

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, APRIL 10, 1893.

NO. 140

CITY IN BRIEF.

The summer cars were out yesterday.

The street cars did a thriving business yesterday.

Pullen Park was visited by large crowds yesterday.

Yesterday was an unusual warm day for the month of April.

A considerable party of ladies and gentlemen went out to Penny's pond fishing this afternoon.

We are sorry to state that little Marshall, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Fanoett continues quite sick.

The condition of Miss Mabel Green who was injured by the switchback disaster continues most favorable.

Mr John B. Upchurch continues to improve and the most earnest hopes of his recovery are now indulged in.

Our friend "Hal" Ayer is snugly fixed up in his new quarters in Page's opera house. His office fronts on Martin street.

Don't fail to take in Lew Dockstader's Minstrels at Metropolitan Hall tonight. Nothing like it has ever been seen in Raleigh.

There will be a meeting of the Royal Arcanum tonight at 8 o'clock. Prompt attendance desired as there will be work in the degrees.

Regular meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge tonight at 8 o'clock sharp. All masons in good standing are cordially invited to attend.

Call at Dughi's and see the beautiful improvements he is making in the way of preserving and adorning his restaurant. It is a most delightful resort.

The game of baseball last Saturday between the teams of Oak Ridge and the Agricultural and Mechanical College, resulted in a victory for the former by a score of 15 to 4.

Litchford Encampment, No 26, will meet tonight at 7:30 o'clock. A very important matter will come up, and every member is earnestly requested to be present.

E A WOMBLE,
Scribe.

A mortgage held by Mr Joseph Daniels is to be foreclosed.—This course renders it somewhat uncertain whether the Chronicle will be continued as a separate paper or in connection with the News and Observer.

Yesterday was the anniversary of General Lee's surrender at Appomattox, which occurred on Sunday April 9th 1865. A friend who was present informed us today that it was just such a bright and beautiful day as yesterday, and almost as warm.

It should be remembered that the ice cream establishment of Mr Chas Bretsch, 103 Fayetteville street, is now in full successful operation.—Don't forget also that orders left with him for ice cream can be furnished by Mr A Dughi in the most prompt manner. Remember that the first class bakery of Mr Bretsch is turning out the finest kinds of cakes, bread, &c. Orders of this kind left either with Mr Dughi or Mr Bretsch will receive prompt attention.

Now is the time of year for a general overhauling and getting ready for summer. The first thing necessary after brushing up the premises is to see what is needed in the matter of replenishing the parlor and bed rooms in the way of furniture. Then must come provision for the little ones in the shape of comfortable and stylish carriages. All of these requirements can be met on the most advantageous terms at the mammoth emporium of Messrs Thomas & Maxwell, the well known furniture dealers on Exchange Place, south side of the market.

Life is short and time is fleeting, but Hoods Sarsaparilla will bless humanity as the ages roll on. Try it this season.

Lecture.

Mr J. P. Wright will give a lecture tonight at Swain Street Mission for the benefit of the Sunday school. Admission 10 cents. Subject "Laugh;" at eight o'clock.

Gun Tournament.

Tomorrow, the great gun tournament will open at Greensboro, and will be one of the most interesting features of the kind that has ever taken place in this section. There will be shooters from all portions of the Union. The tournament is under the auspices of the Manufacturers Trap Shooting Association of the United States.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair, except possibly local showers in the mountain regions this afternoon or night. Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity

On Tuesday: Fair; showers Wednesday.

Local data for 24 hours ending at a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 91 minimum temperature 56 rainfall 0.0.

The Spring.

Of all seasons in the year, it is one for making radical changes in regard to health. During the winter, the system becomes to a certain extent clogged with waste, and the blood loaded with impurities, owing to the lack of exercise, close confinement in poorly ventilated shops and homes, and other causes. This is the cause of the dull, sluggish, tired feeling so general at this season, and which must be overcome, or the health may be entirely broken down. Hood's Sarsaparilla has attained the greatest popularity all over the country as the favorite Spring Medicine. It expels the accumulation of impurities through the bowels, kidneys, liver, lungs and skin, gives to the blood the purity and quality necessary to good health and overcomes that tired feeling.

A Card.

The rector of St Mary's school takes this opportunity of expressing his heartfelt appreciation of the sympathy and help given him and those dear to him by the people of Raleigh since the accident of last Tuesday. He thanks them most warmly for their assistance, and assures them that their confidence and generous help have done much to uphold him in a time of great trouble and anxiety. Especial thanks are tendered to the doctors, to the members of the A and M college, to Superintendent Stafford, and those whose near residence enabled them to be first upon the grounds. He wishes also to thank his friends for the numerous telegrams and letters of sympathy received, for fear that the replies, by some mischance may never have reached them. It gives him pleasure to say that the attendant physician reports the condition of the sufferers to be most satisfactory.

Dockstader's Minstrels.

The Danville (Va.) Reporter says: Danville has seen Al Field and Geo. Wilson and Milt Barlow and all the great stars in the minstrel firmament, but the universal verdict now is that Lew Dockstader and his superb company of stars who appeared at the Academy last evening are at the head of the deck. Every man in the company is an artist, and Dockstader is simply immense. The local hits in his Cleveland reception speech were the best and most good natured ever attempted here, and the audience went wild over them. All the specialties were very fine, the music, both vocal and instrumental, was splendid, and the audience spent two hours in continued laughter and enjoyment.
