TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Mrs. Cleveland had yesterday as busy a day as the President.
 The Gibbons Daley prize fight last night was won by Gibbons in the thirteenth round.
 A serious conflict has occurred between the troops and the peasantry at Gonashitza, Servia.
 Charley Mitchell is still in danger of arrest for his share in the Sullivan Kilrain fight at Richburg, Miss.
 The heavy storms and severe cold which prevailed in Stockton, Pa., this winter have made it hard on the wild game.
 The House last night in the Kansas legislature, passed a bill making all contracts and notes payable in legal tender, gold, silver or paper.
 James Casey, the town clerk of T. ales, shot and fatally wounded the rate collector, Whelan, in the board room.
 The Kansas legislature will adjourn sine die Thursday night Gov. Lewelling will call a special session about the 30th of April.
 The car of the Georgia Hussars, returning from Washington to Savannah was wrecked two miles from Winstboro, S. C., yesterday. Not much damage done.
 The Supreme Court yesterday granted a request made by counsel for the three sheriffs in South Carolina for leave to file petitions for writ of habeas corpus on their behalf, and issued a rule returnable on the 27th inst.

Yesterday, near Clarksville, Tenn. several men working in a field near Mt. Juliet, were attracted by screams from two women working in an adjoining field. They found Mrs. John C. Jones and her nine year old daughter burning to death. Their clothing was set fire from a burning brush heap. Despite all the efforts of the men the women received such injuries they died within a few minutes.

The story of a Mississippi tornado that carried a boy a hundred yards and landed him in the branches of a tree, will do for a starter. Fish stories will come later, and about the 1st of August the sea-serpent will again put in an appearance.—Richmond State.

The pins which the Salem witches were said to have stuck into their victims, says the New York Sun, and the seal with which their death warrants were stamped, are preserved in one of the public offices of the old city.

Life is Misery
 To thousands of people who have the taint of scrofula in their blood. There is no remedy equal to Hood's Sarsaparilla for scrofula, salt rheum, and every form of blood disease. It is reasonably sure to benefit all who give it a fair trial.
 Hood's Pills cure Constipation by restoring the peristaltic action of the alimentary canal. They are the best family cathartic.

The other day the wife of a fine old county farmer presented him with a pair of bouncing babies. At the same time and place two goats gave birth to two kids each and a brood sow produced a litter of seven pigs. This record has not been beat since the days when the patriarch Jacob was domiciled on the plantation of Laban, the Syrian.—Richmond State.

THE OPERATOR.
 Richmond State.
 It stepped upon the platform at Baisemoyen-Cert station where my friend L'ndileur awaited me with his carriage.
 While on the train I suddenly recollected something that required immediate attention at Paris Upon my arrival at Baisemoyen Cert I went to the telegraph office, to send back a message.
 This station differed from others of its class because of the total lack of writing materials.
 After a prolonged exploration I finally succeeded in capturing a rusty pen, dipping it in some colorless, slimy fluid. With heroic effort I succeeded in daubing down the few words of my telegram. A decidedly unprepossessing woman grudgingly took the dispatch, counted it and named the rate, which immediately paid.
 With the relieved conscience of having fulfilled a duty I was about to walk out when my attention was attracted by a young lady at one of the tables manipulating a Morse key. With a slight hauteur she turned her back toward me.
 Was she young? Probably. She certainly was red haired. Was she pretty? Why not? Her simple black dress advantageously displayed a round, agreeable form; her luxuriant hair was arranged so as to reveal a few ringlets and a splendid white neck. And suddenly a mad inexplicable desire to plant a kiss upon those golden ringlets seized me. In the expectation that the young lady would turn round, I stopped and asked the elderly woman a few questions about telegraph affairs. Her answers were not at all friendly.
 The other woman, however, did not stir.
 Whoever supposes that I did not go to the telegraph office the next morning does not know me.
 The pretty, red haired one was alone this time.
 Now she was compelled to show her face, and, sapristi! I could not complain.
 I purchased some telegraph stamps, wrote several messages, asked a number of nonsensical questions and played the part of a chump with amazing fidelity.
 She responded calmly, prudently, in the manner of a clever, self possessed and polite little woman.
 And I came daily, sometimes twice a day, for I knew when she would be alone.

