VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, APRIL 24, 1893.

NO. 1

CITY IN BRIEF.

No frost this morning.
Democratic primaries tonight.
City politics are all ablaze today.
Gov. Carr returned to the city yesterday.
The law is supreme and must be upheld.
The cold spell is keeping back vegetation.
There is a reported scarcity of cotton seed.
Sunday school picnics will soon be in order.
The little daughter of Mr. Mont Payne is very ill.
Rev. Dr. Landrum will remain in the city a few days longer.
Mr. Albert Johnson is out again after a severe spell of sickness.
Strawberries are selling in Wilmington at ten cents a quart.
The March bulletin of the agricultural department has been issued.
Next Monday will be the city election and then the long agony will be over.
The caterpillar plague is getting troublesome in some sections of the state.
Eight coaches were attached to the train that carried the troops to New Berne.
Col. A. M. McPheeters returned last Saturday afternoon from a trip to Baltimore.
Mr. Jos. Gill has gone to Chicago to aid in preparing the exhibits from North Carolina.
Our merchants all say that they have no right to complain at the spring trade thus far.
Mr. S. P. Pennington, of this city, was robbed of $50 and his watch in Norfolk Va., last week.
Warmer weather predicted. It will be very acceptable, especially to gardeners and truckers.
Keep your temper at the primaries tonight. Vote your choice but do so in a dignified manner.
Clark's Female Minstrels which show here on the 96th inst. will come in their own private car.
It is expected that the fast schedule on the Seaboard Air Line will take effect about the 30th inst.
Clark's Female Minstrels is the great talk. They will appear next Wednesday night at Metropolitan Hall.
Rev. L. L. Nash who has been on a soliciting tour for his church, has returned to Wilmington much encouraged.
All the cases against the R & D Railroad Company growing out of the Boston Bridge affair have been settled.
A little son of Mrs. Gruendier, corner of Jones and Harrington streets, is very ill with the lock jaw and not expected to live.
Two companies, one from Louisville and the other from Warrenton, arrived here this morning. They left on the east bound train with the Governor's Guard for James City.
We hear it rumored that our venerable friend, Maj. W. W. Vass, will be chosen commissioner of the sinking fund of the Seaboard Air Line. He will keep the money all right, and no mistake.
A grand reception awaits the press association at New Berne this week. A high class musical entertainment will be given Wednesday night, and on Thursday night a banquet will be furnished. An excursion on the water will be a prominent feature.
The unsightly and dangerous debris in the sidewalk at the west end of the Hillsboro street bridge still remains, against all the protests of the press and citizens. A broken ankle may sometime cause a suit against the city. It might be remedied by half an hour's work.

Fixing Up.

Our friend Mr. Hal Bobbitt is not to be outdone in the matter of fixing up for the spring and summer. Having decorated the premises where he conducts business, he is now having his residence on Dawson street nicely painted and otherwise improved. His example should be followed by our citizens generally.

Entertainment.

A tea entertainment will be given by the Rescue Circle at the mission rooms, tomorrow evening 27th inst. from 5 to 11 o'clock. There will be no admission fee but tea will be served at a small remuneration. All promised contributions should be sent as early as possible. The object is a charitable one.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Fair weather, warmer.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity.

On Tuesday: Fair weather.

Local data for 24 hours ending at a.m. today:

Maximum temperature, 63 minimum temperature 57 rainfall 0.0.

Wake Superior Court.

The tribunal met this morning Judge Brown presiding.

The following cases were disposed of: E. M. Bledsoe et al vs. Moses A. Bledsoe, continued until next Thursday.

O. L. Eatman et al vs. Candice Rogers, ex. continued.

Mrs. P. M. Betts et al vs. C. B. Jernican, on trial when our report closed.

A Late Ruling.

The latest post office ruling, says an exchange, is that the writer has the right to reclaim and regain possession of a letter provided he can prove to the satisfaction of the postmaster at the office from which it was sent, that he was the writer of it. Even after the letter has arrived at its destination, and before it is delivered to the person to whom it is addressed, it may be recalled by the writer by telegram through the mailing office.

A Nice Retreat.

We called today at the well known restaurant of Mr. A. Dughi and noted the fine improvements this gentleman has provided for the accommodation of our people. There is nowhere to be found a more cosy or elegantly arranged place where the wants of the inner man can be attended to. Mr. Dughi has had the rooms all nicely decorated and so arranged that ladies and gentlemen can enjoy all the comforts of a home meal. His menu is excellent as he never allows anything to escape his notice which he believes will be to the comfort of his patrons. In a word, he is conducting such an establishment as our people may be justly proud of.

The James City Affair.

We had a short interview this morning with Quartermaster Harrell in reference to the James City troubles. He said that he was under the impression that the mere presence of troops would be sufficient to preserve order and carry out the mandates of the court, but it had been learned that the colored residents had armed themselves and that the main difficulty would be afterwards, as imprudent persons, after the troops had left, might attempt violence to life and property. With the turning over of the property to Mr. Bryan the duties of the troops would be accomplished, unless, of course, mob violence is attempted.

The first regiment had been ordered to the scene, and will reach there today and take possession of the property.

In accordance with orders the Governor's Guard left here at 1 o'clock today. They were joined by the other companies. It is to be sincerely hoped that no bloodshed will ensue, and that the law may be vindicated.

Mr. W. S. Primrose has returned to the city from a trip to Eastern Carolina.
