HORRIBLE ACCIDENT!

A Number of Young Ladies and Girls Terribly Injured!

One of the most horrible accidents that has ever taken place in Raleigh occurred this morning at the grounds of the Agricultural Society just beyond the western limits of the city, between the hours of 10 and 11 o'clock. It seems from what we can gather that Rev. Mr. Smedes, Rector St. Mary's School, as is his custom at times, accompanied a party of his students to the grounds for the purpose of indulging in exercise on the switchback railroad. While thus engaged, it appears from what we can understand, that one of the cars having nearly completed the run of the grade, by some means, was allowed to run back and in doing so came in contact with another car on its trip. The two cars contained a number of young ladies and little girls and collided with a fearful crash. There were about ten on one car and eleven on the other, and it can readily be imagined what a fearful collision it was when we state that both cars were literally torn to pieces. When the collision took place there was a fearful overthrow, in which nearly all on board were more or less injured. In the excitement of the time it is almost impossible to get at the exact injury sustained. There are eight young ladies and girls badly, and it is feared, in cases, seriously hurt, although all, or nearly all, of them, sustained bruises. Among those who are badly injured we gather the following from a source which we deem as nearly correct as possible: Two little daughters of Rev. Bennett Smedes sustained terrible injury. One of them is reported as having one of her legs broken and otherwise hurt, although to what extent we did not ascertain. The other is also badly injured.

A little daughter of Mr. James Boylan is badly hurt, her face being terribly bruised and it is thought her spine is injured.

A little daughter of Mr. Obas Root is much injured, and it is reported that one of her limbs is broken.

Miss Green, daughter of Hon. Wharton J. Green, is injured very badly, but it is hoped not fatally.

Miss Patterson, a young lady of the school, was also badly hurt.

There are others whose names we could not get.

When the news reached the city it was, of course, in a much exaggerated form and caused the wildest excitement. A very large crowd repaired to the scene in every conceivable way. Manager Huff, of the street railway, plied extra cars on the line and accommodated all who desired to go, even free of cost. Our noble physicians repaired to the scene and all that is possible to do under the circumstances has been done to alleviate the sufferers. A gloom has been cast over the entire community.

We have given the above, as well as we could possibly do under the circumstances, when such an excitement existed. It is of course difficult at such a time to arrive at the exact facts.

THE VERDICT.
We are under obligations to Mr. Bannehan Cameron for the following particulars:

There were twenty-four persons on the two cars, two of whom were boys. The following were injured:

Miss Anna Root, Raleigh, leg broken.

Miss Mabel Green, Fayetteville, collar bone broken and leg broke.

Miss Annie Gregg, Texas, badly bruised.

Miss Bessie Patterson, New Berne, angle sprained severely.

Miss Adell Martiniere, Columbus, Ga., bruised badly.

Miss Addie Johnson, Asheville, severely bruised.

Miss Clinch, teacher, slightly bruised.

Miss Florence Boylan, head badly cut.

Miss Addie Snow, Raleigh, badly bruised.

Miss Helen Smedes, St. Mary's, leg broken and her twin sister badly injured.

Those on the car and not hurt are the following: Misses Sallie Kenan, May Colder, Carrie Davis, of Wilmington; Miss Nell Harden, Fayetteville; Cambell Dosey, Gainesville, Ga. Lilla Tucker, Henderson; Catherine Boylan, Raleigh; Margaret Smedes, St. Mary's; Sadie Root, Raleigh; Frances Hodgson, Norfolk; Miss Fenner, Teacher; and Masters Rufus Boylan of Raleigh and Jesse Degreee of Charleston.

Who Hit Him.

That Billy Patterson was struck no one doubts, but who hit Billy has always been a mystery, but the person who has been striking heavy blows on the head of high prices for five successive years is well known. Swindell's continuous battling at the high price idea in Raleigh has weakened many a stronghold, and today monopoly is gradually losing its grasp and the chains and manacles are dropping from the hands of the people. Those who will open their eyes can see that Swindell has changed the entire methods of the dry goods business in Raleigh. Fair business on business principles is Swindell's motto.

16:50 FRENCH NOVELTY SUITS. The very latest, only $12. C. A. Sherwood & Co.

She Did Not Like Him.

The oft-repeated experience of blind stubbornness clearly demonstrated last Thursday: Lady comes in Swindell's store, exhibits dress she bought elsewhere at a bargain, paid 60 cents a yard. Swindell's dress goods man showed her self-same goods at 50 cents, regular price. This is no humbug, but a fact. We don't think the lady had good reasons for not coming to Swindell's, though urged to do so. She saw how easy it is to pay dearly for a whistle. By buying goods at Swindell's you will often buy them at a saving price.

Her Majesty's Corset.

We beg to advise our patrons, that we have taken the Raleigh agency for "Her Majesty's Corsets" and feeling that many good points of this celebrated corset are not fully understood, we have at our store, for one week, beginning Monday, April 10th, Mrs. Hyland, the company's representative, who will explain the reasons why Her Majesty's Corset should be worn in preference to corsets of other makes. It is the wish of the Corset Co., that Mrs. Hyland shall have the privilege of trying on all ladies who will allow it, Her Majesty's Corset, and thus illustrate without doubt, by so doing the magnificent figure it will create. Mrs. Hyland will at the same time explain all of its good points. We trust that as many ladies as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity to learn what a perfectly fitting corset really is. We guarantee every pair of Her Majesty's Corsets that we sell and are confident that a trial will convince the wearer of its merits. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.
