

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, MAY 13, 1893.

NO. 18

CITY IN BRIEF.

The mayor's office was entirely barren of news today.

Hot weather looming up in the distance—so the weather folks predict.

The next big occasion will be the meeting of dentists on the 23d inst.

There is not a breath of politics in our city now. Business is all the go.

Charles Price, attorney of the Western district of North Carolina has resigned.

Judging from the people on the streets today, a good trade has been driven by our merchants.

Many of the new doctors enjoyed themselves taking in the sights of the city today.

Strawberries and green peas getting very abundant, and prices getting down to popular rates.

See notice of mortgage sale of city property by B F Montague, mortgagee.

The next meeting of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar, will be held in Charlotte.

The Postal Telegraph Company will open its office in Durham next Wednesday.

Dr Hodges is likely to gain a national reputation for his great oration on Preventive Medicine. It was a great effort.

Little Florence Boylan, we are glad to note, continues to improve. She will probably arrive at home soon.

Mr. J. R. Tree, of Richmond, Va., Superintendent of the Western Union Telegraph Company, is stopping at the Yarboro House.

Captain V E McBea, General Supt. Captain Charles Price and Mr. Chas. T. Williams arrived here this morning in Captain McBea's private car.

Rev. Theo. B. Lyman, D. D. will administer the rite of confirmation at St. Mary's school tomorrow at 10:30 a. m.

Our young friend Western R. Gales, has just closed a most successful meeting in Morganton. There were ninety five persons professed.

The beautiful weather drew forth a large crowd of ladies on the streets today, and the stores have done a pretty thriving business.

Prof Donald Downie will give a lecture in this city on May 23d in Metropolitan Hall. The subject will be the life of Napoleon. The lecture will be illustrated with views.

The North Carolina Medical Journal offers a $35 prize for the best essay on the history of surgery in North Carolina, to be read at the next meeting.

In the absence of the pastor, Rev Dr J W Carter, in attendance on the session of the Southern Baptist Convention in Nashville, Tenn., Rev Dr T E Skinner will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist church tomorrow.

The following are among the successful applicants before the Medical Board to practice medicine: W G Beckwith, New Hill; R L Holloway, Fish Dam; W F Farlon, Fayetteville; O B Walton, Raleigh; C T Wyche, Oxford; I S Favette, Burlington.

The Railway Commission have notified the telephone companies that they would be given a hearing June 1st. Under a new act the commission is given jurisdiction of these companies, just as of railways, with power to adjust rates, etc.

The 1st and 2d Regiments of the State Guard will go into camp at Carolina City, July 5th. It is said that many of the officers propose leaving for Chicago July 20th. It is hardly possible that any North Carolina troops will go to Chicago. Of course the Governor and his staff will go in August; the 18th of that month being "North Carolina day." It is quite well understood that the 2d and 1st regiments will not encamp this year.

Mr W R Crawford has one of the most complete refrigerators at his stall in the market ever seen in this city.

The trustees of the Colored Agricultural and Mechanical college have ordered that the work be pushed and that it be done by October 1st, so the buildings can be occupied. The construction of a new dormitory is ordered. In July the trustees will elect the faculty of the college.

Now is the time for Superintendent McMaekin to spread himself on the road question. He has done much, but more can be accomplished for the benefit of mankind, and especially to the city when the drive from the Hillsboro road to Pullen Park is considered.

There are 110 chewing tobacco factories in this State, and about fifty of them are located at Winston, the remainder being at Reidsville, Greensboro, Oxford, Henderson, Asheville and several smaller towns. Winston pays nearly a million dollars every year for stamps.

The prize of $100 offered by Dr N J Pittman, of Tarboro, for the best original essay on medicine, was divided between Dr J M Hays, of Oxford, and Dr R L Gibbon, of Charlotte. The title of Dr Hays' essay was "The Microscope and its Relation to the Practice of Medicine." The illustrations were numerous and well drawn. The title of Dr Gibbon's essay was "Hepatic Abscesses." Of course both papers are very valuable.

A Card.

Mr Editor—If you will allow me a small space through the columns of your newsy little sheet it will afford me great pleasure to announce to my friends and the public, especially those suffering from toothache and neuralgia, that Williams & King's famous toothache and neuralgia remedy is the best medicine I ever used. I have been a great sufferer of toothache and neuralgia and could get nothing that would affect a prominent cure until after using one bottle of the above remedy, which completely cured me. Take my advice; you won't have to try it twice; it costs you only 10 cents. Yours very truly, F A FENDER, May 8d, 1893. Raleigh, N. C.
