VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, MONDAY, JUNE 5, 1893.

NO. 36

CITY IN BRIEF.

Col R T Bennett is in the city.
C A Cook Esq., is in the city.
This has been a field day at the court house.

Several northern gentlemen are here, taking in the city.
Days length 14 hours and 30 minutes.

Judge Seymour will arrive this afternoon.

The street cars did a thriving business yesterday.

Lots of folks in town in attendance on the meeting of commissioners and magistrates.

The services at the Y M C A rooms yesterday afternoon were highly interesting.

The camp ground at Morehead City as laid off is 730 by 736 feet and will accommodate 800 men.

A tremendous crowd attended services at the Baptist Tabernacle church yesterday morning and night.

A neat six room cottage with conveniences, on Halifax street, is advertised for rent.

The rate of board for all who attend the Teachers' Assembly at Morehead, will be only $1. a day. The fare will be all that could be expected.

Let jurors and witnesses at the Federal court be on hand tomorrow. Don't forget it, or it may be cause for regret.

The church improvement society of the First Baptist church will meet in the Sunday school room tomorrow, Tuesday, afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Dughl received another fine order for cream today from Durham, which he is furnishing for special occasion. His reputation is continually on the increase.

Attention is specially called to the city ordinance prohibiting the putting of trash &c., on the streets. All citizens should see that it is promptly carried out.

The pupils of the public schools who took part in the entertainment last Thursday night are requested to meet the teachers in Metropolitan Hall, tomorrow morning at 9 a. m.

Can't our friend Manager Heart secure Col. A M Waddell for the delivering at Metropolitan Hall, of his address "Socialism in America?" Our people would no doubt like to hear it.

Let our people and strangers also remember that the ice cream saloon of Mr Ohas Brestch is one of the most quiet and best regulated in the State. The best of cream always on hand accompanied by the nicest and freshest cakes, &c., Fayetteville St., first square this side of market.

The Rosenthal Clothing Company today present some solid facts for the consideration of the public. They can best be told by a visit to the immense establishment on Fayetteville street opposite the postoffice, where Mr "Dave" Rosenthal the gentlemanly and experienced manager will tell all about it.

The model of the old locomotive "Tornado" which was the first to enter this city over the R & G Railroad, is now at the Mechanical Department at the Fair grounds where it will remain until after the exhibition next fall. We think it should then be turned over to the N C Antiquity Society.

We invite the special attention of the public to the fact that Mr. J W Evans is ready to turn out the best work in the shape of repairs to vehicles ever done in this city. He also has the celebrated Fraizer cart shafts in stock. All desiring work done at the most moderate rates should call at once. He will be sure to please you.

Money to lend
On good city or country real estate.
PEELE & MAYNARD, AGTS.

Atlantic Hotel.

The management of this most excellent hotel, at Morehead City, for the present season is under B L Perry, one of the most popular hotelists in the south. Every effort will be made to render all guests comfortable. We hope that there may be no diminution in the patronage especially from North Carolina.

Just Like Him.

A most delightful lunch was given last Saturday evening by Major S F Telfair, to a select number of his associates and friends. It took place at Jordan's cafe on Fayetteville St., and was a most enjoyable occasion. Among those present were Gen Cameron, Col Hubert Haywood, Colonel E G Harrell, Captain John W Oross, Colonel W B Grimes, Captain Jones, U S A, Colonel E B Englehard, Lieut Alfred Williams, Dr James McKee, Mr Howard Thomas and others. It was just like the "Major."

Funeral.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Eliza Heath Lambeth took place yesterday morning at 11 o'clock from Edenton Street M E church. The services were conducted by Rev. J N Cole and were attended by a large crowd of relatives, friends and citizens generally. The following were the pall bearers: O B Root, O G Latta, R T Gray, W H Hughes, Alf A Thompson and Hugh Morson.
