

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 14, 1893.

NO. 44

CITY IN BRIEF.

Mr. Donnie Woodell is in the city. Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Dortch, of Gadsden, Ala. are here visiting relatives.

Miss Bell Sawyer, is in the city on a visit to her friend Miss Maud Harris.

Miss Bessie Leak and little niece, of Durham, are here visiting relatives.

Capt Thomas Ross Robertson was appointed postmaster of Charlotte yesterday.

Miss Bertha Hicks has returned home from Durham where she has been visiting.

See advertisement of Mr. Marion Johnson, administrator of Mrs. Emily Johnson, in this issue.

Lafayette Encampment, I. O. O. F., was organized at Fayetteville Friday night last with 19 charter members.

If you want to enjoy the privilege of the fresh mountain air, go on the Asheville excursion on the 27th inst.

Mr. Ringgold Harris leaves tomorrow for Morehead to take charge of the liquid refreshment department at the hotel.

Superintendent Huff, of the Street Railway, and Mrs. Huff, are out of the city for the present, having gone on a visit to the father of Mrs. Huff.

Mr. Keogh, representing H. Bayer and son of Charleston, owners of the Hygienic Ice Plant of this city, is here looking after the interest of the plant.

We are pleased to see in the city Mr. Willis R. Williams, of Pitt, who is in attendance upon the meeting of the Board of Agriculture, of which he is the oldest member.

Mr. Henry Watterson, of Kentucky, arrived in this city today and was the recipient of many courtesies from the press and others. He will speak at Metropolitan Hall tonight.

Col. W. F. Green, Dr. W. R. Capehart, Mr. H. E. Fries, and Mr. J. F. Payne and other members of the board of trustees are here attending the A. & M. College commencement.

Mr. Baldy Boyden, of Salisbury has been appointed postmaster of that town in place of Mr. J. H. Ramsey, resigned. A good appointment and one that will give general satisfaction.

A severe hail storm passed between Salisbury and Thomasville on Monday last. It is said hail stones as large as a partridge egg fell. No damage was done as far as could be learned.

The Monroe Enquirer gets off this frog story: Mr. Alec Crook was at his spring a few days ago and saw a large bull frog swallow a live chicken. Mr. Crook killed the frog and the chicken hopped out alive.

In consequence of the exercises in connection with the A. & M. College at Metropolitan hall tonight, the announcement of the usual Wednesday evening services at the First Presbyterian church is withdrawn.

We return thanks to the ladies of the Marguerite festival, held yesterday afternoon and last night, to a very nice treat of cake and cream which the office appreciated. Some ladies never forget the printer.

Tomorrow evening between the hours of 5 and 11 o'clock the ladies aid society of the Edenton Street Methodist church will serve ice cream and other delicacies to their friends at the old stand of McKimmon & Moseley, on Fayetteville street. A cordial invitation is extended to the public generally.

A pleasant evening may be expected by all who attend the sociable at the Tabernacle Sunday school room Thursday night. The ladies of the church have made preparations for one of their very best entertainments. Those who can possibly attend should be sure to do so. An enjoyable hour may be had at very little cost.

Don't fail to hear Henry Watterson at Metropolitan Hall tonight.

There was a large crowd in attendance at the Marguerite festival last night.

Go to night and hear Mr. Watterson at Metropolitan Hall. The public are cordially invited.

The Board of Agriculture and the Trustees of the A. & M. College are in session here today.

The young ladies of the neighborhood were out in force at the reception at the Agricultural and Mechanical college last night.

Yesterday afternoon Gov. Carr pardoned Wm. Mab, sentenced to five years in the penitentiary from Alleghany county for larceny.

Rev. P. H. Hoge and family, of Wilmington, are in the city, visiting President Holladay at the Agricultural and Mechanical college.

During the vacation it is in contemplation to make some important improvements in the premises of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum in this city.

Miss Duffey Corn left on Monday for a week's visit to her uncle Rev. George J. Dowell, of Williamston, N. C., accompanied by her cousin Mr. Wm. B. Dowell, of Bell Sumpter, Ala.

Reception.

The reception at the Agricultural and Mechanical College last night was a brilliant affair. There was a large number of persons in attendance from the city, and many strangers. Prof. Holladay assisted by his wife and Mrs. P. H. Hoge, of Wilmington, did the honors of the occasion. The reception lasted from 9 to 12 o'clock. Supper was served in the spacious dining room.
