L. N. CITY CIRCULATION

RALEIGH, MARCH 16, 1893

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

The Republican members of the Senate went into caucus yesterday morning at 10 o'clock for the purpose of receiving the report of its committee making assignment of the minority chairmanships and membership of the various committees.

Comptroller Hepburn said this morning his advice were to the effect that the Gate City National Bank, of Atlanta, Ga., would soon reopen. The bank, since its close, had realized $128,000 from its assets, and he saw no reason why it should not be reopened.

Mr. Cleveland yesterday sent to the Senate his first batch of Presidential Postmasters, and the first was that of Robert B. Brown to be Postmaster at Meadville, Pennsylvania. Mr. Brown in addition to being the first appointed to a Postoffice has at the rules said to have been laid down by the Postoffice Department that newspaper men should not be appointed to office. Mr. Brown is owner and editor of the Messenger, a democratic weekly published at Meadville.

A large delegation of the Washington Committee, which had in charge the arrangements for the late encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic at that point, came down to Richmond yesterday for the purpose of presenting their acknowledgments to the Lee Camp of Confederate Veterans, of Richmond for the hospitality and courtesy extended by the members of that Camp to the veterans of the Grand Army, who visited the battlefields about Richmond.

The Egyptian cotton seed purchased by Secretary Rusk through the United States Consul General at Cairo, Egypt, has been received at the Department of Agriculture. The purpose of this importation of seed is, as set forth in Mr. Rusk's last report as Secretary of Agriculture, to undertake, with the co-operation of experiment stations in the cotton states, experiments with the view to produce cotton of home growth which may serve as an efficient substitute for the Egyptian, of which, during the last fiscal year more than three million dollars' worth was imported into this country.

Ajax defying the lightning cuts a small figure when compared with Grover defying the editors.

The spring floods have damaged a good many things in various places, but no spring flood has yet drowned an office seeker.

Electricity must be one of the stock "properties" of those theatrical companies which are continually shocking their audiences.

Secretary Lamont has hired a professional athlete as a "bouncer." Dan, we thought you had more nerve.

Gov. Gray's opponent may have had the most fun, but he has the mission to Mexico.

According to State Senator McCarron, of New York, Roswell P. is not "in it," when it comes to the selection of a national flower.

At this distance mugwumpery appears to be several laps ahead of Jacksonianism, at Washington.

By what authority did the house committee appointed to investigate the American end of the Panama Canal scandal use its report to boom the Nicaragua Canal scheme.

Uncle Sam has no idea of getting left in the rapid transit race; hence his experiments in the manufacture of flying machines, at Washington.

Write, brothers, write with care, Right straight up into the air. Though of offices the tripod's bare, We can dead head to the World's Fair.

The California legislature has doubts about the wisdom of allowing so much freedom to the press. Probably it thinks, like some others, that the press should be free to praise but not to blame.

Theoretically there can be no doubt about the correctness of President Cleveland's position against the appointment of editors to office, but practically it is almighty hard on those who need the postmaster's salary to meet the bills incurred in maintaining a party organ. But perhaps after all, the country would be the gainer if there were no party organs.

If Your House is on Fire
You put water on the burning timbers, not on the smoke. And if you have catarrh you should attack the disease in the blood, not in your nose. Remove the impure cause, and the local effect subsides. To do this, take Hood's Sarsaparilla, the great blood purifier, which permanently cures catarrh.

Two New York policemen had emptied the contents of their revolvers at an alleged crazy cat without effect, other than to drill numerous holes in the walls of a house; they deliberated what to do next. A private citizen who happened along solved the problem by seizing the animal by the nape of the neck and drowning it in a convenient barrel of water.

"Look here, madam," said the tramp, "yer say yer ain't got no pi?" "None." "Nor no meat, nor no cake, nor no pertatoes?" "That's what I said." "Well, I am goin' ter tackle de house nex' door, an' if I gits anythin' I'll bring yer back somethin' ter eat. See?"

A girl bet a kiss against $1 with the editor of the Wasco, Ore., News that Harrison would be elected. The stakeholder of the dollar was a homely old maid, and when he claimed the kiss from the girl he was coolly informed that the stakeholder held both bets and would cheerfully deliver them on demand.

TOTTEN SAYS THE TRUMPET WILL BLOW SHORTLY, AND THE MILLENNIUM WILL START.

NEW YORK, March 15.—In speaking of his work, Professor Totten stated today in an interview that he had not a shadow of a doubt as to the accuracy of his chronological work, nor as to its particular accuracy within the necessary personal qualifications of all humane efforts. The report maintains that we are actually in the midnight hour specified in the parable of the professor, it is still striking. The tenth stroke will end its sounding at the coming March equinox of the current year.

"After that none of the 'Virgins' need be further doubt as to the 'time,' or as to what or who is at hand." "Many facts," he continued, "assure me that we are at the midnight hour of the Christian dispensation, and I am sure that the seventh angel of the Savior's revelation to St. John is soon to sound the seventh and final trumpet, which lifts the veil from the mystery of God, but which is not to be confused with the 'final trump,' as commonly understood. In spite of misrepresentations to the country, I do not anticipate the end of the world, but the beginning of a new and better dispensation. I anticipate a crisis 'tomorrow,' and the millenium 'the day after.' I expect the first resurrection very soon, but not the second until a thousand years of golden ages have sped away." The professor set forth with great detail his reason for the belief.

FOUND HIS LEVEL.

W. H. Tyrell, the ex-Methodist minister, who was compelled to resign his parsonate in Clarion, Iowa, because he acted as judge in a horse race, denies the report sent out in a dispatch from Denver that he had eloped with his wife's sister. He says he will devote himself to racing horses.

William A. Lehr of Kendallville, Ind., says Hood's Hood's Sarsaparilla is King of Medicines And His Cure Was Almost a Miracle

"C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.
"Gentlemen: When I was 14 years of age I was confined to my bed for several months by an attack of rheumatism, and when I had partially recovered I did not have the use of my legs, so that I had to go on crutches. About a year later, Serofalu, in the form of

White Swellings, appeared on various parts of my body, and for eleven years I was an invalid, being confined to my bed six years. In that time ten or eleven of these sores appeared and broke, causing me great pain and suffering. Several times pieces of bone worked out of the sores. Physicians did not help me and

I Became Discouraged
"I went to Chicago to visit a sister, as it was thought a change of air and scene might do me good. But I was confined to my bed most of the time. I was so impressed with the success of Hood's Sarsaparilla in cases similar to mine that I decided to try it. So a bottle was bought, and to my great gratification the sores soon decreased, and I began to feel better. This strengthened my faith in the medicine, and in a short time I was

Up and Out of Doors
To make a long story short, I continued to take Hood's Sarsaparilla for a year, when I had become so fully released from the chains of disease that I took a position with the Flint & Walling Mfg. Co., and since that time have not lost a single day on account of sickness. I always feel well, am in good spirits and have a good appetite. I endorse

Hood's Sarsaparilla
for it has been a great blessing to me, and to my friends my recovery seems almost miraculous. I think Hood's Sarsaparilla is the King of all Medicines." WILLIAM A. LEHR,
