

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, APRIL 11, 1893.

NO. 141

CITY IN BRIEF.

J M Gudger, of Asheville, is in the city.
See notice of K O Ellis administrator.

The roof of the First Baptist church is being repaired.

The growl of the disappointed office seeker is being heard in the land.

Mr. and Mrs. J T Womble, of Durham, are visiting friends in this city.

There is no material change in the condition of Mr. John W. Upchurch.

Appeals from the eleventh district will be called in the Supreme Court next Tuesday.

See notice of Peele & Maynard attorneys for mortgagees and assignees, sale of land.

Mr. and Mrs. W T Utley's little daughter Mabel is critically ill with pneumonia on East Morgan street.

The cotton seed oil mills will shut down for the season next Saturday. Nearly 9,000 tons of seed were used during the season.

The abrupt declivity at the west end of the Hillsboro bridge still exists, notwithstanding very numerous complaints. We have heretofore asked whose business it is to have it leveled so as to avoid accidents on dark nights. We should rather think that it is the duty of the street commissioner to see to the matter.

Baseball.

The great event in baseball circles is the game to be played in this city tomorrow between the teams of the University of North Carolina and the University of Vermont. Both sides have been in full practice and a most interesting and exciting game may be anticipated.

A Good Selection.

Through an invitation of the executive committee of the North Carolina Commercial and Industrial Association. President Alf A. Thompson will deliver an address before the North Carolina Press Association at its convention in New Bern. An able address may be looked for.

Confederate Monument.

General Jas H. Lane, of Virginia, commanded after the fall of General Branch the famous fourth brigade North Carolina troops, sworn in the army of Northern Virginia as the "Light Brigade." He has kindly donated twenty dollars to the N. C. M. A. Is there a son of our good old state, that will refuse to do his part?

The Meeting Tonight.

In pursuance of the call made by many citizens, there will be a meeting of Democrats in Metropolitan Hall tonight to consider the matter of holding a primary election to determine the choice of the Democracy of Raleigh and vicinity for postmaster.

Died.

Mrs. James A. Baker died at Goldsboro last Sunday morning. Her remains were brought to this city yesterday for interment.

Mrs. Baker was the mother of our young friend Mr. Jno. W. Baker, late of the State Chronicle, with whom we most deeply sympathize.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Occasional light showers this afternoon or tonight. Fair warmer Wednesday.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity

On Wednesday: Colder Wednesday morning warmer, by Wednesday night, generally fair.

Local data for 24 hours ending at a. m. today:

Maximum temperature, 76 minimum temperature 46 rainfall 0.0.

There will be serious trouble if you don't overcome those dyspeptic symptoms. Hood's Sarsaparilla is the medicine you need.

Funeral Notice.

The funeral of the late Maj John Devereux will take place tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock from Christ Church.

Convicted.

Officer Rollins, of Durham, has been convicted of manslaughter and sentenced to five years in the penitentiary. An appeal was taken to the Supreme Court.

False Alarms.

This afternoon two young men, named Smith and Carroll were arraigned before the Mayor for turning in false alarms of fire on the night of the 13th of January last. The information was obtained through the efforts of Chief Engelhard of the fire department. Mr. Holding appeared for the city, and George H. Snow for the defendants. After the case the Mayor imposed a fine upon the defendants of $50, and costs each. An appeal was taken to the Superior Court.

Y M C A.

The session of the Young Men's Christian Association, at Winston has closed. Much business was transacted of a practical nature. The state committee reported that it would require $3,500 to carry on the work during the coming year. Of this amount $1,700 was pledged by the delegates and the congregation pledged $40 more. There were 224 delegates in attendance. The place for the next session has not been designated, but it is thought that Asheville will be selected.

The Teacher's Trip.

It is now definitely understood that the party of five hundred teachers will leave for the world's fair at Chicago on July 20th, under the chaperonage of Col. E G Harrell. The limit of members is now nearly reached. The trip will be made on two special trains. It is expected there will be about one hundred persons from Raleigh, and the remainder from other parts of this state, South Carolina and Virginia. Raleigh will be the assembling point, but persons will be admitted to the trains at Goldsboro, Durham, Greensboro and Danville. The trains will leave Raleigh at 7 o'clock July 20th and arrive in Chicago at 3:30 on the 21st. The total necessary expenses of the trip are $39 which will include railroad fare both ways, board and lodging in Chicago, four admissions to the exposition and twenty street car tickets.

MADE HER BABY'S COFFIN.

Having no money, and thinking she was friendless, Mrs. Leganza of West Hazleton, Penn., made a shroud of her own garments for her dead child and then built a rude coffin in which to bury it from some old lumber which she found in the cellar. Two weeks ago her husband left her, presumably to seek work. Nothing has been seen or heard of him since. The illness of her two year old babe developed rapidly, and it died. The mother, who is now in a delicate condition, prepared the last garments for her darling and nailed together the rude pine box for a coffin, when neighbors found her and had the infant interred.

All diseases of the skin cured, and lost complexion restored by Johnson's Oriental Soap. Sold at John Y. MacRae's Drug Store.

This is Corset Week.

We wish to remind our patrons that Mrs. Hyland, representing Her Majesty's Corsets, is now at our store and will be glad to meet any ladies who feel interested at all in securing a perfect fitting corset. We hope as many of our patrons as can, will avail themselves of this opportunity and allow Mrs. Hyland to explain the many superior qualities of this corset. We want all ladies to call and see these whether they have an idea of buying or not.

W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & CO.

Col R M Douglas, of Greensboro, is in the city.

The potato bug has made its appearance. Pairis green is said to be effectual in removing them.
