CITY IN BRIEF.

To day ends the shooting of the birds.

Attention is called to the advertisement sale of the Rex Hospital lots to be found in this issue.

The regular March winds put in an appearance yesterday.

The new board of directors of the penitentiary met today.

Now for the kite, this is the weather to fly it. Try it boys.

Nash Park will soon be a beauty. Shade trees are being planted, the walks graveled and grass sown.

The Reidsville cotton mills have made an assignment, and the property is in the hands of the trustees.

The Chick Comedy Company has made an engagement for a week's nightly performance at Metropolitan Hall.

The Board of Aldermen decides to act upon Mr. Pullen's proposition to build the street railway line to Pullen Park.

The Governor has commuted the death sentence of William and Thos. Whitson to thirty years in the penitentiary.

It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. Hood's Sarsaparilla res.

Mrs. Mary Adams has returned home from a three weeks' visit to relatives in Sampson county, much improved in health, and is ready for business.

The bell telephone patent expired last Wednesday, and now you can put up a hello machine of your own if you want to.

The people of Montgomery county are very much excited over the discovery of a rich gold mine, the property of Jones Cotton.

Paper flower making is all the rage with the Raleigh young ladies. They look so natural that a good many people are fooled by them.

The new cotton factory stock is all raised and the location is the next thing to be determined on and then work will be commenced.

Mr. C. W. Lambeth has returned from Washington City with his son Ernest, who was sick there and is much improved. He is out of danger.

Mr. A. Dughl asks us to state that he has several ice cream freezers out and he would be much obliged to those having them to let him know so he can send and get them.

A portrait of the late Chief Justice Pearson, presented by his son was presented to the Supreme Court Library this morning by Mr. Frank I. Osborn, Attorney General.

It is in order now for the festive and truthful fisherman to hie himself away to the mill ponds to back and report that 'the biggest fish he ever hung in his life got away. He was a whopper!' and then show up half a dozen gourd seed perch for his day's fun.

It is to be hoped that the ministers of the different denominations of this city will try and make some arrangement to have Messrs. Moody and Sankey with us for several days as our people will be anxious to hear and see those evangelists in the city among us.

Mr. S. P. Waldo, of Cary, N. C., formerly with Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker & Co., favorably known to the dry goods trade of this vicinity, has taken a position with the enterprising firm of C. A. Sherwood & Co., and will be glad to meet his friends in his new quarters.

The Otterburn Lithia Water as a Beautifier.

LET THE LADIES TRY IT AND BE CONVINCED - HOW DOES IT DO THIS?

Arsenic is taken in small quantities for the complexion, and this water has arsenic enough to be beneficial, but not enough to be hurtful. Fowler's Solution must be stopped very soon, or the face and body will become swollen. Not so with this; you can drink it all your life and not be hurt. Again, the soda and potash expel the unwholesome gas from the swollen and painfully distended stomach of the dyspeptic; the lithia, arsenic, iron and iodine start the torpid liver, expel the bile which has overflowed the system and lent its saffron hue to the skin; the ugly pimples disappear, healthy blood tinges the complexion with roses, and the bromine brings sweet sleep to the tired eyelids. Thus it brings a double blessing - it heals and it beautifies. If you think this is an exaggeration, ask those who have tried it, and above all, look at them and see the change in their complexion. Delivered to any part of the city at 20c a bottle, by J. Hal Bobbitt.

Signs of Spring

When the blossoms all have blow'd.
When the tramp is on the road,
When the spring chick thinks he's old enough to crow;
Then the trade begins to hum,
Then the business it will come
To the firm that has the goods and
and sells them out so low.

Second Spasm.

When you see our little sign,
You can bet we are in line,
To give the buyer figures that are right;
When you read this little ad,
You will know you are wanted bad
To come and get our bargains, out of sight.

The Last.

Our dress goods department is complete;
Our carpets and matting can't be beat;
Our millinery the finest on this street;
In our shoe department you get there with both feet. Swindell.

Note paper ten cents per pound.
