LARGEST CITY CIRCULATION.

RALEIGH, JUNE 14, 1893.

TELEGRAPHIC BREVITIES.

Insurance companies have decided to increase the rates on tobacco.

The American National Bank, of Omaha, and the Park City Bank, of Salt Lake, have suspended.

The Borden murder mystery trial is slowly progressing. The evidence so far seems to be in favor of Miss Borden.

For criminal assault on a lady Wm Shorter, negro, was taken from the sheriff by a mob at Kernstown, Va, yesterday and hanged.

James Gordon Bennett, who was so seriously hurt in Paris a few days ago, is improving. He is out of danger.

Lightning struck and burned the cradle in which was sleeping the infant child of Henry Davis, of Saranac Lake, N. Y., yesterday, but the child was uninjured.

At a fire in a building in which 250 people were at work in New York yesterday morning, several of the inmates leaped from the third story windows and were dashed to death on the brick pavement.

Maggie Lillie, a white woman, because her parents refused to give her money to buy drink, paraded past her home in New York, yesterday morning, with a negro. She was arrested and sent to prison for six months.

WE ARE FARING WELL.

LIST OF NORTH CAROLINIANS WHO HAVE RECEIVED APPOINTMENTS.

Concord Times.

North Carolina has fared much better at the hands of the present administration than most of us realize at first thought. While in Washington recently we took trouble to get a list of those who have been appointed by the President and those who have secured positions in the departments. We publish them below in the order of their prominence:

A D Jones, of Raleigh, consul general to Shanghai, salary and fees, $7,500.

Eben Alexander, of Chapel Hill, minister to Greece, Roumania and Servia, salary $6,500.

Kerr Craige, of Salisbury, Third Assistant Postmaster General, salary $4,000.

Paul Faison, of Raleigh, Indian agent, salary $3,000 and expenses.

G W Sanderlin, of Wake, deputy auditor, salary $3,350.

W H Kitchen, of Scotland Neck, special inspector of customs, $6 a day and expenses.

George McCorkle, of Newton, chief of division in Interior Department, salary $3,350.

Josephus Daniels, of Raleigh, appointment clerk in the Interior Department, salary $3,000.

A D Shaw, of Rockingham, principal examiner in Land Office, salary $3,000.

E F Lovell, of Watauga, land inspector, $6 a day.

L R Exline, of Pittsboro, messenger, Interior Department, salary $340.

Frank Irvin, of Greensboro, messenger, Treasury Department, salary $340.

Besides the above Gen. W R Cox, of Wake, has been elected secretary of the Senate at a salary of $5,350.

Since the above list was prepared Col W H Bargwyn, of Henderson, has been appointed a national bank examiner, salary not known.

And Mr. W W Scott, Jr., of Lenoir, has been appointed a chief of division in the Treasury Department.

NOT MUCH OF AN INVESTMENT.

Chicago Tribune.

Tommy (at the barn)—Papa, is this the finest team in town?

Tommy's father—No, but there isn't any finer. Those horses, my boy, cost me $300. They are a perfect match, high spirited, good travelers and come of a famous ancestry.

"That's why you've got such a nice barn, isn't it?"

"Yes, partly. A pair of fine horses, my son, must be considered as an investment, and a good business man always takes care of his investments."

"And that's why you watch 'em so much and drive on the boulevards with 'em, and keep 'em looking so slick, isn't it?"

"Yes, that's on the same principle. A careful man is bound to look well after his investments and see that they are always in good shape."

(After some cogitation) "You don't consider me much of an investment, do you, papa?"

DISTANCES AT THE FAIR.

Cor. Pittsburg News.

To see all that is to be seen and improve all the opportunities it offers will be no summer day's task. One who comes to Chicago expecting to take in these wonders in a day or two or a week will go away regretting that which he must of necessity leave unseen. A month would not exhaust its interest. Perhaps it may be thought this is an overstatement. A few facts and figures will show that it is not. Jackson park, in which the exposition is being held, has a frontage on Lake Michigan of 1 1/2 miles and contains 533 acres, 77 of which are water.

The Midway plaisance is a mile long and 600 feet wide and contains 80 acres more. There are 39 exposition buildings proper, with a floor space of 150 acres. Adding the galleries, here are 199.7 acres. Grouped around these are 44 state and territorial buildings, 18 buildings erected by foreign governments and 40 others for the minor purposes of the management, restaurants and advertising wares and enterprises. In the Midway plaisance are the foreign villages, shops, etc., described in a previous letter.

The visitor who would merely take a passing look at each of the vast array of exhibits must prepare to walk along 19 1/2 miles of aisles. Add to this the distances from one building to another, which must of necessity be traveled many times, and the distance to be covered will reach fully 150 miles.

When Baby was sick, we gave her Castoria,
When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria,
When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria,
When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

MARRIED ON THE SPOT.

Among the guests at Mrs J C Parker's tea party, at Middletown, Del., were Harry O Johnson and Miss Lizzie Wamsley. As the party was about to break up the young woman accepted a proposal of marriage from Mr. Johnson. The latter wanted to be married at once, and Miss Wamsley did not object. The minister N M Browne performed the ceremony. A few minutes afterward Mr. and Mrs. Johnson received congratulations.

The first expedition of Columbus cost $7,300 of our money, which included the equipment of the three vessels whose duplicates have just visited our shores. Columbus received as admiral only $330 a year; his captains received $16 a month—in our money of today—and the sailors received $3 to $2.50 a month. Other expenses were in proportion.

The Richmond State says the Massachusetts authorities who many months ago imprisoned a young woman on the charge of murdering her father and mother, and since have been under fire because of tardiness in calling for a trial, are using every means in their power to convict and thus defend themselves. The public will weigh the evidence, and the jury will do well to make the verdict just or they will hear from the people.
