THE HELP THAT COMES TOO LATE.

MARGARET E. SANGSTER.

'Tis a wearisome world, this world of ours
With its tangles small and great,
Its weeds that smother the springing flowers,
And its hapless strifes with fate,
But the darkest day of its desolate days
Sees the help that comes too late.

Ah! woe for the word that is never said
Till the ear is deaf to hear,
And woe for the lack to the fainting head
Of the ringing shout of cheer;
Ah! woe for the laggard fact that tread
In the mournful wake of the bier.

What booteth help when the heart is numb
What booteth a broken spar
Of love thrown out when the lips are dumb
And life's barque drifteth far,
Oh! far and fast from the alien past,
Over the moaning bar?

A pitiful thing the gift to lay
That is dross and nothing worth,
Though if it had come but yesterday
It had brimmed with sweet the earth
A fading rose in a death cold hand,
That perished in want and dearth.

Who fain would help in this world of ours,
Where sorrowful steps must fall,
Bring help in time to the waning powers
Ere the bier is spread with the pall;
Nor send reserves when the flags are furled
And the dead beyond your call.

For baffling most in this dreary world
With its tangles small and great,
Its lonesome nights and its weary days,
And its struggles forlorn with fate,
Is the bitterest grief, too deep for tears,
Of the help that comes too late.
