THE OLD HOME.

I have gone—I cannot always go, you know:
Best 'tis so—
Home, across the distant ridges of the years,
With my tears;
And the old house standing still on the old ground,
There I found.

In the parlor, in my fancy, I could trace Father's face;
And my mother, with her old, accus-tomed air,
Sitting there;
While beside them brothers, sisters, true and good,
Silent stood.

Then I went up-stairs, slow entering 'mid their glooms,
All the rooms;
And I trod with softened step along the floor;
Opened doors;
But I never heard a voice or met a soul
In the whole,

Of the breaths that stirred the draper-ies to and fro,
Lo' g ago;
Of the eyes that through the case-ment used to peep
Out of sleep;
Of the feet that in these chambers used to run—
Now are none.

Of the sunshine pouring downward from the sky
Blue and high;
Of the leafage and the ancient garden plot
Brown and hot;
Of the streamlet, and the shingle and the tide—
These abide.

But beyond its azure vaulting over-head
Are my dead;
Though their graves were dug apart in many lands
Joining hands,
They have gathered and are waiting till I come.
That is home!

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

Women will play a very important part in the municipal election to be held in Kansas on the 6th of April. The registration closed on Saturday last, and an immense number of women have qualified themselves to vote by registering. In the larger towns and cities of Kansas the registration of women is very heavy, being from one half to one third of the total registration. In Topeka, for instance, out of 10,000 registered voters, 4,000 are women, and in Kansas city, Kansas, out of 12,000 voters 3,500 are women.

Sale of Land.

By virtue of a decree of the Superior Court of Wake county, N. C., entered at the April term 1893, of said court, in the case of E B Barbee, surviving partner, et al vs Mrs C H King and others, I will offer for sale at public outcry, to the highest bidder for cash, at the court house door in the city of Raleigh, N. C., on Monday, the 1st day of May, 1893, at 12 o'clock m., a certain tract of land situated in Wake Forest township, said county, containing 76 acres, more or less, it being the tract of land formerly owned by Mrs Candace F Sandford, deceased, adjoining the lands formerly owned by W D Jones, deceased, Jacob Hunters and others.

ARMISTEAD JONES, Commissioner.
