. H. Caudle to Miss Alice C. Stell. The attendants were Mr. P. N. Pennington with Miss Ella Denny, Mr. J. G. Upchurch with Miss Bettie Johnson, Mr. Willie Yearby with Miss Mollie Neal, Mr. J. P. Duffey with Miss Emma Jordan.

It was a very enjoyable marriage and every one present seemed to be highly pleased, everything passing off so agreeable. Very many nice and highly prized presents were received from their numerous friends. THE VISITOR wishes the happy pair much pleasure and happiness in their marriage vows.
