Gliding out from the shadow of the tall ferns came Eunice Earle, with a muttered exclamation, "Little darling, I will avenge you !" she stooped down and raised the slight, girlish form. She dashed the cool water from the fountain into the pale face and saw the blue eyes open. She half carried her friend to their rooms, call ed a maid and stepped into the private boudoir.

She stood for a minute before her mirror, a beautiful picture of the dark voluptuous style. Waving, dark hair, lustrous eyes, perfectly chiseled nose and lips, dimples holding Cupid's arrows, a tall superb form, the rich am ber dress in its severe Greek beauty the diamonds fisshing from hair. arms and neck, made her a bewildering picture.

The lips moved in solemn words: "Eunice Earle, tonight I am glad you are fair to look upon. Follow Terbert Johnston to his grave, if need be, but avenge that little girl whose heart he has broken."

She descended the broad, white stairs. With smiling eyes she entered the crowded rooms; with grateful heart she acknowledged the murmur of interest that greeted her arrival, with pleasart words she welcomed Herbert Johnston.

They were a perfectly matched pair only Eunice's heart held a deeper purpose than the gayety of an evening and desire to make a pleasing impression. Every word attered, every compliment exchanged, found its echo, "Revenge!"

VICKSBURG, Miss, May 30.-There are at least ten thousand homeless and hungry people in East Carroll, Morehouse, West Carroll and Madison parishes, La, and the suffering and privations they are undergoing is appalling.

With the exception of a few small elevations the whole of the northeastern portion of the State is under water. Forty our negroes were res. cued from a perilous position near Swan Lrke, East carroll parish, Sun* day night. They were almost insane from hunger, having been without food four days.

Two children died Friday from exposare. Their bodies were wrapped in blankets, and thrown into the raging waters, there being no dry ground in which to bury them and the implements with which to dig the graves.

An old hermit was rescued four miles from Swan Lake who had been without food three days. When found he was sitting astride the roof of his house munching meat from the bones of his dog, which he had been com-pelled to kill. Governor Foster sent all the tents at his command to the sufferers at Lake Providence.

Judge Lochren tersely defines the policy upon which he will run the Pension Office as follows: "The equal energeic and exactly just administration of the pension laws as they are found upon the statute books. If a man is entitled to a pension he ought to have it, and if he is not entitled to it he should not apply. The department is really a court of claims, and it is the business and duty of its official to enter upon examination of the papers submitted in each case with patience and without bias. So far as lies in my power this will be done. If public money is being paid to the unworthy is will be discontinued."
