 Carry all the flowers you can get.
 The Pennsylvania Band and Glee Club tonight.
 Malvern Hill.
 May cherries will soon be the correct fruit.
 "They sleep their last sleep."
 We regret to hear that Thos R Purcell, Esq, is quite sick.
 Bull Run.
 Miss Mattie Fuller has returned from a trip to Durham.
 Bethel.
 The Odd Fellows rendered due homage to our dead heroes.
 Appomattox.
 The infant child of Mr. J. H. Marshall, janitor of Metropolitan Hall is quite sick.
 See notice of sale of lots by R H Battle and R T Gray for trustees of Rex Hospital.
 Mr Fred G Staudt has accepted a position in Norfolk, Va, and left for that city this morning.
 "On fame's eternal camping ground their silent tents are spread."
 J. E. O. U. A. M.—Raleigh Council, No. 1, will meet tonight in Castle Hall, Centre lodge, K of P at 8 o'clock.
 "No sound can awake them to glory again."
 The students of the Agricultural College joined in the procession this afternoon.
 "Let us pass over and rest under the shade of the trees."
 Don't fail to hear the Pennsylvania University Glee Club at Metropolitan Hall tonight.
 There is a very large crowd of strangers in the city, and our streets present a most animated appearance.
 "Though lost to sight, to memory dear."
 The State Convention of King's Daughters will meet in Oxford tomorrow. It will be a very important session.
 Mr. W. S. Primrose has been requested to act as director in charge of the music on the occasion of the Davis ceremonies on the 30th inst.
 John Allen Johnson was arranged yesterday and his bail fixed at $600 on two charges for counterfeiting. He was held for trial at the next term of the Federal Court in June.
 Officer Washington, of Richmond, who brought John Allen Johnson to Raleigh, returned home yesterday. He filed his claim for the reward offered.
 Mr Geo. B Fleming, of Roper, N. C. is in the city on a visit to his family, who is stopping with their parents Mr and Mrs J O S Lumsden on West street.
 We return our thanks to Mr. James C. Birdsong for kind services rendered in getting up a report for THE VISITOR of proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.
 Who ever heard the like before? The papers issued in New York City in the morning are read in Raleigh on the evening of the same day. We are moving.
 Messrs W C & A B Stronach have the celebrated Hancock's "Humbag" shewing tobacco made in Richmond, Va. It is the best ever seen in this city. Try it.

A Card.
 Mr Editor—If you will allow me a small space through the columns of your newsy little sheet it will afford me great pleasure to announce to my friends and the public, especially those suffering from toothache and neuralgia, that Williams & King's famous toothache and neuralgia remedy is the best medicine I ever used. I have been a great sufferer of toothache and neuralgia and could get nothing that would affect a prominent care until after using one bottle of the above remedy, which completely cured me. Take my advice; you won't have to try it twice; it costs you only 10 cents. Yours very truly, F A FENDER, May 3d, 1893. Raleigh, N. C.
