VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, MAY 17, 1893.

NO. 21

CITY IN BRIEF.

Beautiful weather.
Col. W. F. S. Burgwyn, of Henderson, is in the city.
Dr. G. T. Winston, of Chapel Hill, is in the city.
See advertisement of two side saddles for sale.
Col. W. H. Hicks is at the state farms on the Roanoke river.
There were no appointments by the governor this morning.
Mr. P. O. Hardie, who has been quite sick, is somewhat improved.
See notice of mortgage sale by T. R. Purnell attorney for mortgagee &c.
We are pleased to see our friend Mr. A. M. Seales, of Greensboro, in the city.

State Senator Means is in the city, in attendance on the Episcopal Convention.

The tax abstracts for the different counties of the state have all been sent out.

The exercises at Christ church tonight will be of the most interesting character.

Nine convicts recently made their escape from the workhouse of Durham county.

The movement for a monument over the remains of Col. L. L. Polk has not so far resulted in success.

There were four convicts brought to the penitentiary today—three from Cumberland and one from Polk.

The laws of the last general assembly have been completed and turned over to the Secretary of State for distribution.

Picnics and excursions will soon be the proper thing in this section, especially when the festive watermelon puts in an appearance.

Mr. John H. Sharp, of Wilmington, has written a full description of the surrender at Appomattox. It will prove highly interesting.

About sixty convicts will be transferred from the state farms to Chat-ham county to work on the Raleigh and Western railroads.

Mr. Page, proprietor, informed us this afternoon that he had every reason to believe the opera house would be ready for use in about four weeks.

We have received, in pamphlet form, the annual catalogue of the university of North Carolina. We will give a more extended notice hereafter.

A brass door key, was picked up a day or so since in front of the post-office. The owner can get it by calling at this office and paying for this advertisement.

The cinder coating on the sidewalk of East Hargett street, between Wilmington and Blount streets, was put down by Mr. H. H. Crocker and not by the city, as stated yesterday.

The many friends of Dr. Reall, of Greensboro, who was recently seriously injured by the running of his horse, will be glad to learn that he is now considered out of danger.

Our amiable friend Dr. G. W. Black-mall left today for a tour through the southwestern states in the interest of the Atlantic Hotel. The doctor has almost irresistible persuasive powers, and when added to the well known reputation of the "Atlantic" he is bound to succeed.

Our readers who are afflicted with deafness should not fail to write to Dr. A. Fontaine, Tacoma, Wash, for his circulars giving affidavits and testimonials of wonderful cures from prominent people. The doctor is an ardent of world wide reputation. See his advertisement elsewhere.

The way "Bargain Shoes" went today at Sherwood's would indicate that "real values" are quickly taken. Judges of good shoes were their best customers. The sale continues tomorrow and next day. We advise an early call to secure the best results.

Died.
Ell Carter, of Holly Springs, died this morning, aged 63 years. He leaves a large family consisting of a wife and eight children. The funeral will take place tomorrow afternoon.

Greensboro Female College.
The exercises of this most admirable institution will take place May 24th and 25th, in the college chapel. The annual sermon will be preached by Bishop Duncan, of Spartanburg, S. C., and the annual address by Hon. L. S. Overman, of Salisbury. There are 22 regular graduates and 13 graduates in music.

For Sale.
Two side saddles at a sacrifice. Lady owner going to Europe and has no further use for them. Can be seen at Frank Stronach's auction house.

10 and 12 1/2 a yard will be the price on a lot of new summer dress goods next Monday. Woolcott & Sons

The Steam Riding Gallery is located for a few days at Bledsoe's grove. Running every night, and on Saturday from noon till 11 o'clock.

Bank Failure.
We see notice of bank failures every day, but that does not affect our millinery department. Everything in this department is the very latest in style, the handsomest to be found and sold at the lowest figures. If you would get the best and the latest style at the smallest price, call at Swindell's.

