

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, THURSDAY, JUNE 15, 1893.

NO. 45

CITY IN BRIEF.

Cool and cloudy.
 Weather rather unsettled for June.
 Col. W. H. C. Jones, of Charlotte, is in the city.
 Col. Benham Cameron, of Stagville, is in the city.
 The farmers report the wheat harvest as abundant.
 The season at Morehead City is fast getting under way.
 Hunters say there are more squirrel than for many years past.
 Dr. Royster and wife have gone to Philadelphia, on a visit.
 Dancing parties have commenced in the pavilion at Pullen Park.
 Col. W. H. Burgwyn has entered on his duties as bank examiner.
 The electric railway connection with Pullen Park will be finished in a few days.
 There are now about 135 convicts in the penitentiary inclosure. The health of the inmates continues fairly good.
 The through fast train passes through Raleigh with remarkable punctuality. It is rarely a few minutes out of time.
 The executive committee of the Board of Agriculture will probably go to Chicago in July to examine the North Carolina exhibit.
 Rev. J. R. Ball, of Greensboro, a prominent and influential minister of the Methodist Protestant church, died yesterday afternoon.
 One convict was received at the penitentiary from Graham county yesterday afternoon. He is put in for 12 months for larceny.
 No better opportunity to visit the western portion of North Carolina than the excursion to Asheville on the 27th inst. Be sure to go.
 It is said that Hon. Henry Watter-son is a most untiring worker when on duty at the office of the Courier Journal. He frequently works 16 hours out of the 24.
 Look at the picture of the Prince of Wales in the Durham smoking to bacco advertisements and compare it with a well known railroad man of this state. How does it strike you?
 When you read this, hurry at once to the office of the clerk of the Supreme Court, where the North Carolina Relief Association is in session. It met at 4:30 o'clock this afternoon.
 A fact that justices of the peace should note, is that a removal from a township in which the office is held causes a vacancy. Such persons presuming to act are declared guilty of a misdemeanor.
 Attention is directed to the advertisement of J. W. Littlejohn, corner of South Swain and East Cabarrus streets, where can be found at all times a select stock of groceries, &c. Give him a call.
 Mr. Jasper McRary's little son, 13 years old, killed a rattle snake with four rattles, near the residence of the late Mr. John Devereux yesterday. Look out boys, there are some more near the same place.
 The funeral of the late Thos. F. Bridges took place this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock from the residence of his brother in law R. G. Dunn. It was largely attended by friends and his old comrades in arms.
 How would it do to get Hon. Jno B. Gordon to deliver his lecture on Grant and Lee in this city for the benefit of the monument fund. It strikes us that it would prove a great help. The subject and the man are both attractive.
 The Liquor Dealers Association will meet at Metropolitan Hall on the 21st inst. The following is the committee on the part of the Wake county association: S. T. Smith, E. V. Denton, J. N. Denton. Entertainment: A. Marks, John Smith, J. D. Carroll, J. N. Denton, T. R. Jones, W. D. Upchurch, Jr.

We notice that our friend, Mr. S. M. Young, of the A and M college, has submitted plans and specifications for the building of a bridge on West Morgan street, over the Seaboard Air Line Railroad. Now, if our friend will push the matter to a successful issue before the Board of Aldermen, he will deserve special thanks.
 As it now appears we are to have no 4th of July celebration, in this city, and a very large crowd will no doubt take advantage of the reduced rates to take in the Guilford Battle Ground exercises. A tremendous attendance is looked for from all over the State.
 It is a consolation to know, that although the offices of the Seaboard Air Line are to be removed the shops will remain. It would indeed have been a serious blow to Raleigh, if the removal talked of some time since had been carried out.
 The ladies aid society of Edenton Street Methodist church will be glad to see their friends at McKimmon & Moseley's old stand on Fayetteville street this evening. Hours from 5 to 11.
 McKimmon & Moseley's old stand on Fayetteville street this evening will be opened by the ladies where they will be glad to receive their friends.
 Miss Ila Harrington, of Fayetteville, one of Cumberland's fairest daughters, is in the city the guest of Mrs. Henry T. Hicks, 226 East Morgan street.
 Call at McKimmon & Moseley's old stand on Fayetteville street this evening and let the ladies serve you with nice refreshments. Hours 5 to 11.
 The directors of the State Normal and Industrial school are in session here today.
 It will soon be time to brush up for the fall trade.
