

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, MARCH 20, 1893.

NO. 124

CITY IN BRIEF.

Heavy frost this morning.

Mayor Badger is still confined at home with sickness.

It will soon be time to inaugurate another State fair.

The cotton receipts continue light and prices rule from 8¢ to 8½¢.

Candidates for aldermen will soon be thinned. We hear of several on the way.

Meetings at the West End Baptist Mission still continue with much interest.

Col E G. Harrell will soon be as busy as a man can be making ready for the visit of Teachers to the World's Fair.

One rich man who puts forth his arm to erect factories and establish plants in a town, is worth a hundred who lives only for himself.

Applicants for places at the penitentiary will have to bear their delays with patience. It will be some time yet before a deal can be had.

Before long you can leave Raleigh in the morning, spend a short time in Richmond, Va., and return the same evening. "The world do move."

Wake Superior Court for the trial of criminal causes commences next Monday. The docket is not very large and there are no cases involving capital punishment.

Another new cotton factory and another wagon factory, and no end to the smaller schemes in sight; and yet provincial towns put on airs and say that Raleigh is not on a boom.

A country friend whose experience is such as to warrant the belief that he knows, says that the fruit was in no way injured by the frost this morning, it not being far enough advanced.

There will be a called meeting of Raleigh Council 551 R. A. at 8 o'clock to night, March 20th for conferring degrees. Officers are expected to be present. Members earnestly requested to attend.

Mr W B Newsom, the Wilmington street grocer, has always on hand one of the most select stocks of groceries in the city. Let all in want of any thing in his line give him a call. He will be sure to please them.

Superintendent Roberts of the capitol and grounds is on the look out for his dominions and will have the square in its usual pretty condition this spring and summer. Capt. Roberts takes particular pride in keeping everything around him in perfect order.

What a nice arrangement it would be, when the connection to Pullen Park is made by the Electric railway, if a branch line was run around through Brooklyn connecting with the main line on Blount street. If the road is patronized as it should be, probably in the near future such a belt may be run.

If you want to realize the growth of Raleigh just undertake to cross the street at the corner of Martin and Wilmington streets some day when the cotton receipts are heavy. You can well imagine yourself in the lower part of New York city, especially when you see a big policeman ready to pilot you across.

The spring time is coming on and the busy housewife is cleaning up. There are many new articles needed. New suits of furniture, new mattresses, infant's carriages, new looking glasses and, in fact, new outfits in all the lines for furniture. Now the question comes up, where can these be had to the best advantage. We believe that Messrs Thomas & Maxwell can fill the bill to as good, and perhaps better advantage than any other house in the city. We advise all who are in want of anything in their line to give them a call.

After the grip, when you are weak and "played out," Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your health and strength.

Masonic Notice.

Hiram Lodge No 40 will meet in regular communication Monday evening March 20th, 7½ o'clock. Important business. Brethren of other lodges cordially invited.

E. B. THOMAS,
Secretary.

St. John's Guild.

A meeting of St. John's Guild will be held in the choir room of the Church of the Good Shepherd this evening to consider important matters pertaining to the hospital. A full meeting is earnestly desired.

Revival Meeting.

Rev Mr Cole, of Edenton Street Methodist church, announced to his congregation yesterday that he would begin a ten day's meeting at his church next Sunday. He is to be assisted by Mr J E Schoolfield, of Danville, Va. Mr Schoolfield is a wealthy layman who is giving himself to evangelistic work after the manner of Mr Moody. He does not receive a cent from any of the churches where he holds meetings but gives his services to the cause of Christ out of the love he has for Jesus and for the souls of men. The people of Raleigh will welcome this devoted man to their city. We hope the meeting will be a great blessing to our city.

Many an anxious office holder is now in the agonies of expectation.

A weather wise friend assures us now that the outlook for spring is good. We hope so.

ON MONDAY, March 27th, Messrs. Woolcott & Sons will sell towels at 10 per cent discount.

WE ARE GOING to start our spring trade by having a GREAT TOWEL SALE on Monday, March 27. Any towel will be sold on that day at 10 per cent less than marked price.

To the Ladies.

Did you know you could have any thing in the way of cloaks, shawls, and dresses cleaned and dyed at Harris' Steam Dye Works without the slightest injury to the goods? We make a specialty of cleaning ladies' fine light colored cloaks and walking jackets. We guarantee to make them look perfectly new, no matter how much they may be soiled. We can furnish references that will convince you of this fact.

On account of fire our office is at 124 East Park Avenue, next to J. A. Spence & Bro., until further notice.

To the Public.

Mrs Elizabeth McGowan back of the jail, is prepared to do anything in the line of dyeing and pressing ladies' bonnets in the latest styles of the season. Send in your work.

Our Custom Tailoring Department.

We now have in our custom tailoring department one of the handsomest lines of suitings and trouserings that has ever been shown in Raleigh.

The worsted are as good as money will buy, the findings the best to be had and no city in this country can furnish better workmanship.

We offer this class of custom tailoring work at less than city prices. The materials are cheerfully shown upon request.

Our endorsement goes with both lines. There is no form we cannot fit perfectly—long or short waist either slim neck or stout. Some deary these "MAYBLES" because the profits are too small. We like them for their quick selling and satisfactory giving qualities. We delight in small profits and quick sales. Fresh, clean goods and a new look all the time. Not too many of them but some of all.
