

The Daily Evening Visitor.

VOL. XXIX.

RALEIGH, WEDNESDAY, JUNE 21, 1893.

NO. 50

CITY IN BRIEF.

In the midst of the heated term. Hillsboro is to have a new paper—Oconeechee Bee.

Mrs. Dora Heartt, of Durham, is here visiting relatives.

Miss Maud Ray of this city is visiting her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Holloway, of Durham.

Cultivated blackberries will soon be one of the leading industries in this vicinity.

Get ready for the Asheville excursion next Tuesday, June 27th. Round trip only $3.50.

The oat and corn crop in Nash Park, if there is not too much rain or too hot weather, will be a success.

Mr. W. M. Brown and wife, Mrs. Mary Bedford and little daughter and Mrs. Lovie Young left for Haywood yesterday morning on a visit to relatives.

See Sherwood's sayings about shoes. He says sensible sisters are satisfied with shoes sold by his salesmen. Sherwood sticks to his style of shoes, and says they are the best.

Mr. J. M. Broughton's little pony took a notion to runaway this morning, and he did so. The buggy was somewhat damaged before he was stopped in his wild career.

Attention is called to the advertisement of Royal & Borden in this issue. They ask you to call and see their "elastic" rocking chairs and rattan rockers. They are reliable gentlemen to deal with.

Mr. George Bergen will have charge of the observation car on the excursion to Asheville next Tuesday. This will be one of the most pleasant trips of the season. Buy your tickets at J. R. Ferrall & Co's store.

It must be hot weather in Charlotte. The News says that four of the workmen who were engaged in repairing the gas mains along Tryon street, laid down their picks and shovels yesterday and gave up their jobs because of the extreme heat.

We had a chat with a prominent official today who agreed with us that the present unsightly building used as a state arsenal should be removed from the capitol square. In the first place it is too small for the purpose. Cannot some arrangement be made to erect a building for the purpose in rear of the Supreme Court or Agricultural Department?

Attention, Odd Fellows.

Tonight at 8 o'clock Ruth Lodge No. 4, D of R. will hold a short session in connection with the Annual Convention. All Odd Fellows who have taken the degree of Rebekah are most cordially invited to attend and participate. Refreshments will be served during the evening.

Arrived.

This morning at 9 o'clock Trinity Methodist Sunday school arrived. They were met at the depot by the representatives of the different schools and escorted to Brookside Park where they were accorded a proper reception. They appeared to enjoy themselves during the day, hot as it was.

Patents.

The following patents, reported by C. A. Snow & Co, Washington, were granted to North Carolinians during the past week:

W. F. Beasley, Oxford, mouth piece for cigars and cigarettes; G. W. Grimes, Murfreesboro, cotton grader; W. M. Lindsey, Dennyville, vehicle shaft; W. G. Peyton, Red Springs, coke oven.

Compromise.

Mr. J. J. Steel, of Roxboro, was one of the persons injured by the railroad wreck at Boston's Bridge. He sued the R. & D. Railroad Co. for $30,000 damages. The company offers to compromise by paying him $2,750 and he thinks of accepting it, says the Durham Sun.

The Baptist College.

We hope that some friend who is knowing to the facts will give us something about the status of the Baptist Female College. We are frequently asked about the matter, but confess to an utter want of information in the premises. Are we to have it in Raleigh? If so, what is the outlook?

Ladies' Memorial Association.

There will be a meeting of the Ladies' Memorial Association at the Supreme Court Room tomorrow (Thursday) afternoon at 5:30 o'clock. As the subject for the next oration is to be chosen, and the improvement of the cemetery discussed, it is hoped there will be a good attendance of the members and of the auxiliary. MRS. GARLAND JONES, Pres't. MRS. F. A. OLDS Sec'y.
