

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, APRIL 6, 1893.

NO. 137

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. Jno. R. Upchurch is some better today.

Large numbers of northern people who have been wintering in the south, are returning home.

A dispatch received here today announces the safe arrival in Baltimore of Mr. James Boylan's little daughter. She stood the trip well.

We learn that a collision occurred on the Seaboard Air Line near Cameron, between two freight trains last night. There was considerable smashing up but no lives lost.

Be sure to attend the "Caralleghe Musicale." The ladies are making the greatest exertions and it will be one of the most pleasant occasions that has happened in Raleigh for a long time. Don't forget it.

The entertainment of the Swedish Quartet tonight at Metropolitan Hall for the benefit of St. John's Hospital is a musical event of the rarest kind. We hope the house will be packed especially as the proceeds are for that noble charity, St. John's Hospital.

The University Magazine, at Chapel Hill, offers board and tuition free at the University of North Carolina, to the young man who will send in the largest number of subscribers by September 1st, 1893. This is a fine chance for some bright boy to get the best education in the land free of cost. Write and get particulars.

Died.

Miss Lama Honeycutt, of Wake county, died suddenly at the residence of Mrs. Z. T. Arrp, in Durham, yesterday morning, of heart disease. She was about 70 years old.

Description.

The following is a description of John Allen Johnston the attempted murderer of Deputy Marshall Upchurch. Age 37, light complexion, 5 feet 7 inches high, weighs about 150 pounds, brown hair, light brown mustache. On his left arm is tattooed his initials and a woman's leg.

A Fine Chance.

Mr. Chas. O. McDonald offers to the public a splendid chance to secure tomato plants of the finest and best variety. "Charley" is as well up in the garden business as any man, and knows just how to please the public. We advise all who want tomato plants of the choicest kinds to call or send in their orders. He can suit them.

The Weather.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity

On Friday: Occasional light showers, northeast winds, colder by Friday night.

Local data for 24 hours ending at 8 a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 73; minimum temperature 50 rainfall 0.0.

Fairview Farm.

The attention of the public is specially directed to the advertisement of Capt B P Williamson, proprietor of the celebrated Fairview farm, announcing stallions in use for the season of 1893. It is almost superfluous for us to enter into detail of the magnificent stock of horses as they cannot be surpassed in the United States. Capt Williamson is making this business somewhat of a specialty, and his success has made him famous throughout the country. Those desiring stallions for use or have horses for training would do well to correspond with Capt Williamson at once. He also has for sale standard bred stallions, mares, colts and fillies. It is an opportunity rarely offered.

O. B. Watson, of Winston, will address the Confederate Soldiers at the Guilford Battle Ground celebration July 4, 1893.

A Grand Sight.

All who wish to witness one of the grandest displays of goods of every variety that has ever been seen in Raleigh should visit the Lyon Racket Store on East Martin street. Here can be seen in profusion everything pertaining to the dry goods and notion line. It is a display well worth a visit to look at. The millinery department is simply superb, embracing every variety of head gear known to feminine taste. They can be had from the cheapest to the highest value.

At this establishment there is only one price. Goods are marked down to the lowest living price and no deviation is made. A child can trade at the Lyon Racket Store with the same confidence as a grown person. There is no deception in any respect. We invite our people, and especially the ladies to call at this emporium and see the grand sight.

Wake Superior Court.

This tribunal reassembled today pursuant to adjournment, for the special purpose of trying the case of the state vs. J. Rowan Rogers for embezzlement. Mr. Rogers appeared in court attended by his counsel Messrs Geo H Snow and Fab H. Busbee. After calling over the jury counsel for the defendant moved to quash the indictment on the ground of informality. After argument the motion was denied. On a statement of the defendant's counsel that they had not sufficient time to investigate the case, the judge postponed it until this afternoon.

Only "Fair Play" is Desired.

The call for a general caucus of Democrats on Friday night was not signed "Citizen" as "Fair Play" thinks but was "citizens", and represented the expressed views of about five hundred of our very best citizens. The caucus is wholly in the interest of fair play and there will be present a large majority of the Democratic voters of this township. Every man who desires "fair play" will be present at the caucus tomorrow night at Metropolitan Hall because that meeting will fully express the will of our people as to who shall be postmaster at Raleigh. It is not at all necessary that a call for a general caucus should be signed by individual persons as the caucus itself will show the popularity of the measure to be considered. This caucus is in response to a general uprising of popular sentiment that the will of the people concerned should regulate the appointment of all public officers. It is hoped that "Fair Play" and all his friends will be present at the caucus which is called by the suggestion of all candidates for the postmastership.

Her Majesty's Corset.

We beg to advise our patrons, that we have taken the Raleigh agency for "Her Majesty's Corsets" and feeling that many good points of this celebrated corset are not fully understood, we have at our store, from one week, beginning Monday, April 6th, Mrs. Hyland, the company's representative, who will explain the reasons why Her Majesty's Corset should be worn in preference to corsets of other makes. It is the wish of the Corset Co., that Mrs. Hyland shall have the privilege of trying on all ladies who will allow it, Her Majesty's Corset, and thus illustrate without doubt, by so doing the magnificent figure it will create. Mrs. Hyland will at the same time explain all of its good points. We trust that as many ladies as possible will avail themselves of this opportunity to learn what a perfectly fitting corset really is. We guarantee every pair of Her Majesty's Corsets that we sell and are confident that a trial will convince the wearer of its merits. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.
