VOL. XXVIII.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 19, 1893.

NO. 148

CITY IN BRIEF.

The fruit is, so far, all right.
The cold waves did not amount to much.
It is now thought that the frost danger has passed.
State Senator Day, of Halifax, was in the city yesterday.
City election still the excitement of the day.
State Treasurer Tate has returned to the city much improved.
Mr. O. H. Belvin has gone on a visit to Norfolk and Baltimore.
Senator Vance has gone to Gomboon for the summer vacation.
The city agony will soon be over and we can all be tranquil again.
Governor Carr has gone to his farm at Sparta in Edgecombe county.
Paint up your houses, brush up your premises and get ready for summer. It will soon be on us.
A large number of persons passed through the city yesterday bound for the naval review.
Large shipments of strawberries are being made to the north from the New Bern section.
Mr. Claude Barbee, of Richmond, Va., is in the city visiting his brother, Mr. E. B. Barbee.
The sheriff of Davie county brought two prisoners to the penitentiary yesterday afternoon.
The people of New Bern are making great preparations for the reception of editors in that city the latter part of the present month.
The naval review at Hampton Rhodes is all the talk. Thousands of people are hurrying there to see it.
There will be a most important meeting of St. Agnes Guild Thursday, April 30th at half past four in Christ church chapel.
Attention is directed to the announcement of the auction sale of personal property to take place on the 8th day of May by J. M. Broughton & Co. Also a dwelling house for rent.
Services will be held during the week at the First Baptist Church at 4 p. m. and at 8 o'clock at night. Rev. Dr. Lamdrum preached last night. He will officiate during the week.
Let it be remembered that the primaries for expressing opinion on the matter of who shall be our postmaster, comes off next Monday night the same time as those for aldermen. It is important.
We are authorized to announce that our friend, Mr. Sherwood House, is a candidate for Aldermen in the Second Ward. We are further authorized to say that he is against a "clean sweep."
We are free to express our opinion in the city election to the extent that we most earnestly hope the newly elected Board of Aldermen will address themselves to the task of opening up the streets already agreed upon.
Mr. D. Z. Dunott, representing the "University of Pennsylvania Banjo and Glee clubs" was in the city yesterday making arrangements for a performance by the company here, on the night of May 10th. The programme will be a most excellent one in all particulars.
Governor Carr has received a letter from Mrs. Geo. Fry, of Chattanooga, Tenn., stating that in a cemetery at that place there are thousands of North Carolinians buried who fell in the battles of Chattanooga and Missionary Ridge.
We invite special attention to the advertisement of Messrs. Whiting Bros. in this issue. This enterprising firm has in store one of the most superb stocks ever brought to this city. Their styles are the latest, new and reliable. Call and make your selections in time.
After the grip, when you are weak and "played out," Hood's Sarsaparilla will restore your health and strength.

Wrong

Complaint is made about persons walking across the clover in Moore square. There are regular walks through the park and these ought to be sufficient for pedestrians. We hope a stop will be put to trespassing on the grass plots.

Funeral.

The remains of the late Mrs. G. A. Holding were conveyed yesterday to Wake Forest for burial accompanied by the following gentlemen as pall bearers: John W. Thompson, M. W. Page, Millard Mial, L. O. Lougee, G. M. Allen, and T. B. Moseley.

Musical.

A most interesting musicale will be given tomorrow night at the Governor's Mansion, commencing at 8 o'clock, by the ministering circle of the King's Daughters, the object of which is to send two little girls to a nursery home in Baltimore. Prof. Cain, of Baltimore, will be present and render some interesting music on the violin. We hope there will be a very large attendance.

Important.
