

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 8, 1893.

NO. 114

CITY IN BRIEF.

Eggs getting down to a living level. The postoffice fight will soon be on. Secretaries Pettigrew and Battle left for their homes yesterday.

Mr. John A. Barringer, of Greensboro, is in the city.

Lots of pork in market, and, yet the price is too high.

Another cotton mill for Raleigh is in sight—So we hear.

Miss Dixie Stein, on New Berne Avenue, is very sick.

Messrs Moody and Sankey are holding religious meetings in Charlotte.

The mad dog scare is getting wide spread.

At last reports North Carolina banks had $3,123,500 capital.

Maj. J. D. Broadfoot, of Fayetteville, is here.

There was no session of the Superior Court today.

Richmond Pearson Esq., of Asheville, is in the city.

The slating of the new park hotel is nearly completed.

Possum farms are getting common in some of the states in the south.

People that trust in luck, generally have bad luck.

A few more such days as this and, the farmers can go to work in earnest.

There were nineteen persons who stood the civil service examination yesterday.

Large numbers of new building and loan associations are springing up throughout the state.

Mr. Chas. Hinton has charge of the direct tax fund. He says there are very few applications coming in now.

Mr. John H. Winder, Superintendent of the Georgia, Carolina and Northern Railroad, is in the city.

The work of indexing the colonial records will be heavy and will require great care.

C. W. Lambeth Esq., City Clerk, has been called to Washington City by the illness of his youngest son.

The salary of the commissioner of labor statistics is $1,500, and the clerk $1,000.

President Cleveland, Vice President Stephenson, Secretary Gresham, Secretary Lamont are all Presbyterians.

A letter was mailed through the post office this morning addressed to Hon. "Hoax" Smith, Washington, D. C.

The sidewalk on the south side of East Hargett street between Wilmington and Blount is being repaired and widened.

The Grand Master of Masons has granted dispensations to two new lodges—Henrietta of Rutherford county and St. Pauls Robeson county.

The new Opera House will seat 1,200 persons and will have 1,200 opera chairs. The stage is 50x36 feet with an opening of 30 feet.

The work on the 130 foot extension of the train shed at the Union depot has been commenced and will be finished by April 1st.

The medical society of North Carolina will hold its 40th annual meeting in this city, on Thursday May 9th.

The Swedish Quartet will again visit our city on the 6th of April. It is a splendid attraction and will no doubt be largely attended.

The State Normal and Industrial School commencement will take place on May 23d and 24th, and that of the Greensboro Female College on the 25th and 26th.

One of the chief wants of the South is advertising. Where one of its advantages is advertised a hundred are not. It is impossible for people to appreciate that of which they are in ignorance, and this is the position in which our section is frequently placed.

The trustees of the state library have under consideration the appointment of a librarian. The trustees are composed of the Governor, Secretary of State, and the Superintendent of Public Instruction.

Every time a wife scolds her husband she adds a wrinkle to her face. It is thought that the announcement will have a salutary effect, especially as it is understood that every time a wife smiles on her husband it will remove one of the old wrinkles.

Reading Clerk H. A. Latham, of the House of Representatives, left for his home yesterday. He is very justly proud of the handsome gold watch charm presented him by the members on which is the new state motto "esse quam videri."

Opinions.

Among the opinions rendered by the Supreme Court yesterday afternoon the following were from Wake: Mayo vs Telegraph Company, affirmed; Broadway vs Ray, dismissed.

I. O. O. F.

Regular meeting of Seaton Gales Lodge No. 61, tonight 7 1/2 o'clock. Work in the 2d degree. Degree staff and organist especially requested to be on hand. A full attendance earnestly requested. Visiting brethren cordially invited.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Local rains, followed by clearing. Warmer in north portion Thursday a. m.

Lecture.

On Friday night next, at 8 o'clock, Prof. Wallace Riddick will deliver a lecture on electricity, at the Agricultural and Mechanical College, of which institution he is the head of the department of mechanics. Prof. Riddick is a native of Wake county, and a graduate of Wake Forest College, University of North Carolina, and Lehigh University, Pennsylvania. The lecture will no doubt be of the most interesting character.

Reporter.

An act of the recent Legislature relieves the Attorney General of the duties of Supreme Court reporter and confers upon the Judges the power of appointing such an officer. The Court yesterday conferred the office upon our well known fellow citizen, Mr. R. T. Gray. It goes without saying, that the duties will be rendered in a faithful and competent manner. No better selection, in all respects, could have been made.

Jurors.

The following is a list of jurors drawn to serve at the April term of the Superior Court for the trial of civil causes:

Chicago, Ill.

Notwithstanding the bad weather, truck farming is progressing favorably in the eastern section of the state.

The result of the civil service examinations is not made public, because the answers of each applicant are sent to Washington, and, the information as to standing is determined in that city.

Copies of the new Hand book of the State are being distributed. They are handsomely and beautifully illustrated. The printing was done here and the printing of the cover at Chicago.

A beautiful picture representing Mr. Cleveland surrounded by his cabinet can be seen in the show window of Messrs. C. A. Sherwood & Co. Stop and take a look at it, and then go inside the store and see the elegant stock of goods. It will repay you.
