VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JUNE 10, 1893.

NO. 41

CITY IN BRIEF.

Dull times in the marriage license business.

The bathing pool at Pullen Park is now in full operation.

The nights will soon be in order to swing on the gates.

Persons in the city today report Neuse river as quite high.

The cotton receipts are small and no material improvement in prices.

The gardens and yards now look beautiful—so does the baby brigade.

Judge A C Avery and family will spend the summer months in Morganton.

We hear many compliments bestowed upon Mr Geo H Snow for his argument made today in the case of E T Smith.

Rev L W Crawford, of Trinity College, will preach at Edenton Street Methodist church tomorrow morning and at Central church at night.

Mr. E G Harrell tells us that the full compliment of those going to the Columbian exposition is made up. He anticipates a most glorious occasion in all respects.

There is considerable rivalry between Durham and Winston in the revenue collections. In the latter place for the month of May the amount was $43,473.70.

We hope to be able in a few days to announce that connection has been made between Pullen Park and the electric railway. It will be a great convenience to our people.

The commencement exercises at Elon College were highly interesting. We are glad to state that the prospects of the institution are encouraging to the highest degree.

The argument in the case of E T Smith the Fayetteville Bank President was concluded in the Federal court this morning and the jury at last accounts had it under consideration.

Strange things happen in this world. About the time the old Ford opera house fell in Edwin Booths was lying dead. His brother, J Wilkes Booth, killed Lincoln in the house. Remarkable coincidence.

The Raleigh Typographical Union will meet at Rescue Hall this evening at 5:15 o'clock p m. for the purpose of making arrangements to attend the funeral of Mr. Jno. S Hampton deceased; late a member of the Union.

The market today was fully up to the usual standard. There is a notable display of potatoes, huckleberries, raspberries and everything else in profusion, in season. Vegetables are immensely cheap and a good dinner can be had for a very moderate sum.

Epworth League.

Devotional meeting of Marvin Chapter tomorrow afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in Edenton Street Sunday school room. All boys invited.

The Re Union.

The re-union services of the Sunday school of the First Baptist church tomorrow, will be of unusual interest. A large number of our people have in the past been scholars in that school, and if there is a general attendance the exercises will be the means of bringing together numerous friends of the olden time.

Be Ready.

Remember the Asheville excursion which leaves Raleigh, Tuesday, June 27th for Asheville. Splendid opportunity to visit Western North Carolina, and see its beautiful and romantic scenery Two days in the mountains. Splendid climate. Nice accommodations. Cool breezes. All for the small sum of $3.50 the round trip. No better opportunity ever offered for recreation. Don't fail to take it in.

Professions.

Of the graduates at Chapel Hill this year ten will be lawyers, ten teachers, three physicians, four journalists, one a minister and one undecided.

A High Honor.

Mr Marsden Bellamy, of Wilmington has been selected as the new Supreme Dictator of the Knights of Honor in the United States and Canada. This is a high compliment, not only to a very worthy and highly respected citizen of our state, but to North Carolina as well. Mr Bellamy is now in the north, but will shortly return to Wilmington where he will be received with much cordiality.

Trinity Graduates.

There were seven graduates at Trinity College this year. The Charlotte News says: The medal for scholarship, known as the Braxton Craven medal, was won by Henry P Boggs. It was presented by Prof Charles D Melver. The prizes for the best students in North Carolina history were awarded to Robert H Willis ($60 in cash) and Jesse A Baldwin (40). These were presented by Prof Bassett, a fellow of Johns Hopkins University. Bibles were presented to each graduate by Rev Jesse A Cunningham.

A High Compliment.

A leading paper of Galveston, Texas, gives a glowing description of the late exercises at Wake Forest College commencement. Particular reference is made to the banquet over which Mr A Dughi, of this city, was the chief caterer. It is loud in its praise of the "menu," and declares that it was one of the finest "get ups" that was ever seen on such an occasion. The ice cream came in for a full share of praise, it being declared that for splendid flavor and elegant design it could not have been surpassed. It appears that the reputation of Mr Dughi is reaching out even to the borders of the country, and his title of the "Delmonico" of the south is being fairly won. The compliment is not only one of which Mr Dughi may be proud, but it is shared in by all our people.

Fifty car loads of garden truck passed over the Atlantic Coast Line last Tuesday bound north.

Send orders today for ice cream for dinner Sunday to Chas Bretsch. Telephone 102.
