

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, MARCH 22, 1893.

NO. 126

CITY IN BRIEF.

Farmers are now getting on a busy hump.

Mr. Sam Kramer, of Durham is in the city.

The receipts of cotton today were very light.

The base ball fever is spreading far and wide.

First the city election—then the World's fair.

A regular London fog prevailed this morning.

We are glad to learn that Mr. B. F. Smith is improving.

The city election takes place in Wilmington tomorrow.

Evangelist Moody is attracting immense crowds in Wilmington.

The protracted meetings still continue at the West End chapel.

A few more such days and the "green grass will be growing all around."

We regret to learn that Mrs. A. M. McPheeters was very ill last night.

Miss Carrie Smith is visiting relatives in the western part of the State.

Athletic park in this city seems to be in somewhat a dilapidated condition.

The average school boy is arranging his fishing tackle for Easter Monday.

The North Carolina board of managers of the World's Fair is in session in this city.

Rumors of hotel changes, but, when, or in what direction we cannot yet definitely find out.

Gen. Wade Hampton is over 73 years old, and very poor. The war swept off his vast estate.

See notice of Mayor Badger ordering a city election under the act of the late general assembly.

The case of Burwell Perry, who is charged with bigamy, will come up at the Superior Court next week.

It seems to be the understanding that Sheriff Allison, of Iredell, is in the lead for the marshalship of the western district.

A Topeka paper boasts that very few of the tombstones in the cemetery east of that city are decorated with laudatory epitaphs.

The bird that won't sing and must be made to, is a matter of small consequence compared to the bird that can't sing but is willing to try.

A section master on the Mocksville road, near Winston, swallowed a silver dollar a few days since. He says he feels no discomfort from it so far.

At the Sunday school Institute to be held at Durham commencing next Friday afternoon Messrs. J. M. Broughton and W. S. Primrose of this city will be the speakers.

As Greensboro is to have Vice President Stevenson at the battle ground celebration 4th July, can't we manage to get the president for State Fair? What says Secretary Ayer.

The case of the state vs Otho Wilson will be the chief attraction in the Superior Court next week, if it should be tried. It is rather a novel case in North Carolina.

The Richmond State announces that ample arrangements are on foot to properly entertain all the Governors and other officials who visit that city on the 12th, of April. Among other arrangements will be a trip to Old Point.

The case of W. H. Yopp vs the Western Union Telegraph Co for failure to deliver a telegram in reasonable time, has been dismissed by the Railroad Commission on the ground of want of jurisdiction. This ruling was the result of a decision of the State Supreme Court, that the commission has no power to enforce penalties for such failures.

Hood's Sarsaparilla positively cures even when all others fail. He has a record of success unequalled by any other medicine.

Deserved Compliment.

Our friend, Colonel E. G. Harrell has been tendered by the Bureau of Education of the United States, the honorable position as Vice President of the World's fair congress, which will meet in Chicago July 25-29th next.

Sad News.

We deeply regret to learn that Rev. George Dempsey, of Canada, who so acceptably filled the pulpit of the First Presbyterian church, after Rev. Dr. Watkins left last year, died last night at Clinton, N. C., after an illness of several weeks. Mr Dempsey had received a call to the Presbyterian church at that place. He died of pulmonary disease.

Mr. Dempsey had many friends who will deeply regret his decease.

Important.

The North Carolina committee on colonial exhibits for the world's fair wishes the names and address of any persons in the State who own and are willing to lend portraits, miniatures, fans, china, glass, silver, historic documents or any other relic belonging to the colonial or revolutionary period of the State. All persons having such relics should address Mrs. Geo. W. Kidder, chairman of the colonial committee of the thirteen States, Wilmington, N. C.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Rain, followed by clearing. Colder in east portion Thursday a. m.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity

On Thursday: Slightly warmer. Occasional showers.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 m today:

Maximum temperature, 66; minimum temperature 51 rainfall 0.02.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Messrs. Jones & Powell. These gentlemen in addition to supplying the wants of the public in the matter of all kinds of fuel, also furnish feed &c., on the best terms. Those having empty barrels will find it to their advantage to confer with them.

There is an unusual dullness pervading all departments of the State Government. With the exception of a minor appointment of notary public &c, there is nothing other than mere routine duty at the executive office.

The cackle of the brood hen is heard in the land.

NO BARGAIN HOUSE.—An exclusive bargain house does not come up to the demand of the average lady of this age. While we have thousands of dollars worth of goods which we bought way under the value and sell same for less money than any one else in the trade can sell, yet we are not an exclusive bargain house. We have all the new things out for this season in dress goods and trimmings. All the new silks in Bengaline lustrés printed and plain, China and Japanese silk the new combination of silk and cotton and silk and wool. In fact, we will come as near suiting as any one can. We have style and quality.

D. T. Swindell.

TO MERCHANT.—We have a job lot of good cigars that we will close out at $1.50 per 100. There is bargains in cigars at J. A. Spence & Bro.

AH! FINE SHOES HERE.—Burt & Packard's "Korreet Shape" to gentlemen gives finest service; 20 kinds and styles to select from.

C. A. Sherwood & Co.

ON MONDAY, March 27th, Messrs. Woolcott & Sons will sell towels at 10 per cent discount.

WE ARE GOING to start our spring trade by having a GREAT TOWEL SALE on Monday, March 27. Any towel will be sold on that day at 10 per cent less than marked price.

Woolcott & Sons.

Still They Come.

Our spring stock continues to arrive. Nothing like it in the way of bargains ever before placed on this market. In a few days we will give you some money saving information. Watch for our ad.

To the Ladies.

Did you know you could have any thing in the way of cloaks, shawls, and dresses cleaned and dyed at Harris' Steam Dye Works without the slightest injury to the goods? We make a specialty of cleaning ladies' fine light colored cloaks and walking jackets. We guarantee to make them look perfectly new, no matter how much they may be soiled. We can furnish references that will convince you of this fact.

On account of fire our office is at 124 East Park Avenue, next to J. A. Spence & Bro., until further notice.

To the Public.

Mrs. Elizabeth McGowan back of the jail, is prepared to do anything in the line of dyeing and pressing ladies' bonnets in the latest styles of the season. Send in your work.

Millinery.

Our buyer has taken special pains in selecting a millinery stock. Beauty, style and bargains is what he went for and that is what he got. We can suit all. Anything from a 13c sailor to the finest Paris styles, at Swindell's.

Sam, you have struck it now. That is the best fit I have ever seen you have. Where did you get it from?

That Girl With a Smile On.

Those ladies who know who always have a pleasant and fascinating smile on their face, are not wearing ill fitting corsets. They probably have on a C. B. Corset like this cut—long waisted—and are to be had at Swindell's mammoth store.

And this stout lady, who is shaking with mirth and looks so pleasing has on a Watch Spring Corset like this out.

These two corsets are kept at D. T. Swindell's at New York prices.

Wanted.

Gentleman or lady to travel; no preference where qualifications are equal; salary, $750 and travelling expenses. Position permanent. Railway fare paid here if engaged. Enclose reference and send address with stamped envelope.

CORSETS.

The advertising signs and cards read:

"R. & G. Corsets are the Best."

"Try H & S. Corsets. They are the BEST."

Our endorsement goes with both lines. There is no form we cannot fit perfectly—long or short waist either slim, medium or stout. Some deary these "MARK 23" because the profits are too small. We like them for their quick selling and satisfactory giving qualities. We delight in small profits and quick sales. Fresh, clean goods and a new stock all the time. Not too many of a kind but some of all.
