

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, APRIL 3, 1893.

NO. 134

CITY IN BRIEF.

Fine time for gardening.
Mr. W. H. Pace has returned to the city.
The Mayor had a very quiet time today considering it is Monday.
The County Commissioners are in regular monthly session today.
B. H. Woodell Esq., left today for Richmond.
Reserved seats for the Swedish Quartet now on sale at J. Y. McRae's drugstore.
A few more days like this and the garb of green will fully begin to appear.
The Missouri Legislature has a bill before it for reducing the passenger traffic to two cents a mile.

A substantial iron bridge is to replace the one over Haw River on the Seaboard Air Line, recently burned.

Mrs. W. H. Lyon, of the Lyon Racket Store has returned from the north accompanied by her milliner from Baltimore.

Miss Alma Williams, of Wilmington, N. C., is in the city spending a few days with her cousins Misses Lula and Evie Ellis on East Morgan street.

Found—the reason for the great popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla—simply this: Hood's CURE. Be sure to get HOOD'S.

The attention of the people of Raleigh and vicinity is called to the advertisement of Mr. J. W. Evans, who is prepared to pay special attention to repairing carriages, buggies, delivery wagons, &c., on the most accommodating terms. There is no place in Raleigh where better work of the kind is done. All business entrusted to Mr. Evans receives the promptest attention. Be sure to call when you want repairs done. Frazer cart shafts in stock. Remember the place, northwest corner of Morgan and Blount streets.

Now as Easter has passed it is well enough for our people to be on the lookout for a proper arrangement of their households for spring and summer. It is time for getting ready to shake out carpets and to fix for new additions to the furniture. There are hundreds of articles in this line needed, and there is no better place to procure them than at the well known establishment of Messrs Thomas & Maxwell, whose emporium is on Exchange Place, south side of Market Square. Don't forget to call, and be sure to think about the little ones, as these gentlemen carry one of the finest lines of baby carriages to be found in North Carolina. Their stock is complete in all particulars and you will be sure to find something you need.

A Joint Arrangement.

Our friend Mr. Chas. Bretsch is kept so busy attending to his bakery that he has made a mutual arrangement with Mr. A. Dughi relative to the ice cream business. All orders left with Mr. Bretsch for ice cream will be punctually filled by Mr. Dughi with his most delicious cream. On the other hand persons desiring cakes or other articles in the bakery line, by ordering the same of Mr. Dughi will have them promptly supplied fresh and fine from Mr. Bretsch's bakery. It must be understood however that Mr. Bretsch will keep constantly on hand at his saloon a splendid supply of the best ice cream, where he can at all times accommodate the public. The ladies are specially invited to visit his saloon.

Monthly.

The regular monthly meeting of the united order of King's Daughters, will be held tomorrow (Tuesday) evening 4th inst, at the mission rooms at 4:30 p. m. A full attendance is most earnestly requested as business of much importance will be discussed.

SPECIAL—Alexanders kid gloves only 50 cents, worth double and treble.

Married.

In this city, on the 2d inst, at the residence of J. W. Matthews, by J. C. Marcom, J. P., Mr. John F. Mitchell to Miss Corinna Jones. All of this city.

Died.

Mr. Fred. Schwartz, formerly of Raleigh, died at 10 o'clock this morning at Richmond, Va. He was well known and much liked among all who knew him. The city papers are requested to note his death.

Pic Nics.

There were picnics today at Garner, Milburns, Rogers' mill and Tucker's pond in the county. Large crowds went out.

Health Report.

We print today the monthly report of Mr A. L. Ferrell, health officer. Mr. Ferrell deserves great credit for the energy he displays in the make-up of his official statement, which is of much interest to the public.

The Great Revival.

The meetings at the Edenton Street Methodist church yesterday were a great interest. It was one of the greatest days in the history of this no less old church. Great crowds made their way to its spacious auditorium, and the three services of the day were of very unusual interest. At the morning service, the pastor, Rev Mr. Cole, received into the fellowship of the church twenty happy and earnest souls.

