

CITY IN BRIEF.

City politics still lively. Don't forget to register for the city election. We regret to learn that Mr W H Pace is very sick. Paint up and adorn your premises for spring. Now is the time to clean up back yards. Attention is called to the advertisement of Emma A. Myatt, administratrix. There is an abundance of early vegetables in market, such as radishes, turnip, greens onions &c. The electric light plant at the Insane Asylum will be ready, it is thought, in about two weeks. Gentlemen from Washington City say that the Post Master General thinks the primary process for selecting postmasters unobjectionable. Messrs. Jones & Powell are now prepared to furnish the best quality of ice. Also fuel of all kinds, feed shingles &c. The Young Men's Christian Association convention, in Winston is very largely attended, there being over three hundred delegates. The Goldsboro Argus has completed its 8th year. It is a first class daily full of interesting news. May it long prosper. At Central church tomorrow immediately after the morning services the monthly church conference will be held in which matters of importance will be presented. Let there be a full attendance of the members of the congregation. The plain truth is good enough for Hood's Sarsaparilla. No need of embellishment or sensationalism. Hood's Cures. The argument of Solicitor Poirer for the state and of Messrs. George H Snow and F H Busbee for the defence in the J Rowan Rogers, case are highly complimented. These gentlemen are ornaments to their profession, in all particulars. The "merr" of Mr. J Hal Bobbitt published today, is enough to tempt the palate of everybody. Such an array of splendid summer drinks has never before been presented to the people of Raleigh. "Hal" is getting up a reputation in this respect which reaches far and wide.

Died.

This morning at her residence on South Person street, Mrs. Bedie Moss widow of the late Jackson Moss, at an advanced age.

Sad Accident.

We regret to state that the little son of Mr. Jeff Wiggins, residing on North West street, was badly burned yesterday afternoon. The little fellow had procured some matches and while striking them his clothing became ignited, burning him considerably about the hands, face and breast. His condition, while not necessarily fatal, is serious.

Election of Vestry.

At a meeting of the congregation of the Church of the Good Shepherd held on the evening of Easter Monday the following were elected a vestry for the ensuing year:

R. H Battle, Senior Warden; Hugh Morson, Junior Warden and Secretary; F. T. Ward, Treasurer; C G Latte, Wm Woolcott, Jos B Batebelor, W T Tucker, Dr A W Knox, Dr K P Battle, B S Skinner, S P Child and H F Smith.

Cheering.

We are informed by our friend Mr Wm. Boylan, that news has today, been received to the effect that his little grand daughter now in Baltimore is getting on as well as could be expected. She had a good rest last night, and this afternoon a dental operation will be performed which it is hoped will prove most successful in the way of properly arranging the dislocated jaw. Mr. Boylan says the physicians think the facial injuries can be so treated as to leave but little if any disfiguration.

Lew and His Merry Associates.

The performance of Lew Dockstader's Minstrels will occur at Metropolitan Hall next Monday night 10th inst. It is just to say the entertainment given by this company is always first class. The music generally is of a high order, the solos and choruses are admirable and the varied diversion of the second part is made up of really enjoyable specialties. The comedians of the company have made a commendable endeavor this season to provide new material and the announcement is made that an entirely new programme will be given.

Lew's leading associates in fun are George Powers, John O Harrington, Falke and Semons, the Columbian Quartette, Blocksom and Burnes, eight solo singers and a large and carefully trained chorus. In giving this list we must not forget Frank Dumont, who has the soubriquet of "The Minstrel Shakespeare." Mr. Dumont's funny sketch "The Cake Walk," no doubt will prove as bright and pleasing as anything in the long and brilliant programme.