About June 15th
Miss Maggie Reese will move her stock of millinery, &c. to No. —, one door south of F. A. Watson's. On that account will cut the price of a great many goods she does not wish to pack and move. Call and see her prices. my17 3t

G. ROSENTHAL, Sec. & Treas.
4 times.

The Snow Bank Mills.
Our inducement in clothing is strictly the price and not quality. Our clothing is going very fast. Why? Because we sell any clothing in the store at wholesale cost, and we are not replacing any. We have got a good assortment of spring clothing and will sell it at cost.
D. T. SWINDELL'S.

For You, My Friend.
The most interesting feature of our special sale next Monday is the variety of goods to be sold. 7 1/2 cents a yard. This sale is for your benefit, is just the goods you need at this particular time, there are goods in this sale worth a great deal more, but 7 1/2 cents has the chance Monday.
D. T. SWINDELL.

We Got 'em Sure.
We've got 'em Sure. B. G. & Co. Shoes, All right, Cincinnati Make, best ever struck Raleigh, for prices asked. They are fine goods, bound to please, fully warranted. Thirty styles to select from, high or low cuts, wide or narrow, big fats and low slims.
C. A. SHERWOOD & Co.

Ladies Blazer and Eton Suits.
There is no dress at the price that is more serviceable or stylish than a Blazer or Eton suit. They combine both wear and style for a moderate outlay.
Our showing of these garments embraces all the new ideas for this season and we cordially ask an inspection of this department.
We are also displaying complete lines of ladies shirt waists and a most extensive line of shirting silks at very attractive prices.
W. H. & R. S. TUCKER & Co.

CHEAP ICE—Do not forget what we said that we would not be undersold on ice. We now reassert that we will meet any prices that are or may be made for ice delivered in this city, and that we have plenty of it ALL THE YEAR as we have for the past several years. Jones & Powell.

ROSES, PALMS, ETC. I have a great assortment of everblooming roses, palms and all kinds of bedding plants gladioli and tuberose bulbs. Magnolias and evergreens, flower seed, tomato, pepper and pot grown egg plant, cauliflower, etc.
H. STEINMETZ, Florist

Sale of Chronicle Property.
By order of the court in an action entitled Antietam Paper Co et als vs The Chronicle Publishing Co et als, we will sell, on Saturday, 20th of May, 1893, at 3 o'clock p. m., at the office of the State Chronicle, in the Grimes building, city of Raleigh, the following articles of personal property, to-wit: A lot of desks and tables, imposing stones, chases, printer's ink, type, one folding machine, one letter press, one large stone and pipe and other articles. Terms of sale, cash.
J. W. HINSDALE, H. W. JACKSON, Receivers.
May 16th, 1893.

Grand Special Vestibled.
On Monday next we will have another mammoth special sale in which there will be more opportunities for securing bargains than in any of our special sales. This will be a 7 1/2 cent sale of dress goods assorted. Three tables will be filled with double width suiting, indigo blue lawns with white dots, black and white dotted lawns, plaids in mulls, dark and light organdies, Bedford cords and several other kinds. All these goods will be sold on next Monday at 7 1/2 cents per yard and no reserve, as this will be the last special sale of the kind this season. There will be goods in this sale worth 15 and 20 cents a yard, but the lots will buy any of them on next Monday, May 22d.
D. T. SWINDELL'S.

A Card.
Mr. Editor—If you will allow me a small space through the columns of your news little sheet it will afford me great pleasure to announce to my friends and the public, especially those suffering from toothache and neuralgia, that Williams & King's famous toothache and neuralgia remedy is the best medicine I ever used. I have been a great sufferer of toothache and neuralgia and could get nothing that would affect a prominent cure until after using one bottle of the above remedy, which completely cured me. Take my advice; you won't have to try it twice; it costs you only 10 cents.
Yours very truly, F. A. FENDER,
May 8d, 1893. Raleigh, N. C.
