VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, TUESDAY, APRIL 18, 1893.

NO. 147

CITY IN BRIEF.

Beautiful weather.
Have you registered?
Federal court is in session at Statesville, with Judge Dick presiding.
Mr. R. K. Ferrell, of Durham, is in the city

A very slight frost this morning, but nothing hurt

Mr. Sidney E. Allen, of Winston, is in the city.

A number of opera chairs are arriving for the new opera house.

An electric light has been placed at the corner of South Salisbury and West Martin streets.

John S. Leary, the colored lawyer of Fayetteville, has located in Charlotte.

Mr. Monfalcone the noted derocator will commence painting in the opera house in a few days.

Many Raleigh people will attend the grand naval review at Hampton Rhodes.

Mrs. John Manning of Chapel Hill, is spending a few days with friends in this city.

The registration books for the city election will close on the 21st inst. Don't forget to see if your names are all right.

The scaffolding is being removed from the front of the new hotel and workmen are engaged in putting in floors &c.

Members of the Railroad Commission left today for Washington to attend the National Convention of Railroad Commissioners.

The North Carolina local ministers conference will convene at Trinity Park Durham July 20-23. An interesting session can be anticipated.

The bicycle races in connection with the naval review took place at Norfolk today. Our young fellow citizen, Mr. Will Wynne, is expected to be in the race, and we are hoping to hear good news from him.

Mrs. John Eudy left this morning for Alexandria, Va., on a visit to Mrs. Fred Taylor and will also visit her sons in Pennsylvania before she returns home.

Mr. Leary, labor commissioner, reports that he is pleased with the success of the employment bureau established in connection with the office. Situations have been obtained for about one fifth of the applicants.

It is much to be regretted that the extreme cold weather of the past winter has been very destructive to the fig trees in this section. Most of those of the Italian colony west of the city have been destroyed.

The Durham Globe is authority for the statement that Mr. W. D. Lunsford has a copy of the Minerva published in Raleigh, August 12th 1812, by Lucas and A. H. Boylan.

All arrangements have been completed for the transfer of the remains of ex-President Davis from New Orleans to Richmond. It has not been determined, however, the exact route to be taken or whether the remains will pass through Raleigh.

The Raleigh Stationery Company are offering goods in their line at prices far below anything we have yet heard of in Raleigh. There is no place in our city or, indeed in the State, where better stationery of every description can be obtained and for less prices. Call and examine stock. It is of the most varied character.

Rev. Dr. Landrum, of Richmond, Va., arrived in our city yesterday. He preached at night at the First Baptist church. He is a preacher of great simplicity, and preached a very fine sermon. It made a deep impression on those who heard it, and the congregation was much pleased with the preacher, and sermon. Services will be held during the week at 4 p. m. and at 8 o'clock at night.

Found—the reason for the great popularity of Hood's Sarsaparilla—simply this: Hood's CURE. Be sure to get HOOD'S.

Entertainment.

On the 28th inst., an entertainment will be given at Neuse, the proceeds of which will be devoted to the people in Barton's Creek township who had their property recently destroyed by fire.

Complimentary.

The Richmond Dispatch says: Last Friday a most delightful hop was given at the Virginia Military Institute at Lexington Va., complimentary to Misses Janet and Mattie Fuller of Raleigh N. C. It was a most delightful occasion in all respects. Mrs. Fitzhugh Lee was one of the chaperons.

Attention, R. A. M.

A regular convocation of Raleigh Chapter No. 10 Royal Arch Masons, will be held this evening at 8 o'clock in Masonic hall. Visiting companions invited to be present:

WM. SIMPSON, H. P.

W. E. FAISON, Secretary.

Awards.

On May 5th, three gold medals will be awarded by the faculty of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of this city, to be given to the best debator, essayist and declaimer, respectively. The Leazer Literary Society have chosen for their declaimer, Malcolm Hunter, of Macklenburg. It will be a most interesting occasion.
