

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, MARCH 31, 1893.

NO. 134

CITY IN BRIEF.

Good Friday.
No frost this morning.
The sale of fertilizer tags are much larger than at this time last year.
It is likely that the docket of the Superior Court will be cleared this week.
The ^{cost} of placing electric lights in the ^{new} asylum is being rapidly pushed.
Maj. R. S. Tucker returned to the city yesterday. His son W. E. Tucker also returned.
Mr. J. O. Lumsden has been appointed state standard keeper of weights and measures.
It is said that the contributions for the monument fund is gradually increasing. This is good news.
The citizens of New Berne are making much preparation for the reception of the press association on the 30th, of April.
The decorations of our new opera house are progressing finely. It will be most handsomely done. A Baltimore firm has the work in charge.
One of the main features of North Carolina at the world's fair will be the tobacco exhibit, which promises to surpass that of any other state.
The last legislature appropriated $8,000 a year for the support of eight normal schools for the colored race, to be located at such points as the state board of education may select.
Judge Brown has undoubtedly won the highest esteem from the bar and people generally during the session of this term of the court. All speak of him as a model judge in all respects.
There will be a regular meeting of the Walter R. Womble Hook and Ladder Truck company tonight at 8 o'clock. There is much important business and a full attendance is desired.
Mr. A. Dughi will, next week have ice cream of a new kind, now all the go in Paris. Due announcement will be made in the VISITOR. Look out for it. It is something new, novel, and delicious.
If the request of Gov. Carr to Mayor Ellison is complied with, and the remains of Hon. Jefferson Davis is placed in state in our capitol, we can expect one of the largest crowds ever seen in Raleigh.
We are requested by Mr. A. L. Ferrell to say that it would much facilitate the business of making out the health report for March, if physicians will promptly send in their reports this afternoon or tomorrow.
Early yesterday morning the long bridge of the R. & A. A. L. Railroad over Haw River was burned. The loss will be quite heavy approximating $95,000. Travel was delayed, but a trestle will soon be put up.
Our State Senators seem to be in luck. Senator Olive, of Wake is to be postmaster at Apex. Senator McDowell, of Mecklenburg expects to be Consul to Dresden, and Senator Morton, of New Hanover is prominent in the race for the postmastership of Wilmington.
A facetious disappointed office seeker says President Cleveland's rules as to eligibility stand towards the offices precisely as the interstate commerce law does towards railroad passes. "pull" is strong enough you get the passes; if not the law is quoted in order to let you down easy.
Prof. W. L. Poteat, of Wake Forest College, will deliver an address at the Agricultural and Mechanical College this evening at 8:30 o'clock. The subject is "Influence on the College Curriculum of the Introduction of Natural Sciences." Street cars run to the grounds. Public cordially invited.
When you speak or even think of spring medicine, how quickly Hood's Sarsaparilla comes into your mind. Take it now.

A. & M. College.
There are now twenty students in the senior class who will apply for degrees next June. This is making good progress when it is considered that the institution is only in the fourth year of its existence.
New Opening.
Attention is directed to the advertisement of the New York Millinery and Dry Goods Bazaar No. 211, Fayetteville street. The stock is most complete in all its different varieties, and the prices are such as will meet the wants of the public. Call and make selections.
The Weather.
For North Carolina: Fair, warmer. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity
On Saturday and Sunday; fair weather, warmer.
Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 m. today:
Maximum temperature, 64; minimum, temperature 48 rainfall 0.0.
The Swedish Quartette.
Our amusement loving people are delighted to know that this splendid musical combination will appear in Raleigh on April 6th.
The Washington (D C) Evening Star says:
Was "Home, Sweet Home" ever sung without affecting some of the audience to tears? and as the last notes died away in a silvery whisper, the silence in the grand tabernacle was almost oppressive. From the first until the final number the Swedish Quartette and their audience were thoroughly en rapport, pleasure and good feeling being manifested throughout.
The docket of the Superior Court will no doubt, be cleared tomorrow although, a session of perhaps one day will be held next week for special purposes.

CORSETS.
The advertising signs and cards read:
"R. & G. Corsets are the Best."
"Try H & S Corsets. They are the BEST."
Our endorsement goes with both lines. There is no form we cannot fit perfectly. Long or short waist either slim, medium or stout. Some deery these "WAKES" because the profits are too small. We like them for their quick and satisfactory giving quality. The delight in small profits and quick sale. Fresh, clean goods and a new stock all the time. Not too many of a kind but some of all.