To give my cails a reasonable appearance I wrote innumerable letters to my friends and telegraphed to an army of bare acquaintances a lot of impossible stuff. So it was rumored in Paris that I had suddenly become engaged.
 Every day I said to myself, "Today, my boy, you must make a declaration." But her cold manner suppressed upon my lips the words, "Mademoiselle, I love you."
 I invariably confined myself to stammering:
 "Be kind enough to give a 3 son stamp."
 The situation gradually became unbearable.
 As the day for my return approached I resolved to burn my ships behind me and to venture all to win everything.
 I walked into the office and wrote the following message:
 "Coquelin, 17 Boulevard Haussman, Paris:
 "I am madly in love with the little red haired telegraph operator at Baisemoyen-Cert."
 I tremblingly handed her the telegram.
 I expected at least that her beautiful white complexion would effulge. But no!
 Not a muscle relaxed. In the calmest manner in the world she said:
 "Fifty-nine centimes please."
 Thoroughly nonplussed by this queenly serenity, I fumbled about in my pockets for the coin.
 But I could not find a sou. From my pocketbook I took a thousand franc note and gave it to her.
 She took the bank note and scrutinized it carefully.
 The examination terminated favorably, for her face was suddenly wreathed in smiles and the burst into a charming ripple of infectious laughter, displaying her marvelously handsome teeth.

 And then the pretty young mademoiselle asked in Parisian cadence, "Do you want the change?"

Worth $1,000
 The Good Derived from
HOOD'S
 Sarsaparilla
 All Run Down With Dyspepsia

The peculiar combination of stomach tonics and alterative remedies in Hood's Sarsaparilla cannot be equalled, and this superiority explains the wonderful success of This Great Medicine
 in cases of Dyspepsia, Indigestion and similar troubles. Mr. T. A. Wheelock, a well known citizen of Burlington, Vt., writes:
 "Six months ago I was badly run down and unable to attend to business. The principal trouble seemed to be due to indigestion and aggravated dyspepsia. I had no appetite, and what I did eat distressed me. Added to this was a nervous disturbance. Physicians that I employed failed to reach my case. I grew worse, lost flesh and almost hope. One day I ran across a testimonial for Hood's Sarsaparilla stating what it had done in what seemed to be a case similar to mine. I got a bottle and in three or four days saw that I felt better. Before I had finished the first bottle, was greatly improved. Rested better, felt better, and knew I was Better All Over
 I continued with the medicine, and have taken two bottles and now feel better than at any time for the past five years. Feel as hearty as when a boy. Have regained my flesh, have good appetite, can sleep well, and my nerves are in excellent condition. I would not value a thousand dollars for what it did for me."
 T. A. WHEELLOCK, Burlington, Vt.

Fully Indorsed
 "We have sold Mr. T. A. Wheelock several bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla and have heard him tell in high terms of commendation what it has done for him. I know that he has recommended to many others here. Our customers generally speak well of it." F. L. TAFT & Co., Pharmacists, Burlington, Vt.
Hood's Sarsaparilla

WOODWORTH CITY lies about 30 miles north of Chattanooga, within a few miles of Atlanta, the county seat of Grundy county, and between Tracy City and the celebrated Beersheba Springs, the Saratoga of the South. It is the centre of the rapidly developing coal and iron district of Tennessee, and within its borders are found coal, iron, zinc, marble and asbestos, with various hard woods, such as oak, chestnut, maple, peach, locust, hickory, ash, pine, cherry and black walnut in abundance. The village of Gruettli, with several hundred inhabitants, contains Churches, Schools, Stores, Post-office and telegraph station, and a number of manufacturing industries, all of which are located on the property and form part of Woodworth City.
 The proceeds of the sale of these lots will be used to develop the mineral resources of the property and build up a large and thriving city. Quick application for these lots should be made, as the right is reserved to advance the price without notice.
