VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 12, 1893.

NO. 142

CITY IN BRIEF.

Continued cool.
We welcome the Green Mountain boys in memory of Ethan Allen.
The "Green Mountain" and "Far Heels" crossed bats this afternoon.
We deeply regret to note that the condition of Mr W H Pace is extremely critical.
The regular meeting of the L'Allegro German club will be held on next Friday night.
Attention is directed to the advertisement of the New York Millinery Bazaar in this issue.
The hotels at the various watering places in the state are being fixed up for the summer season.
Senator Vance is expected to leave Washington tomorrow for his summer residence at Gombroon.
Hon. Henry Wattison, the brilliant editor and lecturer holds forth in Wilmington tomorrow night.
Strawberries are being shipped from the eastern section of North Carolina to the northern cities.
Mr. B F Jerman, brother, and sister were called today to Ridgeway on account of the illness of their mother.
Most of the reports at the Agricultural Department, say there will be an increase of cotton acreage this year.

Mr. Jno. E. Upchurch still shows marked signs of improvement, and it is earnestly hoped that his recovery will be speedy.

We are pleased to see in the city today, our former fellow citizen Mr. Virginia Ballard of Durham. He is in the enjoyment of good health.

No matter how much excitement may exist about the municipal election our people should not forget to clean up their premises and get ready for spring and summer.

Much complaint is made about the condition of the sidewalks on East Morgan, between Fayetteville and Person streets. It is a thoroughfare much used and should be looked after.

Sheriff McArthur, of Forsyth, has brought to the penitentiary J A Aldridge, a white man who escaped from the prison three years ago. He was captured near the village of Tobacco-ville, in this state, and a reward of $75 had been offered for him.

Our people of all shades of opinion would be much pleased to have Mr N R Broughton receive the position of government printer. There is no man in the state, or in the country at large, who, in our opinion, would fill the office more acceptably in all respects.

On to Richmond.

Gov. Carr, accompanied by Col Jno. Robinson, Commissioner of Agriculture and State Geologist J A Holmes, left for Richmond yesterday to attend the meeting of Southern Governors in that city today.

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Maj John Devereux took place this morning at 11 o'clock from Christ church, and was attended by a very large concourse of relatives, friends and citizens generally, thus attesting the high esteem in which he was held by our community. The floral tributes were many and beautiful. The interment took place in Oakwood cemetery under the supervision of Mr John W Brown, undertaker.

Our Exhibit.

It is gratifying to know that the utmost activity prevails in regard to the North Carolina exhibit at the worlds fair. An accomplished artist is now engaged in making a series of photographic views in Eastern Carolina which will embrace photographs of Edenton bay, Beaufort harbor, Lookout light house and the confluence of Trent and Neuse rivers. These will be handsomely mounted.
