VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, MARCH 14, 1893.

NO. 119.

CITY IN BRIEF.

Easter comes on Sunday this year. Rev. Dr. Durham of this city was in Charlotte Sunday last. Mrs. T. G. Lee is quite sick at her home, 422 South Wilmington street. The West End Baptist Mission is gradually increasing.

Broad Street Baptist Church, at Winston, is having a revival.

Strawberries are being shipped from the south to New York.

An apricot tree in front of Evangelist Fife's residence in Charlotte is in full bloom.

Bishop Lyman has postponed his visit to Greensboro to sometime in early May.

There were new potatoes at Mr. Rosenthal's store yesterday. Pretty early for new potatoes in this section.

Col. Thomas W. Strange, of Wilmington, wants to be U. S. District Attorney of Utah.

Morehead City will vote on ten thousand dollar bonds to be spent in town improvements.

Dr. E. H. McCullers and Miss Nellie Lee Horn of Olayton will be married on the evening of March 23.

The new board of managers of the penitentiary take charge of the affairs entrusted to them tomorrow.

Mr. B. F. Park who has been confined to his room for some time with sickness was out yesterday and walked to his place of business.

Col. A. M. Waddell, of Wilmington, has accepted an invitation to address the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly.

There will be a regular monthly meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, this evening at 8 o'clock. Full attendance is desired.

Died very suddenly, in Greensboro on Saturday last, Mrs. Mendenhall, mother of Messrs. J. R. and W. D. Mendenhall.

If you are tired and never hungry, Hood's Sarsaparilla will make you feel strong and well, and give you a hearty appetite.

Miss Besson left yesterday for New York and other Northern cities where she will purchase a new and stylish line of spring and summer millinery, fancy goods, etc.

The city mission is opening up work near the two cotton factories, in this vicinity. There are services on Thursday nights of each week, and the Sunday school is well attended.

Messrs. Moody and Saiky commence their meeting in Wilmington next Sunday, and the people of that city are making arrangements to receive them. They will have a big reception.

There is plenty of evidence that the more cotton craze has struck North Carolina with great force. This is lamentable. Plant more cotton and eat the bread of sorrow, bought of Western wheat with cotton at five cents a pound.

A local Board of the Commercial Building Trust has been organized by the election of the following officers: Dr. J. J. Hall, president; J. N. Hubbard, vice-president; L. O. Lougee, Secretary and Treasurer; W. J. Peele, attorney; Dr. J. J. Hall, J. N. Hubbard, W. H. Holloway, F. W. Hunnicutt and C. G. Stone, directors. About 200 shares have been taken.

Why Ladies Talk.

Do you know bargains when you see them? If you do, come to our store any day and you will see—why they talk. The best goods always please people and when they get the best at the lowest figure they are bound to feel good about it and that is why they talk. We have made our spring stock the most comprehensive and varied that is open to the public, and we guarantee our prices to strike the very bottom notch of lowness consistent with high values, and that is why the ladies talk about SWINDELL.

A Splendid Water.

The Otterburn Lithia and Magnesia Water now before the public is the best and most efficient ever introduced in Raleigh. The merits of this water is well known and so thoroughly recommended that it has become notorious in the entire land. It is claimed to be specially efficient in the cure of dyspepsia and all cases of disease of the kidneys and liver. As a sure cure for gravel it is unsurpassed. Thousands of references can be produced that show its marvelous effects. In brief, it is the purest mineral water now on the market, as its analysis abundantly proves. The agent for this wonderful water is Mr. J. Hal Bobbitt, where it can be obtained at 40 cents a gallon, or 20 cents a bottle by the dozen. Five cents a glass. Be sure to try it. Its benefits cannot be surpassed.

Suicide.

What a feeling of sorrow spreads out over the community when we hear of a young lady committing suicide; and again how sad we feel when we hear of a young man going the same way; in fact it puts a feeling of awe over all to hear of any one committing so rash an act as self-destruction. Now there are a great many people, old and young, who are liable to commit suicide (financially.) To these we have a word of warning. We will have the prettiest line of goods and the best line of goods to be found at any place.
