VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, APRIL 14, 1893.

NO. 144

CITY IN BRIEF.

Fishing in the neighboring ponds is said to be very good.

John Allen Johnson is still a free citizen of the republic.

Mr. E. B. Barbee has returned from a business trip to New York.

Forest fires are still raging to an alarming extent in Warren county.

A number of boats have been placed in the pond at Pullen Park.

Col. John C. Tipton, of the Shelby Review, has been appointed State statistician.

The new extension shed at the Union Depot is 495 feet long. The work is entirely completed.

The North Carolina rush to Washington city still continues, but not to such an extent as a few weeks since.

The many friends of Rev. L. L. Nash, of Wilmington, are pleased to see him in the city looking remarkably well.

Many needed improvements are being made to the grounds of the executive mansion, and the place is getting more attractive.

Special meeting of Wm. G. Hill Lodge No. 218, A. F. & A. M. tonight at 8 o'clock. Work in the Master's degree. Visiting brothers cordially invited.

Read the millinery announcement of the Lyon Racket Store in this issue. There is a mammoth stock at this establishment from which the ladies can select low prices and elegant goods. Call and be suited.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of Messrs. Thos. H. Briggs & Sons who have in stock a splendid supply of baby carriages. Also everything else to be found in the hardware line at the most reasonable prices.

It is an old maxim, "never kick a man when he is down." There is another good idea that comes in all right, "there are some men you had better not kick when they are standing up." There may be such a thing as retributive justice, and, it sometimes comes quickly.

The Raleigh Stationery Company can readily supply you with anything in the way of office and school supplies. All kinds of novelties and labor saving devices, or all that can be desired in fine writing paper. All kinds of supplies for typewriters, wrapping paper, paper bags, twine, &c. A visit to their establishment will convince you that the stock of every description is the most complete in North Carolina, and the prices are guaranteed to be as low as any house in the State or in the South.

A Good One

Our returning friends from Washington City tell some amusing incidents relative to applications for office. One of the best we have heard is as follows:

A clever gentleman, who edits a paper in a neighboring town to Raleigh, desired a consulate. He went to see the president and designated the place he wished to be sent to. As a means of aiding his chances he said that in his paper he had urged the nomination of Cleveland first, last and all the time. The president, of course, at this announcement, gave one of his blandest smiles and remarked:

"Well, my friend, file your papers," of course meaning the application for the office, recommendations, &c. Our editor, however, seemed to have misconstrued the president's meaning, because he at once telegraphed home and had sent to him a complete file of his paper during the late canvass which he placed on file at the state department. Whether the appointment clerk will ever wade through the mass of type is a problem yet to be solved.

It is not what its proprietors say but what Hood's Sarsaparilla does, that tells the story. Hood's Sarsaparilla cures.

Entertainment.

The Blind Girl's Circle of King's Daughters, entitled the "Level Best" will give a musical entertainment in the chapel of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and Blind tonight at 8 o'clock. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

Atlantic Hotel.

This fine resort is being placed in perfect repair for the coming summer season. The popular manager, Mr. B. L. Perry, was here yesterday with a view of making necessary arrangements for the opening. There is no place on the Atlantic slope where a better season of rest and enjoyment can be found.

Returned.

Our friend A. D. Jones, Esq., has returned from that Mecca of politicians—Washington City, where he went to put in his claims as consul to Hong Kong, China.

We remember when a boy, a ditty the chorus of which ran "You may go to Hong Kong for me."

Now, this is our position as to "Buck." We would hate to part with him, but if he desires to go abroad our best wishes are with him. That he will do his full duty wherever he may be goes without saying.

Our friend Mr. "Will" Wynne expects to go to Norfolk Va. next week to enter the bicycle contest.

She will take pleasure in doing this whether the ladies have an idea of buying or not. Mrs. Hyland will also show these corsets at the residence of any of our patrons who find it inconvenient to see them at our store. W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

City Election.

The coming city election is looked forward to with interest by all. We are not prepared to say whether or not the fifty thousand dollars worth of bonds will be voted down or not. But we are prepared to state that we have about that amount of stock that we are placing every day before the people to vote on. We will not advise you how to vote in the city election, but we can advise you how to act in regard to a vote on our stock. In the first place, we have the largest stock, the best assortment, prettiest lines and can save you money on all. Now, you can't afford to vote this down. Swindell.

Millinery Display.

Every one is loud in praise of our millinery stock and the hats our milliner makes. She is a recognized artist in the trimming room. This lady has had wide experience in a Baltimore millinery house where high art alone was acceptable. Our milliner, Miss O'Neil, was here last season and all who had her trim came back this spring expressing their pleasure. D. T. Swindell.
