

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, FRIDAY, JUNE 2, 1893.

NO. 34

CITY IN BRIEF.

The collections of internal revenue in this district, for the month of May were $69,529.45.

Gov Carr and his secretary, Maj F Telfair, returned to the city from Richmond yesterday afternoon.

Dr. Blackna'll left today for Morehead to attend the opening of the Atlantic Hotel for the season.

Attention is called to the notice of administrator's sale by A Syme administrator.

Mrs. Sidney Gilliam, of Richmond, Va., is in the city, visiting her sister, Miss Gracie Snead at Mr. Leonard Royster's.

We regret to state that Mrs. Eliza Lambeth, the venerable mother of our friend Mr. C W Lambeth, is very ill.

Misses Anna and Ella Ferrell, of Durham, are in the city, the guests of Mrs. H H Crocker on East Hargett street.

Let all who desire to hear a first class lecture go to Metropolitan Hall tonight. The subject is "Yourself and Other People." Admission 25 cents.

The North Carolina Teachers' Assembly meets at Morehead City, N. C., June 20 to July 4, 1893. During that time address all communications there.

Don't forget the lecture of Rev A O Dixon at Metropolitan Hall tonight, "Yourself and Other People" is the subject. Mr Dixon ranks high as a lecturer and something good may be expected.

Gov. Carr this morning respited Tony Rogers of Richmond county, who was to have been hung on the 6th inst. to Tuesday June 27th. He was convicted and sentenced for murdering his wife by poison.

Attention is directed to the advertisement of the Lyon Racket Store which announces new arrivals. This well known establishment is offering such inducements to purchasers as cannot fail to attract. Call and see them.

Mr. Wiley Hicks has been very ill for some time at his residence corner of Lenoir and Bloodworth streets. He has a family consisting of six children, and they are in need of the necessities of life. We hope our charitable citizens will aid them in their misfortune.

In accordance with the provisions of an act of the last General Assembly, Deputy Clerk Moye, of the Superior Court clerk's office, is now engaged in entering in books a revised list of the magistrates of the county. It will be well done.

Tonight is the time for Rev. A O Dixon's lecture at the Baptist Tabernacle. Subject "Yourself and other people." Mr. Dixon is a man of great ability and you will be well repaid and benefited by hearing him. Go by all means.

It is a good decision that the funeral car in the Davis ceremonies is to be preserved by the North Carolina Antiquity society. It will give future generations an insight into how their ancestors could reverence the memory of the great chieftain of the "southland."

Patronize the street cars to the fullest extent. Just think what a sad plight Raleigh would be in without them. To retain the lines and allow their extension they should be patronized to the fullest extent. Manager Huff is doing his full duty. Let our people appreciate it.

We hope that the improvements authorized by the last legislature for the Insane Asylum in this city, will be carried out as soon as possible. The institution is now about filled to its utmost capacity, and there are many applications. The efficient Superintendent Dr. Woods is untiring in his efforts, but more room is imperatively needed.

Notices.

Ruth Lodge No. 4, D of R, hold their meeting at 8 o'clock tonight. All members are requested to be on hand. Those who have been elected to this degree will please present themselves for initiation at 8:15 p.m. A J WILLIAMS, Sec'y.

Exhibition.

The concert and exhibition of the pupils of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind will take place tonight in the chapel of the institution at 8:30 o'clock. Public cordially invited to attend.

Very Sad.

This morning on the arrival of the train from Atlanta a young lady came to spend some time with Mrs. T O Fawcett on West Harrington street. She was met at the depot with a telegram stating that her father was accidentally killed. She resides in South Carolina. We could not get the names or the particulars.

St. Mary's Alumnae.

A meeting of St. Mary's Alumnae Association will be held at St. Mary's Chapel, Raleigh, June 8th, (Thursday) at 1:30 p.m.

It is hoped that the "Scholarship" fund will be increased at this meeting. A full attendance, therefore, is specially desired.

MRS. E S TRAPIER, Pres't
MISS E W McVEA, Treas.
MISS KATE McKIMMON, Sec.

The Weather.

For North Carolina: Showers near the coast.

Local forecast for Raleigh and vicinity

On Saturday: Fair, warmer; followed probably by showers Saturday evening and Sunday.

Local data for 24 hours ending at a m. today:

Maximum temperature, 79 min'mum temperature 65; rainfall 0.75.

A Bad Change.

We hear it intimated that a change will be made in the schedule of the Cape Fear and Yadkin Valley Railroad, next week, whereby the connection in the evening with the train from Raleigh will be discontinued. If this is carried out, it will be a great drawback involving much inconvenience to those desiring to go to Fayetteville or Wilmington on the 4:30 afternoon train, besides interrupting to a considerable extent the business between these places. The schedule as now carried out is one of great convenience, and we most earnestly hope that the officials of the C. F. & Y. V. R. R. will reconsider the matter, if decided. It will work considerable hardship. We hope the people of Wilmington and Fayetteville will make efforts to have the present arrangement continued.

All who desire to attend an interesting evening of music attend the concert and exhibition of the pupils of the Institution for the Deaf and Dumb and the Blind tonight. The exercises will begin at 8:30 o'clock.
