CITY IN BRIEF.

Elizabethtown, Bladen county, is to have a new court house.

See legal notices of John W. Thompson clerk of the Superior Court.

Mr. Emmet Levy, of Baltimore, is in the city.

The days of bird hunting will soon be over.

A few more days like yesterday and today and the trees will start out.

The depot of the Richmond & Danville Railroad at Durham is being much improved.

There was no news of importance in the different departments of the capitol today.

Old state bonds are occasionally being sent in for exchange. The sum of $24,000 were sent in for exchange last Saturday.

How long will it take to have it generally disseminated that the Governor of North Carolina does not possess the veto power?

The fight for the position of postmaster at Raleigh will soon commence in earnest. We suppose the appointment will be made in June or July.

When you feel all tired out and broken up generally, you need a tonic. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best. Try it.

There will be a meeting of Raleigh Council Royal Arcanum 551 at 7:30 o'clock this evening. 13th. Work in the degree. All members requested to be present at its hall over the Citizens National Bank.

We are glad to hear that the condition of Mr. James H. Quarles, who was recently injured at Waco, Texas, is not so bad as first reported. His recovery is now hoped for.

Yesterday was a lovely day and our people took advantage of it to ride on the street railway and visit the parks. The churches all had good congregations.

The meetings at the Young Men's Christian Association rooms yesterday were, as usual, highly interesting. The services in the morning were conducted by Mr. W. S. Primrose.

Brushing up for the spring trade is now in order, and the outlook is said to be unusually fine. Several of our merchants expect to go north this week.

Mr. J. N. Hubbard has returned from a visit to his daughter Mrs. H. Harvard who resides in Baltimore. He is delighted with his trip and reports his friends as getting on well.

The proposition to erect another graded school building in this city is meeting with much favor. It will, of course, be placed in the western part of the city, if the scheme is carried out.

The grocery establishment of Mr. Walter R. Newsum on Wilmington street is the attraction in that line in this city; there is no place in Raleigh where house keepers and others can be supplied on better terms with all the good things of life and, this too, at the most accommodating rates. Walter knows just what is necessary to please our people, and he takes good care to have it on hand. Call and see him. You may rest assured he will treat you all right.

We most respectfully call the attention of the public to the advertisement of Messrs. Thomas & Maxwell, in this issue. These gentlemen are undoubtedly carrying one of the finest stocks of everything in the furniture line ever seen in this city, and they are offering it on as good terms as can be secured in the State. We specially invite the attention of parents to the line of baby carriages of which they have a stock of every variety. Their new home sewing machine needles and oil are attracting attention, and they can be furnished in great variety. Call and see them.

Wild geese are going north. This is a good sign of good spring weather.

Jesus said, "Suffer little children to come unto me, and forbid them not."

A Splendid Water.
The Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water now before the public is the best and most efficient ever introduced in Raleigh. The merits of this water is well known and so thoroughly recommended that it has become notorious in the entire land. It is claimed to be especially efficient in the cure of dyspepsia and all cases of disease of the kidneys and liver. As a sure cure for gravel it is unsurpassed. Thousands of references can be produced that show its marvelous effects. In brief, it is the purest mineral water now on the market, as its analysis abundantly proves. The agent for this wonderful water is Mr. J. Hal Bobbitt, where it can be obtained at 40 cents a gallon, or 20 cents a bottle by the dozen. Five cents a glass. Be sure to try it. Its benefits cannot be surpassed.

Suicide.
What a feeling of sorrow spreads out over the community when we hear of a young lady committing suicide; and again how sad we feel when we hear of a young man going the same way, in fact it puts a feeling of awe over all to hear of any one committing so rash an act of self-destruction. Now there are a great many people, old and young, who are liable to commit suicide (financially.) To these we have a word of warning. We will have the prettiest line of goods and the best line of goods to be found at any place.
