VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, MAY 22, 1893.

NO. 24

CITY IN BRIEF.

The dentists are beginning to arrive.

Treasurer Tate has gone to his home in Morganton.

The festive watermelon is anxiously looked for, and then excursions.

Two convicts from Transylvania county, were brought to the penitentiary today.

The dentists will be here tomorrow in force. They will assemble in the senate chamber.

Irish potatoes are coming in freely. They look well, notwithstanding the ravages of the bug.

Messrs. W C & A B Stronach are having the sidewalk in front of their store paved with vitrified brick.

The sidewalk on the east side of Morgan between Fayetteville and Hargett streets is being improved.

Rev. J J Hall, pastor of the Baptist Tabernacle church, yesterday formally tendered his resignation to take effect August 1st.

An invitation has been extended to Evangelist Moody to hold services in Winston at some time between now and next spring.

A gentleman told us today that the transfer of the offices of the Seaboard Air Line to Norfolk would involve the removal of thirteen families from this city.

The church improvement society of the First Baptist church will meet in the Sunday school room tomorrow, Tuesday afternoon at 4:30. Every member requested to be present.

We acknowledge receipt of an invitation to attend the World's public press congress which convenes in the permanent memorial art palace, in the city of Chicago, during the present week.

The Memorial Association of New-Berne through Mrs. McLean vice president of the Monumental Association sends sixty dollars, to be deposited to the credit of Craven county, many thanks
PRESIDENT.

We are informed that the decoration of the graves of the Federal dead will take place on the afternoon of the 30th as usual. The ceremonies will, we presume, be under the immediate control of Gen Meade post, Grand Army of the Republic.

We hope that the suggestion to drape the different dwellings, stores and public buildings along the line of march on the 30th inst will be carried out. It will add much to the proper observance of the day. The tolling the bells should not be omitted.

We hear that it is the intention to convert the building now occupied by Maj Winder and other officials of the Seaboard Air Line into a freight depository, with offices, &c, for the agent. This, of course, will not take place until the removal to Norfolk.

This afternoon a rumor was brought to the city by persons on the train from the west that some of the prominent citizens of Durham were in financial difficulties. Diligent enquiries of the bank officers and others, presumed to know, give us reason to state that the whole thing is a canard.

There will be a very important meeting of the North Carolina Monumental Association at the State Library Wednesday afternoon the 24th at 5 o'clock p.m. The location and design of monument and other matters of general importance will be brought before the meeting.

PRESIDENT.

Mr. Chas Bretsch the well known baker, confectioner and ice cream extender, is now prepared to enter on the summer campaign in earnest. His saloon is nicely arranged and fitted up for the reception of ladies and gentlemen, while his bakery furnishes the most excellent cakes, pies &c. Give him a call. Remember the place, east side of Fayetteville street, first square below the capitol.

Preaching.

Elder J C Hudgins, of Granville county N. C., by appointment, will preach in the Primitive Baptist church Raleigh on 4th Sunday in May and day before, being the 27th and 28th inst. The public are cordially invited to hear him.

Executive Notice.

The governor today, issued a requisition on the governor of South Carolina for the rendition of Wm Rowell, a fugitive from justice who committed murder several years ago in Robeson county. Hector McRachern of that county was commissioned as agent to bring the criminal back to this state.

Several notaries public were commissioned for Salisbury, Wadesboro and other towns.

Not Going.

Maj W W Vass, treasurer of the Seaboard system, will not accompany the officials to Norfolk, Va. It is now understood that he will give up the position of treasurer and will accept that of commissioner of the sinking fund of the line. He has been in continuous service as treasurer for about half a century, and was for awhile president of the R & G railroad. The next oldest railroad treasurer was M W Yarrington, of the Richmond and Petersburg road, who resigned some time since. We are glad that the major will remain with us.

Agricultural Department.

We had a pleasant interview this morning with Col John Robinson, of the agricultural department, and his clerk, Mr P C Ennis. These gentlemen say that the enquiries from all parts of the country relative to the climate, resources, &c, of North Carolina are more numerous than ever before. They come mainly from the northwestern section of the union. All these enquiries are promptly answered. Mr Ennis informs us that Mr Bruner, who is in Chicago, reports the exhibit of North Carolina, so far, as showing a favorable comparison with other states. Commissioner Robinson today received the following letter from the commissioner of Alabama:

MONTGOMERY, Ala, May 18.
Hon John Robinson, Com'r. &c:
Dear Sir:—I am just in receipt of your 'Hand Book of North Carolina' and must say that it is the best that has reached this office.

Thomas & Maxwell.

We paid a hurried visit this morning to the furniture emporium of Messrs Thomas & Maxwell, on Exchange Place, south side of the market, and we can truly say we have never seen a better stock of everything in the furniture line. As an instance, we noticed splendid solid antique oak suits of furniture at the astonishing low price of $14 a set. This beats the record in Raleigh or anywhere else in North Carolina. In rocking chairs the firm is offering a large and varied lot at cost, while they will sell you a beautiful osken centre table at the unprecedented low price of $1. This has never been seen or even heard of in Raleigh before. In every other line Messrs Thomas & Maxwell are foremost. Sofas, looking glasses, lounges, &c, are found in profusion. The babies are well looked after because they offer for sale a superb lot of carriages of beautiful design and finish. Call at once.

You can get a ladies straw hat Monday for 10c worth 50c, at D. T. SWINDELL'S.

May 30th.

Will be a big day in Raleigh, but May the 29th will be equally as large. On that day we will sell ladies' straw hats at 10c, worth from 35c to 75c each. Also a lot of men's straw hats worth from 35c to 75c, will be sold same day at same price. Monday is the day—10c is the price at D. T. SWINDELL'S.

You can buy a man's straw hat for 10c Monday worth 35c, at SWINDELL'S.

Harris Ses He Will Talk About the People Again.

While I know that Raleigh's gentlemen police men have two much brains to think that I ment a single word I sed when I humorously referd to them in my little advertising sheet, there might be some gander shank son of a kangaroo, whos head is stuffed with saw dust where his brain should have bin, that would think I ment to say a word agaisst the finest boddy of men that ever escaped the gentle embrace of a female cyclone, I will more fully describe this class of escaped lunatics in my next talk about the people. Tha are even bigger fools than the people who bought lots in Idle Wild, and if I ever ketch one of them out of jail I will have him sent to the Carolina mills and ground up for fertilizer.

Yours truly,

The Ties, the Ties, the Oxford Ties.

"There are marriage ties,
And friendly ties
And ties which business makes.
There are solemn ties,
And merry ties,
And ties in betting stakes.
There are builders' ties
And railroad ties
Which an actor can recall.
But the OXFORD TIES
Which we advertise
Are the prettiest ties of all."

Judging from quantity, quality, style and variety it would seem an easy matter for us to please the extreme tastes, in low cut footwear.
Our friends compliment the selection and our customers with pleasure lay down the COIN for the "excellent values" we show.
