

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, SATURDAY, JUNE 17, 1893.

NO. 47

CITY IN BRIEF.

Judge Connor is in the city.

New corn and cucumbers have put in an appearance.

There are comparatively few inmates in our county jail, and these for minor offenses.

A special car has been provided for the colored people on the excursion to Asheville on the 27th.

The Atlantic hotel at Morehead is fast filling up already. The season promises to be a most successful one.

Good board has been arranged for the Asheville excursionists, on the 27th, at $1, $1.25 and $1.50 per day. Remember this.

Our Durham friends are much excited about a rock crusher. They should pattern after "old Wake" in the matter of good roads.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Western North Carolina Conference, M. E. church, will meet in the city of Charlotte next Thursday.

We are indebted to the committee of invitation of the Guilford Battleground Association, for a beautifully gotten up programme of the occasion.

James R. Jones, the old body servant of Jefferson Davis, has been appointed night watchman at the Atlantic hotel, Morehead, for the season.

A number of the Justices of the Peace throughout the State elected by the last Legislature have failed to qualify; the Governor is filling the vacancies.

A considerable party left here today for Morehead City, where they will enjoy the breeze and at the same time take in the Teachers Assembly next week.

It is said that John Allen Johnson is somewhat surprised at the length of his sentence. He thought his voluntary surrender would shorten it considerably.

A new building is to be erected for storage and the chemical department, in the rear of the Agricultural building. The work will be done during the present summer.

Maj C D Heartt informs us that no arrests have been made in this city during the past week. For a city containing sixteen thousand inhabitants this is indeed a remarkable showing.

We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend the tenth annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, June 20th to July 5th, accompanied by a certificate of membership.

Let us hope that such an arrangement may be made between Secretary Ayer and the various railroads as will ensure the having of the annual fair. This is a matter in which all of our people are interested.

The time for listing state and county taxes will soon be out. The books will be kept open late this evening to accommodate those whose business does not allow them to attend in the day. Don't overlook it. There may be something serious in it.

The excursion to Asheville on the 27th, inst. will be the best chance to visit Western North Carolina, that has been offered for a long time. The beautiful mountain scenery, thriving towns, and delightful climate all are sources of attraction. Best accommodations, splendid cars, polite attention. Remember the fare for all this is only $3.50 the round trip. Be sure to go.

Prof Horace F Smith, under whose charge the Y M C A gymnasts will give an exhibition in Metropolitan Hall next Tuesday night, paid us a call this morning. Prof Smith speaks in high terms of the local gymnasts and says that he will be able to give the Raleigh people a good program, consisting of tumbling, vaulting buck and horizontal bar work, Roman ladder posturing, &c. Our people should turn out in encouraging number and help the boys in their efforts.

It is much to be regretted that the financial condition of the A & M College necessitated to abolish the office of steward. Mr J N Hubbard had made a most efficient officer, and it is a pleasure to his friends to know that the change was one wholly of necessity.

The steam laundry outfit for the Insane Asylum has been contracted for to be ready in 60 days. This will be an immense saving to the institution.

The ordinance prohibiting the use of bicycles on the sidewalks should be strictly enforced. It is a dangerous practice especially at night.

Don't forget the order of the municipal authorities about the depositing of trash in the streets. The penalty in all cases will be enforced.

The Wachovia Loan and Trust Company has opened business in Winston with a capital of $200,000. Col F H Fries is president.

The Board of Agriculture, yesterday, re-elected Col John Robinson commissioner, and T K Bruner secretary.

The new hall of the Knights of Pythias at Greensboro, will be dedicated on the evening of June 21st.

Collector Hutchings is now looking after the market house renters. He will attend to the taxes later on.

The reports of building and Loan Associations are coming in rather slowly to the State Auditor.

The departments at the capitol today looked like they are in the midst of the dull season.
