THE FRUIT OF SORROW.

BY FLAVEL SCOTT MINES.

Like the gray twilight sorrow steals Into our lives, and night comes on,
The last ray of the sun reveals
The heights beyond—unwon.

The gates which open as the day
Goes forth, admit the dark robed night,
So enters sorrow by the way
That joy hath taken flight.

But joy is first—as day must reign Before the twilight brings the gloom—
We know not sorrow and its pain
Till joy lies in the tomb

The night is peace—so sorrow bears
The cup of strength, and drinking deep
Our hearts respond unto the prayers
"Amen"—and then we sleep.

To wake refreshed and greet new dreams,
And hold them true until the sun
Fades in the west and purple beams Tell that the day is done.

And though dark sorrow comes at last,
Like twilight in its veil of gray,
Remember, when some night is past
Will come eternal day!

So, sometime, when made strong again
With sorrow's draught of pain and ruth,
The hope that lightens hill and plain
Will be the dawn of truth.

NO OTHER Sarsaparilla has effected such remarkable cures as HOOD'S Sarsaparilla, of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, and other blood diseases.

sidered a very desirable person to invite to dinner.

That Tired Feeling

Is a dangerous condition due directly to depleted or impure blood. It should not be allowed to continue, as in its debility the system is especially liable to serious attacks of illness. It is remarkable how beneficial Hood's Sarsaparilla is in this enervating state. Possessing just those elements which the system needs and readily seizes, this medicine purifies the blood, and imparts a feeling of serene strength which is comforting and satisfying. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the best remedy for that weakness which prevails at change of season, climate or life.

"I have been convinced that Hood's Sarsaparilla is one of the greatest medicines in the world. I say this for the benefit of all other tired out, run down, hard-working women. Hood's Sarsaparilla is not only excellent as a blood purifier, but for all other female complaints, even if of long standing." Mrs. M. A. SCARLETT, Northville P. O., Mich.