The Easter offering was $800. Evangelist Schoolfield preached a truly great sermon. It is not often that Raleigh or any other city is blessed with such a wonderful discourse as fell from the lips of Mr. Schoolfield yesterday morning. The great congregation listened with prayerful earnestness. Many hearts were blessed by the service.

In the afternoon there was a praise service.

But the night hour was the best of all. The great temple was filled with eager hearers. There was hardly standing room in any part of the house.

Mr. Schoolfield preached as probably he has never preached before. We doubt if a greater sermon was ever delivered in Raleigh. The great crowd of young men present will never forget this service. The evangelist preached in much faithfulness but also with tenderness and love. We believe the results of this one service will be far reaching and full of blessing and life to many souls. There were twelve conversions yesterday. Service tonight at 7:45 o'clock. All are cordially invited.

Easter Sunday.

We have seldom, or ever, seen a prettier day than yesterday. It was just warm enough to make it pleasant, and the sun shone with a mellow hue which gave all the surroundings a lovely tint. All the churches were well filled, and the ladies especially turned out in force decked in their new spring bonnets and dresses. Many took advantage of the pleasant day to visit the suburbs, and the street cars did a thriving business. At all the houses of worship, appropriate sermons were delivered, and the ceremonies at the Episcopal and Catholic churches were in strict accordance with the rituals. Everybody seemed happy, and the day was one of a peculiar impressive character.

Baseball.

The Chapel Hill team is now in high training for the match game to come off with the team of the University, of Vermont in Raleigh, on the 13th, inst. Today a game was played at Chapel Hill between the University and Durham teams.

Who Hit Him.

That Billy Patterson was struck no one doubts, but who hit Billy has always been a mystery, but the person who has been striking heavy blows on the head of high prices for five successive years is well known. Swindell's continuous battling at the high price idea in Raleigh has weakened many a stronghold, and today monopoly is gradually losing its grasp and the chains and manacles are dropping from the hands of the people. Those who will open their eyes can see that Swindell has changed the entire methods of the dry goods business in Raleigh. Fair business on business principles is Swindell's motto.

16:50 FRENCH NOVELTY SUITS. The very latest, only $12.
O. A. Sherwood & Co.

She Did Not Like Him.

The oft-repeated experience of blind stubbornness clearly demonstrated last Thursday: Lady comes in Swindell's store, exhibits dress she bought elsewhere at a bargain, paid 6 cents a yard. Swindell's dress goods man showed her the same goods at 50 cents, regular price. This is no humbug but a fact. We don't think the lady had good reasons for not coming to Swindell's though urged to do so. She saw how easy it is to pay dearly for a whistle. By buying goods at Swindell's you will often buy them at a saving price.

Her Majesty's Corset.

We beg to advise our patrons, that we have taken the Raleigh agency for "Her Majesty's Corsets" and feeling that many good points of this celebrated corset are not fully understood, we have at our store, for one week, beginning Monday, April 10th, Mrs. Hyland, the company's representative, who will explain the reasons why Her Majesty's Corset should be worn in preference to corsets of other makes. It is the wish of the Corset Co., that Mrs. Hyland shall have the privilege of trying on all ladies who will allow it. Her Majesty's Corset, and thus illustrate without doubt, by so doing the magnificent figure it will create. Mrs. Hyland will at the same time explain all of its good points. We trust that as many ladies as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity to learn what a perfectly fitting corset really is. We guarantee every pair of Her Majesty's Corsets that we sell, and are confident that a trial will convince the wearer of its merits.

CORSETS.

The advertising signs and cards read:

"R & G. Corsets are the Best"

"Try H & S Corsets. They are the BEST."

Our endorsement goes with both lines. There is no form we cannot fit perfectly long or short waist, either slim medium or stout. Some deary these are "LIES" because the profits are too small. We like them for their quick selling and satisfactory giving qualities. We delight in small profits and quick sales. Fresh, clean goods and a new stock all the time. Not too many of a kind but some of all.
